

carriages without the consent of the driver, and special provision for offences when committed by children, penalty in regard to the hoisting, lowering, and taking in of goods without proper tackle, penalty on persons roasting or burning drugs or other articles causing offensive or injurious smells or vapours, penalties for offences committed in streets in relation to the following matters:—The driving of cattle, the crying or sale of newspapers on Sunday, the drawing of timber, stone, and heavy goods, permitting goods, coal, or fuel to remain in the streets for an unnecessary period, carriage of carcasses and meat, for using abusive or insulting words, use of noisy instruments, trundling of hoops, burning or cleaning cork, restrictions in regard to bill-posting, penalties for stencilling, marking, and defacing footpaths and other public places with advertisements, for exposing goods for sale beyond line of buildings, for prohibiting sales in parks or public gardens, for throwing of any dirt, rubbish, and other things in any street, or into any sewer pipe, drain, watercourse, or reservoir, for causing any offensive matter to run into any street, for burning rags or offensive substance, for keeping or placing offensive matter in any enclosed or unenclosed ground near to any dwelling-house, for discharging smoke or steam into any street, for suffering any dirt, dust, or refuse produced in processes relating to the cleansing and grinding of wool or rags to fall into any street, for the sale or exhibition of obscene or indecent photographs, for loitering or importuning passengers for purposes of prostitution, for keeping in any dwelling-house any offensive or unwholesome matter, for keeping any dwelling-house in a dirty, unwholesome, or unhealthy condition, for pulling down notice boards; also provisions in regard to the following matters:—For regulating the deposit of coal or coke in streets, for prevention of accidents on footpaths, for preventing obstructions on footpaths, to prohibit persons assembling in streets for betting purposes, to provide that unfenced ground adjoining or abutting any street should be deemed a public place for the purpose of the Act 5, Geo. IV., cap. 83, restriction on advertising vehicles, for prevention of danger from whirligigs, swings, firearms, and shooting ranges and galleries.

53. To prohibit the keeping, using, or letting of any unlicensed house or tenement for stage plays or dramatic entertainment, or for any public show or exhibition, and to empower the police to enter and apprehend persons found therein, and to make other provisions in regard to the licensing, keeping, and using theatres within the borough.

54. To empower the Corporation to grant or let the townhall for public meetings, festivals, or entertainments, to provide and maintain in the townhall an organ, and to appoint and pay an organist, and to provide for the admission of the public to performances on the organ, and to make regulations and authorise fees to be taken.

55. To empower the Corporation to accept and maintain and allow the erection of statues and drinking fountains and troughs in streets.

56. To empower the Corporation to provide public clocks, and for the lighting, maintaining, and renewing of any clocks, and to pay or contribute towards the repairing, winding up, and lighting of public clocks.

57. To prohibit the use of unlicensed traction engines, and to authorise regulations and conditions in regard to the use of traction engines within the borough.

58. To enable the Corporation to fix or permit to be fixed posts and other appliances in streets for the conveyance of electricity.

59. To empower the Corporation to authorise the placing of shoeblacks' stands, and to make bye-laws with relation thereto.

60. To empower the Corporation to direct and prescribe the streets in which the leading or driving of cattle shall be permitted, and to make regulations for preventing obstructions in streets during public processions and on other occasions, for the erection of barriers, and for the preservation of order, and also to empower the Corporation to make bye-laws for the regulation of the traffic in and along foot and carriage ways of the streets of the borough.

61. To make provision for the expenses incurred by the Corporation in the execution of the purposes of the Bill.

62. To provide for the recovery and application of penalties, appeals, proofs in bankruptcy, the service and authentication of notices and documents, the contents of summonses, prosecution of offenders, costs of distress, recovery of penalties, costs, and expenses in any Court of competent jurisdiction; owner or occupier need not be named in proceedings; service of notices on the Corporation; penalty for obstructing officers in the execution of the purposes of the Bill; penalty on owners or occupiers preventing the execution of such purposes; undertakings and agreements by or to the Corporation, to bind successive owners; power to execute works in default of persons liable; power of entry; power to make compensation in lands, works, or money; settlement of disputes as to compensation; compounding of actions; penalties on repetition of offences; proceedings when offenders refuse to state their name; evidence in regard to appointments and authority; evidence of previous conviction; regulations as to distress; judges not to be disqualified by reason of being liable to any rate or money payable to the Corporation; and to make other provisions for the local government, management, health, and improvement of the borough.

63. To empower the Corporation to make and enforce bye-laws in respect of all or some of the matters and things mentioned or referred to in this Notice, and to impose penalties for the breach of such bye-laws.

64. The Bill will vary or extinguish all such rights and privileges as might in any manner interfere with or prevent the carrying into effect of any of its objects, and will confer all such powers, authorities, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for its objects, or which may be involved in the extension of the borough, and in the extension, alteration, addition or rearrangement of the Wards thereof, and will enable the Corporation to carry the provisions of the Bill into effect as the Urban Sanitary Authority and Burial Board of the borough, and to exercise all or any of the powers of the Public Health Act, 1875, with or without modification, and so far as the Bill relates to the Corporation as a Municipal Body, will enable them to carry out the provisions of the Bill, under and subject to the Municipal Corporation Acts, and any Burial Acts respectively, with such modifications as may be contained in the Bill, and to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations, and to enter into and fulfil agreements and contracts, and the Bill will or may confirm any such agreements and contracts as may have been, or which may be entered into, during the progress of the Bill, for all or any of the purposes of the Bill.

65. The Bill will, so far as may be necessary