

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1894.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of August, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1863" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868,' section three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury for certain property belonging to us.

"Whereas the lands tithes and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A are a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury and the said dean and chapter have agreed that the said lands tithes and hereditaments shall be transferred to us in consideration of the transfer to them of certain lands tithes and hereditaments now belonging to us being the lands, tithes and hereditaments particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B.

"And whereas the terms of such transfer are in our opinion fair and reasonable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury as visitor of the said dean and chapter certified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any further conveyance or act in the law the lands, tithes and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tithes and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that we shall be entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and that in consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid the lands tithes and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tithes and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to the said dean and chapter in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that the said dean and chapter shall become entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the said sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

C. L. Peel.

Whitehall, August 16, 1894.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York giving Birth to a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of York, hasten to express to Your Majesty the great gratification with which we have heard of the birth of a Son and Heir to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, an event which gives us further assurance of the continuity of Your Majesty's illustrious House, and of the Institutions of our beloved country.

We most respectfully approach Your Majesty on this auspicious occasion, and beg to offer to Your Majesty our loyal and dutiful congratulations upon the happy event.

We fervently pray that the Almighty may watch over and prosper the Infant Prince, and continue the blessing of His Divine Protection to Your Majesty and the Members of Your Royal Family.

Given under our Corporate Common Seal the 2nd day of July, 1894.

Thomas Clayton, Lord Mayor.
George McGuire, Town Clerk.

L. S.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol.

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, in Council assembled, beg very respectfully to offer to Your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the occasion of the Birth of Your Most Gracious Majesty's Great Grandson the Heir Presumptive to the British Throne.

We fervently pray that the Almighty may protect and bless Your Royal Family, and grant to Your Majesty continued strength and wisdom to reign for many years over a contented and loyal People.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal, the 17th day of July, 1894.

L. S.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.
May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Bangor, in the county of Carnarvon, being Your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, beg very respectfully to approach Your Majesty, and to express our sincere congratulations on the occasion of the Birth of the Illustrious Infant, Your Most Gracious Majesty's Great Grandson, the Heir Presumptive to the British Throne.

We also fervently pray that the Almighty may protect and bless Your Royal Family, and grant to Your Majesty continued strength and wisdom to reign for many years over a contented and a loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 23rd day of July, 1894.

Donald Cameron, Mayor.
R. Hughes Pritchard, Town Clerk.

L. S.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE Grand Committee of the Benevolent Society of St. Patrick, assembled in Quarterly Meeting, desire to approach Your Majesty upon the happy and auspicious occasion of the Birth of a Son to their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York, and Great Grandson to Your Majesty in the direct line of succession. An event so full of importance to the Nation has for the Benevolent Society of St. Patrick peculiar interest, seeing that the prestige, and to some extent the origin, of the Society itself was owing to the generous impulse and example of His Royal Highness the late Duke of Kent.

Since 1784 the Society, as an Irish Society, has been privileged to enjoy the favour, the patronage, and bounty of many members of the Royal Family, the successive occupants of the Throne especially, and in particular has been honoured with the continuing interest, care, and support of Your Most Gracious Majesty.

The Grand Committee, therefore, humbly tender their most sincere congratulations upon the event, their best and most loyal wishes for the health and welfare of the young Prince, and their earnest hopes that when, at a far distant time, he is called on to occupy the position to which he is heir, he may be surrounded by the same loyal devotion and affection that Your Majesty has always inspired among Your subjects.

C. Brinsley Marlay, Treasurer and Chairman.

July 19, 1894.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Rectors of Parishes, the Queen's Procureur, the Queen's Comptroller, and the Deputies of the Parishes and Cantons of Your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, beg leave to approach Your Majesty in our own behalf and in the name of the Inhabitants in general to offer our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious event of the birth of a Son to their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York.

In renewing, on the present occasion, the assurance of our devoted attachment to Your Majesty and to the Royal Family, we, at the same time, earnestly pray that the Almighty may please to grant to Your Majesty the blessing of watching for many years to come over the growth and progress of the young Prince.

In the name and on behalf of the States.

LINCOLNSHIRE (PARTS OF HOLLAND) SWINE-FEVER ORDER OF 1894.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1894 not to apply to certain Districts.

The provisions of the Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1894 dated the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four shall not apply to either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order, and the Order of the Board of the same date applying the provisions of the said Markets and Fairs Order to certain Districts and parts of Districts named in the Schedule to that Order shall be read and have effect as if neither of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order were included in the Schedule to that Order.

Movement of Swine.

2.—(1.) Swine shall not be moved by land or by water into or out of either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2.) Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to interfere with or apply to movement from any place in either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order to any other place in either of the said Districts.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter into Districts to which this Order applies.

3. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place not within either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place to premises within either of those Districts with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

- (i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.
- (ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

- (iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.
- (iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.
- (v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.
- (vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter out of Districts to which this Order applies.

4. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place in either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place to premises not within either of those Districts with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

- (i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.
- (ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.
- (iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.
- (iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.
- (v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.
- (vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

As to Movement of Swine by Railway through the Districts to which this Order applies.

5. For the purposes of this Order, swine shall not be deemed to be moved into or out of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order where they are moved through such Districts by railway from a place outside such Districts to another place outside such Districts without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or re-booked within such Districts.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

6. Notwithstanding anything in this Order, swine may be moved in any circumstances with a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same, which Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the movement necessary or expedient.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Disinfection of Places and Things.

7.—(1.) The Local Authority of either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order may make such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes or any of them.

For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of any sty or other place which has been used for swine while affected with or suspected of swine-fever, and any utensil, pen, hurdle, or other thing used for or about such swine, and any wood-work with which such swine have come in contact, and for prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection are to be effected :

For requiring the owner, occupier or person in charge of such sty or other place to cleanse and disinfect such sty or other place and things at the expense of the Local Authority or at the expense of such owner, occupier or person in charge.

(2.) If the owner, occupier or person in charge of any such sty or place does any act in contravention of any such Regulation or fails in any respect to observe the same, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and where the occupier of such sty or place fails to cleanse and disinfect in accordance with any such Regulation, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of such Regulation, to cause such place and things to be cleansed and disinfected and to recover the expenses of such cleansing and disinfection from such owner, occupier or person in charge in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Slaughter in Swine-Fever.

8.—(1.) The Local Authority of either of the Districts named in the Schedule to this Order may, if they think fit, cause to be slaughtered—

- (i.) any swine affected with swine-fever ; or
- (ii.) any swine being or having been in the same pig-sty or shed or in the same herd or otherwise in contact with swine affected with swine-fever.

(2.) The Local Authority shall, out of the local rate, pay compensation as follows for swine slaughtered under this Article :

(a.) Where the pig slaughtered was affected with swine-fever, the compensation shall be one half of its value immediately before it became so affected, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed four pounds :

(b.) In every other case the compensation shall be the value of the pig immediately before it was slaughtered, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed eight pounds.

Granting of Movement Licences.

9.—(1.) A Licence shall only be granted for movement of swine under this Order where in the opinion of the Local Authority or the person granting the Licence, as the case may be, the granting of such Licence is necessary or expedient.

(2.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the swine to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the swine, or exposing the swine for sale, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting or licensed to hold the sale at which the swine are exposed, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

Production of Licences : Names and Addresses.

10.—(1.) Every person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer

Offences.

11.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.

(2.) If any person exposes a pig at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland in contravention of the provisions of Article 3 and Article 4 of this Order, the owner or consignee of such pig and the person exposing the same thereat, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.

WILLIAM BRISTOW, 78, London-street, Greenwich, S.E., Solicitor for the Executor.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Chitty.—1894, E., No. 976.
Between George Elsey, Plaintiff, and John James Jenner, Defendant.

To the abovenamed Defendant, John James Jenner.

TAKE notice, that this action was, on the 27th day of July, 1894, commenced against you, and that the plaintiff, by his Writ of Summons, claims: 1. A declaration that the partnership lately subsisting between the plaintiff and defendant, in the business of Builders and Contractors, carried on by them at Kirkley, in the county of Suffolk, in the firm name of Elsey and Jenner, pursuant to Articles of Partnership, dated the 28th day of February, 1891, and Supplemental Articles, dated the 11th of April, 1894, was dissolved, by mutual arrangement, as from the 17th of May, 1894, on the footing of the plaintiff purchasing the defendant's share in the said business, and the goodwill thereof, at a valuation, on the terms contained in Clause 9 of the said Articles, and in the said Supplemental Articles. 2. In the alternative dissolution of the said partnership. 3. All necessary accounts, inquiries, and directions. 4. If necessary, the appointment of a Receiver and Manager of the said business. And that the Court has by Order, dated the 10th day of August, 1894, ordered that service of the said Writ of Summons on you by the publication by advertisement of the said writ, and of the said Order, once in the London Gazette and twice in Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper, be deemed good service of the said writ on you. And further take notice, that you are required to appear to the said Writ of Summons within eight days after the insertion of the last of the said notices in manner aforesaid, inclusive of the day of such insertion, and that, in default of your so doing, the plaintiff may proceed therein, and Judgment may be given in your absence. Appearance may be entered at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.—Dated 14th day of August, 1894.

WOODARD—MOORE.

