

reversion in certain land intended as the site for a church for the said district of Saint Paul Devonport and that the same offer was so made upon a certain condition as to the right of patronage and nomination to the same district and that it appeared to be just and proper that the said offer should be accepted accordingly it was ordered that if the said persons or the trustees for the time being acting under the said will of the said Sir John St Aubyn should convey as above mentioned the said proposed site for a church for the said district of Saint Paul Devonport the same site to be approved as is therein mentioned and if and when the said trustees should also duly secure as therein-mentioned an additional endowment of one hundred pounds per annum for the minister or perpetual curate of the said district and new parish of Saint Paul Devonport then so soon as notice that these conditions had been fulfilled should be published by us in the London Gazette the right of patronage and nomination of a minister or perpetual curate to the said district or new parish of Saint Paul Devonport should be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the persons therein named and described and hereinbefore mentioned their successors or assigns as such trustees as aforesaid for ever and that such right of patronage and nomination should not in the meantime be assigned to or vested in any Corporation person or persons but should be exercised only by Your Majesty and Your successors and the Bishop of the diocese for the time being as in the said Act is provided.

"And whereas certain land situate within the said district of Saint Paul Devonport was duly conveyed as and for a site for a church for the said district of Saint Paul Devonport and the said church was built and consecrated and was in due course approved by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under the Act hereinbefore mentioned whereupon the said district of Saint Paul Devonport became a new parish as aforesaid.

"And whereas the trustees acting under the said will of the said Sir John St. Aubyn have not secured the said proposed additional endowment of one hundred pounds per annum for the minister or perpetual curate of the said district and new parish of Saint Paul Devonport and consequently the right of patronage and nomination of a minister or incumbent of and to the same district and new parish has not become assigned to and is not vested in such trustees but has been exercised and still is exerciseable ad interim alternately by the Crown and by the Bishop of the diocese.

"And whereas it has been represented to us that the trusts of the will of the said Sir John St. Aubyn Baronet deceased are at an end and have been superseded by a resettlement of the estates under which the Right Honourable John Baron St. Levan (formerly Sir John St. Aubyn Baronet) is in possession of the estates.

"And whereas a capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by the Reverend William Hagger Barlow Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Mary Islington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport and for the benefit of the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said William Hagger Barlow and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the Vicar or Incumbent of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of forty-five pounds so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said William Hagger Barlow as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport and of the nomination of the Vicar or Incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said William Hagger Barlow and his heirs and assigns in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said John Baron St. Levan is willing that the patronage and right of nomination of and to the said district and new parish of Saint Paul Devonport should be assigned to the said William Hagger Barlow and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid in lieu of the assignment provided for as aforesaid by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council and has agreed to execute this scheme in testimony that he the said John Baron St. Levan is so willing and that the condition upon which the assignment lastly hereinbefore mentioned was to have been effected has not been fulfilled.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the assignment of the patronage and right of nomination and presentation of and to the said district of the new parish of Saint Paul Devonport which has been proposed to us by the said William Hagger Barlow as aforesaid may properly be effected.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Baron St. Levan (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Hagger Barlow and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
