

Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869," it is provided as follows:—

"It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council from time to time to declare with respect to the British possession mentioned in the Order the description of persons who are to be registrars of British ships in that British possession and to revoke any Order so made."

"After the date specified in the Order, or, if no date is specified, after the date of the proclamation of the Order in the British possession, the Order shall have effect as if it were contained in section thirty of 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.'"

And whereas it is deemed expedient to declare with respect to the British Possession of Tasmania, the description of persons who are to be registrars of British ships in that possession:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the date of the proclamation of this Order in the possession of Tasmania, the description of persons who are to be Registrars of British ships in that possession shall be, besides the Collector of Customs, the Chief Clerk of the Customs for the time being.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of November, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three certain arrangements as regards the Circuits of the Judges were approved.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order be amended with respect to the county of Montgomery.

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

In the Order in Council relating to Circuits dated the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three there shall be added at the foot of the column of the schedule for the North Wales Circuit, Summer and Winter, the words "(e) or Welshpool," and a corresponding reference "(e)" shall be made opposite "Newtown" in that column.

The said Order in Council shall take effect subject to the addition made by this Order, and any copy thereof hereafter printed may be printed with the addition made by this Order.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of November, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in a session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the office of County Coroner" it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that

Act, or that any alterations should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act it should be lawful for the said justices in general or quarter sessions assembled to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereafter provided and that the Clerk of the Peace should give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration and that the justices should confer with every such Coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district the number of the inhabitants the nature of their employment and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act and that such petition with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the petition is founded should be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition shall be agreed to and the Clerk of the Peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition certified under his hand to every Coroner for such county, and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty if She should think fit with the advice of Her Privy Council after taking into consideration any such petition and also any petition which might be presented to Her by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration or whenever it should seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who had been theretofore customarily elected in such county to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid should seem expedient and to give a name to each of such districts and that every such Order should be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas under and by virtue of "The Local Government Act 1888" the business of the Justices of the county of Suffolk in General or Quarter Sessions assembled in respect of the matters aforesaid has been transferred to and is to be exercised in the county of Suffolk by the Joint Committee of the respective County Councils of East Suffolk and West Suffolk appointed under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

And whereas under and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Local Government Act 1888" the parish of Newmarket All Saints formerly in the county of Cambridge and a part formerly in the county of Cambridge of the parish of Woodditton became parts of the county of Suffolk and are locally situate in the administrative county of West Suffolk.

And whereas under and by virtue of "The Local Government Act 1888" the parish of Haverhill Hamlet and the parish of Ballingdoncum-Brundon which latter is situate in the borough of Sudbury (both which said parishes were formerly in the county of Essex) became and are now parts of the county of Suffolk and are locally situate in the administrative county of West Suffolk.

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council made at a Court holden at Windsor
