

tenure) for the rector or incumbent of the said united benefice and that such house of residence should be situate within the limits of the same united benefice that is to say within the limits of the one or the other of the parishes of Saint Catherine Cree and Saint James Duke's-place.

"And whereas the fund in the hands of the said Governors towards the provision of the said house of residence has now reached a considerable amount but cannot be applied towards the aforesaid object by reason of the fact that neither a suitable messuage of freehold tenure nor land suitable as a site for the erection of the intended house of residence, can be acquired upon reasonable terms in either of the said parishes of Saint Catherine Cree and Saint James Duke's-place.

"And whereas it has been represented to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that if the aforesaid restriction as to the situation of the proposed house of residence for the said united benefice were removed it would be possible to secure for the united benefice a suitable house of residence.

"And whereas under the circumstances hereinbefore-mentioned it appears to be desirable and to be competent to us to recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council as follows:—

"Now therefore with the consents of the Bishop of the diocese of the patrons of the said united benefice and of the Vestries of the said two parishes to be affected by this scheme, that is to say with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London, (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the Master and Fellows of the College of Saint Mary Magdalene in the University of Cambridge and of the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said city of London, as the alternate patrons of the said united benefice (in testimony whereof the said Master and Fellows, and the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens have respectively sealed this scheme with their common or corporate seals) and with the consent of the Vestry of each of the two said parishes of Saint Catherine Cree and Saint James, Duke's-place (testified by the chairman of each of the said Vestries having hereunto set his hand pursuant to a resolution passed at each of the same Vestries respectively at meetings duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the provisions of the aforesaid Order of Your Majesty in Council of the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three shall be altered and varied in the manner hereinbefore contemplated that is to say that the restriction imposed by the aforesaid Order of Your Majesty in Council as to the situation of the proposed house of residence for the united benefice shall be removed and that it shall not be necessary that such house of residence shall be actually situate within the limits of the said united benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Supplemental Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Supplemental Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Clement Toxteth Park in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas by the authority of an Instrument bearing date the eighth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two and being under the hand and seal of the Right Reverend John Bird then Bishop of the diocese of Chester a part of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill in the said county of Lancaster and at that time in the said diocese of Chester, but now in the diocese of Liverpool aforesaid, was assigned as a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Clement Toxteth Park situate in the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill and the said particular district was known as 'The Particular District of Saint Clement Toxteth Park.'

"And whereas the said particular district of Saint Clement Toxteth Park has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Clement Toxteth Park, should be altered so as to include within its limits a certain additional portion of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the