WHEREAS by a Judgment of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 2nd June, 1894, made in an action of Woodard v. Woodard, 1894, W., 784, an enquiry was directed as to who were the persons interested in the hereditaments in the pleadings in this action mentioned. And whereas by an Order, dated the 9th August, 1894, service of notice of the said Judgment on William Seaber Moore, formerly of Swavesey, in the county of Cambridge, was dispensed with, subject to notice being given as in the said Order directed. Pursuant to the said Order, notice is hereby given, that the said William Seaber Moore, and any person claiming by, through, or under him, the said William Seaber Moore, and all persons claiming to be interested in the said hereditaments to which this action relates, who are not parties to the said action, or have not been served with notice of the said Judgment, are hereby required to come in and establish their respective claims in respect thereof, at the chambers of Mr. Justice North, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on or before the 24th day of October, 1894, or in default thereof they will, after the expiration of the time so limited, be bound by the proceedings in the said action as if they had been served with notice of such Judgment. Wednesday, the 31st day of October, 1894, at half-past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 10th day August, 1894.

CHARRIÈRE (JEAN LOUIS—LOUIS—LOUIS NESTOR AUGUSTE).

PURSUANT to an Order, dated the 25th June, 1894, of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the Matter of the estate of Jean Louis Charrière, deceased, Duret v. Charrière, 1894, C., 1491, the person or persons claiming to be heir-at-law of the intestate Jean Louis, otherwise Louis, otherwise Louis Nestor Auguste Charrière, late of 36, Hertslet-road, Holloway, London, England, living at the time of his death, on the 28th May, 1893, and the persons claiming to be next-of-kin according to the Statutes for the Distribution of Intestates' Estates of the said intestate, or to be the legal personal representatives of such of the said next-of-kin as are now dead, are personally, or by their solicitors, on or before the 29th October, 1894, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice North, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Trevor v. Hutchins, 1875, T., No. 180.

Re Fairlie, Clark, Innes, and Co.

BY an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 10th August, 1893, enquiries were directed to ascertain who are the persons beneficially entitled to the funds by the schedule to the said Order directed to be carried over to the credit of the said action, the shares of George Hartwell, deceased, and John Innes, deceased, in the dividends payable to David Scott and Company and Fairlie, Bonham, and Company, and in what shares and proportions. The joint creditors of the said firm of Fairlie, Clark, Innes, and Company, or their legal personal representatives, are, by their solicitors, on or before the 20th day of November, 1894, to come in and enter their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Stirling, No. 243 Room, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Friday, the 30th day of November, 1894, at twelve o'clock, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims.—Dated the 7th day of August, 1894.

NOTE.—The said George Hartwell and John Innes were two of the partners in the said firm of Fairlie, Clark, Innes, and Co., of Broad-street-buildings, in the city of London, East India Merchants, which failed on the 4th July, 1833. On the 9th October, 1833, they and the other partners of the said firm executed a deed of inspectorship for the benefit of their creditors. This advertisement is directed to the joint creditors of the said firm only, and not to the separate creditors of the said George Hartwell and John Innes.

LEETE or LOVELL.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of a legacy of £800, bequeathed by the will of Charles Walker, deceased, to his daughter Mary Susannah Leete, in the said will called Mary Leete only, on the 13th day of May, 1889, whereby it was ordered that the sum of £410 5s. 5d. New Consols, standing in Court to the said credit, be transferred to the account of Mary Susannah Leete, the wife of William Strong Leete, subject to marital right (if any) of the said husband, and that the dividends to accrue thereon be paid to the said Mary Susannah Leete for her separate use until further Order, and the said Mary Susannah Leete having died on the 24th day of March, 1893, at Sudborough, in the county of Northampton, and probate of her will having been granted to Watkin Owen Sanders, the sole executor thereof. Notice is hereby given, that an application has been made to the Court by the said Watkin Owen Sanders for payment out of the said fund to him as the legal personal representative of the said Mary Susannah Leete, and that unless the said William Strong Leete or Lovell or his legal personal representative, if dead, do, on or before Tuesday, the 4th day of January, 1895, come in and enter his or their claims to the fund (if any), at the chambers of Mr. Justice Stirling, 293 Room, the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, such Order will be made as the Judge may deem to be proper. Tuesday, the 15th day of January, 1895, at twelve o'clock at noon, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims (if any).—Dated this 9th day of August, 1894.

NOTE.—The said William Strong Leete or Lovell, late of Sudborough, Northampton, left England in the year 1862, and was last heard of on the 1st October, 1886, at the Criterion Hotel, Wagga Wagga, Sydney, New South Wales, and if living, would be of the age of 63 years.
