Whitehall, May 25, 1894.

THE following Addresses were received by The Queen, on the occasion of the opening of the Manchester Ship Canal by Her Majesty on the 21st instant:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Directors of the Manchester Ship Canal Company, Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, desire to express our grateful thanks for the favour of Your Majesty's Royal Presence, and to offer to Your Majesty a most cordial and enthusiastic welcome.

The work which Your Majesty is graciously pleased to inaugurate is one of supreme importance, not only to the great commercial and manufacturing district of which Manchester is the centre, but to the Nation, providing as it does direct communication with all parts of the world.

The Manchester Ship Canal follows as nearly as possible the ancient river boundary between Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster and the county of Chester for a distance of thirty-five miles; its construction has occupied a period of six years and it may claim to rank as one of the greatest engineering achievements of Your Majesty's beneficent and prosperous Reign.

We rejoice to think that Your Majesty's reign has been coincident with the greatest extension of scientific knowledge, expansion of commerce, and development of the peaceful arts, and we believe that this great work will bring into closer commercial union the whole of Your Majesty's vast Empire.

We earnestly trust that the future of this important enterprise will prove it to be worthy of the high distinction which Your Majesty's gracious Presence has conferred upon it, and that it may further promote the prosperity of Your Majesty's loyal subjects at home and abroad.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"IT is with great pleasure that I receive your Address, and am able to be present at the opening of the Manchester Ship Canal.

"I recognize in this great and important Undertaking, and the admirable Engineering Skill with which it has been constructed, further evidence of the unceasing Energy and Enterprise of My Subjects.

"I trust that the increased Facilities to be afforded by it for Direct Commercial Intercourse by Sea with the Trade of the World will not fail to be of the greatest Advantage to the busy and industrious Population of Manchester and the neighbouring District; and I earnestly pray that, by God's Blessing, this Work may contribute to the Well-being and Happiness of all Classes of My Subjects in the United Kingdom."

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Manchester, humbly express the pride and gratification with which we welcome Your Majesty to this City, and our assurance that in no part of Your Majesty's vast Dominions are feelings of loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Person and to the Throne more universally entertained.

We recall that in past years Manchester received the honour of visits from Your Majesty, accompanied by the late illustrious Prince Consort, a memorial statue of whom occupies a conspicuous position in the chief square of our City, and whose memory and example are held in reverence which time will only deepen.

We acknowledge with profound gratitude the benefits our city has experienced during Your Majesty's benign and peaceful Reign, which has afforded security for the development of our resources and the carrying out of various public undertakings for the Social Improvement and Welfare of the People.

We desire to express our sincere pleasure at this visit of Your Majesty for the purpose of inaugurating the Manchester Ship Canal, an undertaking in which our Community have long felt the deepest interest, and to which the Municipality has afforded important assistance. By means of this Canal Manchester is connected with the sea, and facilities are provided for distributing, to all quarters of the Globe, the enormous productions of this manufacturing centre, and the products of distant parts of the Earth will thus be brought to our doors, and the necessities of life more readily placed within the reach of the People.

We pray that Your Majesty's beneficent Reign may be prolonged with increasing lustre, and that the Divine Blessing may rest upon Your Majesty and all Members of the Royal Family.

Given under our Common Seal this 21st day of May, 1894.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"The immense Undertaking which I have this Day opened has filled me with Admiration; exceptional engineering as well as other Difficulties have been overcome, and the Commerce of the World has been brought into direct Communication by Sea with your great City and its neighbourhood.

"I trust that Manchester may never cease to be prosperous and thrive, and that all Classes of My Subjects may share in the Benefits attending on the Success of this most important enterprise."

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Your Royal Borough of Salford, beg most humbly to approach Your Majesty with feelings of the deepest loyalty and veneration on the occasion of the formal opening by Your Majesty of the Manchester Ship Canal, the principal Docks of which are in the Borough of Salford.

