(PORT OF LONDON—TILBURY DOCKS—QUARANTINE STATION.)

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of London as a foreign animals quarantine station (in this Order called the Quarantine Station):

All that space situate at the Tilbury Docks, in the county of Essex, the property of the London and India Docks Joint Committee, lying between the shed known as the J Shed at the Eastern Department of the said Docks and the Quay Wall of the said Docks, and including the said J Shed, and also including the space extending for a distance of fifteen feet in the rear of the said J Shed.

And do hereby prescribe as follows:

1. When landed the animals shall forthwith be placed in certain Baggage Trucks prepared for their reception in the said space in the rear of the said J Shed and shall be there kept until moved thereout in accordance with the regulations contained in Article 20 of the Foreign Animals Order of 1893.

2. The said Baggage Trucks shall not be removed from the said space in the rear of the said J Shed so long as the animals remain therein.

3. When and so soon as an Inspector of the Board of Agriculture shall have certified in writing that all parts of the Quarantine Station with which the animals or their droppings have come in contact in their passage to the said space in the rear of the said J Shed have been cleansed and disinfected to his satisfaction, all parts of the space above defined, other than the said space in the rear of the said J Shed, shall cease to be included in the Quarantine Station, and thereupon, for the purposes of this Order, the said space in the rear of the said J Shed shall alone be deemed to be the Quarantine Station hereby defined.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.
