INSTRUMENT assigning a Particular District to the Church of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe, situate within the limits of the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Livesey, in the county of Lancaster, and in the Diocese of Manchester.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the Diocese of Manchester, send greeting:

WHEREAS a church has lately been built within the limits of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Livesey, in the county of Lancaster; and in the diocese of Manchester, by and at the expense of certain well-disposed persons, who have, with the approbation of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, secured to the said new church an endowment and a repair fund, in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or of some of them, and particularly of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven.

And whereas under the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts, or of some of them, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, with the consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, by an instrument bearing date on or about the twenty-first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, declared that the perpetual right of patronage of, and of nominating a Minister to serve, the said new church from time to time and at all times whenever it should be requisite to nominate a Minister to serve the same should, from and after the consecration of such church, be vested in, and be exercised by, and belong to, the said James, Bishop of the diocese of Manchester aforesaid, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

And whereas the said church has since been consecrated, and is called "The Church of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe."

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England deem it expedient that a particular district, to comprise certain portions of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Livesey, and of the new parish of Feniscowles, in the county and diocese aforesaid, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe, and also that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church.

Now know ye, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the powers or authorities for this purpose contained in the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts" as aforesaid, or in some of them, and particularly in the Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby, with the consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his being a party to and executing these presents), assign to the said church of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe, as a particular district, all those contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Livesey, and of the said new parish of Feniscowles, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and do direct that the same shall be called "The Particular District of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe."

And the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), in further exercise and execution of the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or in some of them, and particularly in the said Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty, in the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-six (such two lastly-mentioned Acts being also two of "The Church Building Acts" before named), in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby determine and declare that banns of matrimony shall be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be solemnized or performed at the church of the said particular district of Saint Francis Fenisccliffe, and do hereby order and direct that all the fees, dues, offerings, or other emoluments to be received in respect of such publication of banns of matrimony, and of such solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials at the same church shall, from and after the next avoidance of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Livesey, and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Feniscowles respectively, belong to the Incumbent for the time being of the said particular district of Saint Francis, Fenisccliffe: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

In witness whereof the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto affixed their common seal, and the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, this seventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.
