In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding-up).

Mr. Justice Vaughan Williams.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of the London and Colonial Finance Corporation Limited.

BY an Order made in the above matters by Mr. Justice Vaughan Williams, dated the 8th day of August, 1894, on the petition of H. Seligmann and Co., of 20, Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, Wine Merchants, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said London and Colonial Finance Corporation Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of this Court; and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit. And it was ordered that John Dalgleish, the Liquidator in the voluntary winding up of the said Company, do, on the 8th day of September next, and on the same day in each succeeding month, file with the Registrar Companies (Winding-up) a report in writing as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company, and with the realization of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court might from time to time direct. And it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator of the said Company, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidator, or of any Manager, Accountant, Auctioneer, Broker, or other person, be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, expenses, or remuneration shall have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar Companies (Winding-up). And it was ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses, and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly. And it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners of the said Company, of John Dalgleish, the Voluntary Liquidator thereof, and of the said creditors and contributories supporting the petition of the said petition, be taxed and paid out of the assets of the abovenamed Company, including in the costs of the petitioners, their costs incidental to the scheme of arrangement submitted to the creditors and the Meeting held to consider the same, and including also in the costs of the said Company the costs incurred by them prior to the Liquidator's appointment. And it was ordered that the said petitioners, H. Seligmann and Co., or any other creditor of the said Company, were to be at liberty to apply to the Court for the appointment of a Committee of Creditors, not exceeding two in number, to act with the Liquidator on behalf of the said creditors as they may be advised. And the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply as there may be occasion.—Dated this 17th day of August, 1894.
