

or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish churchyard of Combe Hay, in the county of Somerset, until the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four. C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, June 27, 1894.

THE following Statute, passed on the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, and sealed on the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Ex parte the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College in Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, held on the ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and passed at such meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute III. 11 framed by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48), in relation to University College in the University of Oxford they enacted as follows.

“In certain excepted cases persons otherwise duly qualified may be elected and admitted”
 “Fellows subject to the provisions of clause 19 of”
 “this Statute, but without public notice of the”
 “vacancy, and without examination (unless in”
 “any case falling within class (a) hereinafter”
 “mentioned, the Master and Fellows should think”
 “examination desirable), and without the period”
 “of probation required by clause 7 of this”
 “Statute; and although they be married or in”
 “possession of any property, pension, benefice,”
 “office, or income, which would in ordinary”
 “cases render the possessor ineligible, and”
 “although they may not have passed the examina-”
 “tions required by the University for the degree”
 “of Bachelor of Arts. * * *

“The excepted cases shall be as follows.”

“(a) Any person eminently qualified for the office of Praelector, Tutor, Bursar or Chaplain,

“whose services the College needs, and who is”
 “willing to serve the College in any of these”
 “capacities”, with the further proviso

“Provided also, that there shall not be in the”
 “College at any one time more than three”
 “Fellows elected under this clause in respect of”
 “the office of Praelector, Tutor or Bursar.”

And whereas it appears to us the Master and Fellows of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof), that this enactment injuriously restricts the College in the choice of men specially fitted to fill the post of Tutor and to conduct the work of the College as a place of education.

We the said Master and Fellows of the said College do hereby, in exercise of the powers given us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act, and by Statute XI framed by the said Commissioners appointed by the said Act in relation to the said College, alter and amend Statute III. 11 by substituting in the last clause of § 11 as hereinbefore set out the word “five” for the word “three.”

Given under our common seal this fifteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.
