Whitehall, August 13, 1894.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York giving Birth to a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Birmingham in Council assembled, humbly desire to express to Your Majesty our joy and satisfaction at the birth of Your Majesty's Great-Grandson, the son of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York.

We sincerely hope that the life of the infant Prince may be long spared, and that he may develop those high qualities so conspicuously displayed by Your Majesty and the ever lamented Prince Consort, which shall secure for him the admiration, respect, and loyal affection of the people of this realm.

Given under our corporate seal this 3rd day of July, 1894.

G. J. Johnson, Mayor.
E. O. Smith, Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Sheffield, in Council assembled :—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Sheffield, desire to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, and to offer our sincere congratulations on the birth of a Prince to their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York.

We regard with deep interest the recent happy event so fraught with importance to the United Kingdom and Empire, and beg to assure Your Majesty of our sincere participation in the feelings of joy and satisfaction which the birth of the Royal Infant has created throughout the Nation.

We trust that Your Majesty's reign may be prolonged for many years to come, and that peace, order, and prosperity may prevail throughout Your Majesty's dominions.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the said city this 11th day of July, 1894.

Edwd. S. Foster, Mayor.

The Town Clerk's Office, City Hall,
Dublin, July 20, 1894.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,
Windsor Castle.

May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty,

IT is my most pleasing duty to inform Your Majesty that at a Meeting of the Municipal Council of the City of Dublin, held on the 16th day of July instant, a Resolution was adopted, embodying the congratulations of the Members to Your Majesty, on the occasion of the birth of a Prince and Heir to His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

It was proposed by Sir Robert Sexton, Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace, and seconded by Sir Henry Cochrane, Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace, and resolved :—

"That the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Dublin desire to tender to Her Majesty the Queen their hearty congratulations on the birth of a Prince to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and trust that this happy event will not only increase Her Majesty's domestic happiness, but by adding stability to the Empire, bring increased prosperity to every portion of Her dominions."

I remain, with the profoundest veneration,
Madam,

Your Majesty's most faithful subject and dutiful servant,

Henry Campbell, Town Clerk.

Grand Jury Room,
Court House, Omagh,
County of Tyrone.

Madam,
July 10, 1894.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Tyrone, assembled at Omagh at Summer Assizes, desire to offer to Your Majesty our loyal and respectful congratulations on the Birth of a Great Grandson, Heir to the Throne