We are rejoiced to observe, in common with all Your Majesty's faithful subjects, that health and strength have been vouchsafed to Your Majesty, not only to fulfil the regal functions of Your exalted station, but also to undergo the fatigue of performing the Ceremony of inaugurating one of the greatest engineering enterprises for mercantile purposes of modern times, and thereby manifesting Your Majesty's continued interest in the commercial prosperity of this great community and of the vast outspreading population around it, whose industries and well-being the enterprise is destined to serve.

We trust that Your Majesty's gracious condescension in opening in person this great undertaking may augur well for its future prosperity, and we also pray that Your Majesty may be blessed by Almighty God with continued health for many years to reign over Your Majesty's affectionate, faithful, and loyal subjects:

Given under our Common Seal, this 21st day of May, 1894.

Samuel Brown, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I RECEIVE with satisfaction your loyal and dutiful Address, and sincerely hope that the Borough of Salford will enjoy every advantage which it may be expected to derive from the opening of the Manchester Ship Canal."

Owens College, Manchester.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty
May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Governors, Members of the Council, Professors and Lecturers, Associates and Students of the Owens College, Manchester, humbly crave leave to offer to Your Gracious Majesty on the occasion of your visit to Manchester the expression of our devoted loyalty and dutiful attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and to testify to our share in the heartfelt rejoicing called forth in every part of this City by Your Majesty's Presence within its boundaries.

We recall with particular gratitude the bountiful gift recently bestowed upon this College by Your Majesty as Duchess of Lancaster, which with Your Majesty's gracious permission is to be applied to the erection of buildings for its World's Department, to be called by Your Majesty's Royal Name.

The Owens College is the oldest College of the Victoria University which has the honour of bearing Your Majesty's name, and of which Your Majesty has consented to become the Visitor; and the City of Manchester is, by the Charter granted to the University by Your Majesty in Council, constituted the seat of the University. The College is closely connected with the Royal Manchester College of Music, in which Your Majesty, while graciously permitting it to assume the designation of Royal, has been pleased to manifest a particular interest.

On behalf of these bodies, as well as of the Owens College itself in especial, we humbly venture to testify to our loyal satisfaction that, after the lapse of so many years, Your Majesty should have been found willing, in response to the ardent wishes of a vast and laborious population, to revisit this important centre of industry, and thus to establish an enduring personal association between the Sovereign and a great achievement of Engineering Science, in which the Inhabitants of this City and District are deeply interested, and which will, it is hoped, largely add to their activity and prosperity.

The College to which we belong has endeavoured, to the best of its ability and of its opportunities, to promote and sustain in this city and district the love of learning and the interest in scientific research in their various and constantly extending branches, which have contributed in their sphere to the glories of Your Majesty's long and beneficent Reign; and as Members of an Institution which is itself a creation of the Victorian age, we are one and all animated by a sense of grateful recognition of the protection which has been extended to the labours of Universities and Colleges, both old and new, of Your Majesty's Empire, by the authority of Your Majesty's Sceptre, and of the encouragement which they have derived from Your Majesty's sympathetic interest in higher education in this and in every other part of Your Majesty's Dominions.

We pray that many years may be added to the Reign of the most beloved of English Queens, and that the blessing of Heaven may rest upon Your Majesty and the Royal Family.

Given under the Common Seal of the Owens College, Manchester, 18th May, 1894.

Joseph Thompson, Treasurer and Chairman of the Council.

A. W. Ward, Principal.

H. W. Holder, Registrar.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"It is with great satisfaction that I hear of the strenuous efforts made by Owens College, and its allied Institutions, to promote the cause of Learning and Scientific Research in the City of Manchester and its neighbourhood.

"I earnestly hope that success may attend on the efforts which have been made by all engaged in the Management of Owens College, and to whom the high character to which it has attained must be attributed."

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, May 25, 1894.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, information to the effect that, since the severe epidemic of yellow fever which raged in the city and harbour of Rio de Janeiro in 1888-9, there have been annual visitations of this terrible disease more or less intense in character, and that this year has proved no exception, the epidemic being perhaps among the most severe on record.

As the disease has proved very fatal amongst the shipping frequenting the harbour, it appears desirable that British sailing vessels should avoid the port as much as possible during the months of December, January, February, and March.
