PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 30th June, 1893, and made In re Portsmouth and Hayling Railway Bill, to authorize the construction of a Railway between Portsmouth and Hayling Island, with a bridge available for road traffic over the southern entrance to Langstone Harbour and other works and for other purposes (1886), and re the Act 9 Victoria, chapter 20; and in the Matter of the Parliamentary Deposits and Bonds Act, 1892. Any landowners or other persons whose property has been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the said above-mentioned railway or any portion thereof, or who have been subjected to injury or loss in consequence of the exercise of the compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the said Railway Company by the said Acts, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation has been paid and claiming compensation. And also any persons claiming to be creditors of the said Railway Company, or any other person or persons claiming to be entitled to the residue of the sum of £3,953 9s. 6d. new consols in Court to the credit of Ex parte the Undertaking of the Portsmouth and Hayling Railway Bill, mentioned in the said Order, are, on or before the 5th day of January, 1894, to send in his or their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims, and the names and addresses of their Solicitors (if any), to Mr. George Clifton Sherrard, of 26, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of London, Solicitor, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order, and of any distribution thereunder. Friday, the 12th day of January, 1894, at half-past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, at the chambers of Mr. Justice North, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said debts and claims.—Dated this 27th day of November, 1893.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding-up).

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890; and in the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Arrangement Act, 1870; and in the Matter of the Mortgage Insurance Corporation Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order, dated the 22nd day of November, 1893, made in the above matters by Mr. Registrar Emden, Edward Norman, Horace Harrington Nelson, and Andrew Dodds Fairbairn, the voluntary Liquidators of the abovenamed Corporation, were ordered to convene nine several Meetings of the classes of creditors and of the contributories of the Corporation, specified in the schedule hereto, for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving, with or without modification, a Scheme of Arrangement between the said Corporation and the said several classes of creditors thereof, a copy of which scheme can be seen at the office of the Liquidators' Solicitors, Messrs. Baker, Blaker, and Hawes, of 117, Cannon-street, in the city of London, prior to the days of the Meetings, and that such Meetings respectively will be held at the City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, in the city of London, at the several times specified in the said schedule, at which times and place all the said classes of creditors and the said contributories are requested to attend. The said creditors and contributories may attend such Meetings respectively and vote, either in person or by proxy. Policy holders attending the said Meetings must, if required, produce their policies. The said Order directs that the said Edward Norman, or, failing him, the said Horace Harrington Nelson, be appointed to act as Chairman of such Meetings, and that such Chairman is to report the result thereof to the Court.—Dated the 29th day of November, 1893.
