

“the Company”) intend to apply to Parliament in the next session thereof for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes:—

To enable the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire, and sell or let on hire, and contract for work in connection with gas engines, stoves, meters, fittings, and apparatus in which gas may be used.

To authorise the Company to provide and supply electricity, or electric energy, or any other description of light or illuminating power; or to make applications for power to provide and supply electricity or any such light or illuminating power within the limits in which they are authorised to supply gas, or within such area as may be defined in the Bill.

To empower the Company to provide all such steam or other engines, machinery, apparatus, and appliances as they may deem expedient for producing, manufacturing, conducting, and supplying within such area as aforesaid electricity or electric energy, or any such light or illuminating power as aforesaid.

To authorise the Company to acquire and take on lease lands and buildings or rights or easements in, over, or through lands and buildings for the purposes of the intended Act, and to lay, suspend, fix, or place wires, tubes, standards, posts, or other erections or apparatus for the purposes of their undertaking under, over, along, through, upon, in, and across any roads, streets, highways, railways, and all other public places or works, or any lands or buildings, and to maintain and repair such wires, tubes, standards, posts, or other erections or apparatus, and to enter into or upon, break up, or otherwise interfere with any such roads, streets, highways, railways, and other public places, lands, and buildings.

To empower the Company to demand, take, and recover rates and charges for the supply of such electricity or electric energy or light or illuminating power in addition to and beyond the rents and charges they are already authorised to demand, take, and recover for the supply of gas.

To enable the Company to apply to the purposes of the intended Act their existing funds and any moneys they are still authorised to raise, and for those purposes and the general purposes of their undertaking to raise additional capital by shares and stock and by loan, or by borrowing on mortgage or bond or by debenture stock, and to attach to any such shares and stock such preference or priority of dividend or interest and such rights to dividend as the Bill may define.

To authorise and provide for the division of the Company's existing and authorised shares and stock into shares or stock of different denominations or nominal amounts, and to fix and define the amount of dividend to which the divided shares or stock or new shares or stock issued in lieu of divided shares or stock shall be entitled.

To consolidate or convert into stock all or any of the shares of the Company, or to provide for such consolidation or conversion.

The Bill will, or may incorporate with itself, subject to any alterations or variations which may be deemed expedient, such of the provisions as may be deemed expedient of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847; the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871; the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; the Companies Clauses Act, 1863; and the Companies Clauses Act, 1869; and will repeal, alter, and amend all such of the provisions of the Plymouth and Stonehouse Gas Acts, 1845, 1855, and 1876, and of any other Acts relating to them or to their undertaking as may be deemed necessary or expedient, and will confer on the Company all such rights and privileges as may be deemed necessary for effecting the objects of the Bill, and will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 20th day of November, 1893.

In Parliament—Session 1894.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne Corporation.
(Providing for Passage of Foot Passengers, free of Toll, along North-Eastern Railway Bridge over Ouseburn Valley, and for payments necessary therefor by the Corporation of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; Empowering the Corporation to pay out of the Improvement Rate of the City the Moneys payable to the North-Eastern Railway Company for a Free Passage for Foot Passengers across the said Bridge; Levying and application of Rates; Repeal and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of City and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (hereinafter called the Corporation) intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following among said, purposes (that is to say):—

1. To make provision for the passage of foot passengers, free of toll, along the bridge or viaduct carrying the Newcastle and North Shields Railway of the North-Eastern Railway Company over the Ouseburn Valley, and for the payment by the Corporation out of the Improvement Rate of the said City of any moneys necessary for the purpose.

2. To confer upon the Corporation and the North-Eastern Railway Company all such powers as may be necessary to enable them to carry into effect, with or without alteration, an agreement bearing date the 11th day of April, 1888, and made between the Corporation of the one part and the North-Eastern Railway Company of the other part, for the purpose of providing a roadway for foot passengers, free of toll, across the Ouseburn Valley in the said City by means of the said bridge or viaduct, and particularly to empower the Corporation, during the subsistence of the said agreement from time to time to make, assess, and levy the Improvement Rate, authorised by the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Improvement Act, 1865, for, among other purposes, the purpose of paying all such moneys as shall be payable by the Corporation under, or by virtue of, the said agreement (whether already accrued or hereafter to accrue thereunder) and to constitute the payment of the said moneys, a purpose to which the said rate shall be applicable.

3. The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges, and will repeal, alter or amend, and extend the necessary provisions of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Improvement Act, 1853; the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Improvement Act, 1855; the Newcastle-upon-Tyne
