EDWARD M. CHUBB, 11, Pancras-lane,
London, Solicitor and Parliamentary
Agent.

In Parliament.—Session 1894.

East and West Yorkshire Union Railways.

(Abandonment of unexecuted works authorised by East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Acts, 1883 and 1886, and release of balance of deposit fund in respect thereof; Repeal or suspension of powers to carry passengers on unabandoned portion of Railway No. 1, authorised by the Act of 1883, and on Railway No. 1c, authorised by the Act of 1886; Postponement of forfeiture of balance of deposit fund under the Act of 1883; Repeal of unexercised money powers; Power to raise money by debentures or debenture stock, and ranking thereof; Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by or on behalf of the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Company (in this Notice called "the Company"), for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the purposes, or some of the purposes, following (that is to say):—

To authorise the Company to abandon so much of Railway No. 1 authorised by the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Act, 1883 (in this Notice called "the Act of 1883") as was not required to be abandoned by the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Act, 1886 (in this Notice called "the Act of 1886") and the Railways 1d and 1e authorised by the Act of 1886, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to release the Company from all liabilities, penalties and obligations for the non-completion thereof, and to declare null and void all contracts, agreements, and arrangements with reference thereto, and to provide for the payment out of Court and re-transfer of the stocks or moneys now remaining deposited in the name of the Paymaster-General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court as security for the completion of the said railways and portion of railway, with the interest and dividends thereon, to the depositors mentioned in section 48 of the Act of 1883, or to some or one of them, or to the Company, or to such other person or persons, corporation or Company, as the Bill may nominate in that behalf.

To repeal or suspend for such period as may be prescribed by the Bill in that behalf, the power of the Company to carry passenger traffic upon that part of Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1883 which has not been abandoned under the Act of 1886, and is not to be abandoned under the proposed Bill, and upon Railway No. 1c, authorised by the Act of 1886. And in the event of the suspension of that power, to postpone the operation of section 49 of the Act of 1883 as to the forfeiture of the balance of the deposit fund therein mentioned until such period as shall be prescribed by the Bill in that behalf.

To repeal and extinguish the unexercised powers of the Company or a portion of them for the creation or issue of share capital, and the borrowing of money in respect thereof, and to empower the Company to raise further money by borrowing on debentures, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, and to annex to any such debentures or debenture stock such rights and privileges and ranking as regards any debentures or debenture stock or share capital of the Company as may be prescribed in that behalf by the Bill.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the intended Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended, so far as may be necessary or deemed expedient for the purposes of the Bill, to repeal, amend, alter or extend all or some of the provisions of the local and personal Acts hereinafter mentioned, or some or one of them (that is to say), the Act of 1883 and the Act of 1886, the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Act, 1888, the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Act, 1889, and the East and West Yorkshire Union Railways Act, 1890, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company or their undertaking.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1893.

The Star Life Assurance Society.

(Extension of Objects and Business; Power to Declare and Pay Interim Bonus; Repeal or Amendment of Deed of Settlement and Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session by The Star Life Assurance Society, of 32, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, (hereinafter called "the Society"), for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To empower the Society to grant assurances against the events of marriage, birth, or failure of issue, or attainment of a specified age; and against the expiration of any fixed or ascertainable period; and generally against the occurrence of any event which might affect the interest (whether in possession, vested, contingent, prospective or otherwise) of any person in property: and against the loss or recovery of contractual or testamentary capacity.

2. To empower the directors of the Society to assign to holders of policies entitled to participate in the profits of the Society and becoming claims during the currency of any quinquennial period, a proportionate or interim bonus in anticipation of the expiration of such quinquennial period, and to confer on the directors all powers necessary or proper in connection with determining the amount of and fixing the time and mode of payment of any such bonus.

3. To make other provisions for the constitution of the Society and the management of its affairs.

4. So far as may be necessary to effect the above objects, to amend, alter, or repeal the Deed of Settlement, Acts of Parliament, and any articles, regulations, or resolutions regulating the Society and the management of its affairs.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1893.
