FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1894.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of August, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1863" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868,' section three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury for certain property belonging to us.

"Whereas the lands tithes and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A are a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury and the said dean and chapter have agreed that the said lands tithes and hereditaments shall be transferred to us in consideration of the transfer to them of certain lands tithes and hereditaments now belonging to us being the lands, tithes and hereditaments particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B.

"And whereas the terms of such transfer are in our opinion fair and reasonable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury as visitor of the said dean and chapter certified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any further conveyance or act in the law the lands, tithes and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tithes and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that we shall be entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and that in consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid the lands tithes and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tithes and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to the said dean and chapter in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that the said dean and chapter shall become entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the said sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.
