At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 23rd day of August, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Catherine Canton situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John Canton in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Catherine Canton situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint John Canton which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Catherine Canton situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Catherine Canton.’

“And with the like consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Catherine Canton situate as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

“The district chapelry of Saint Catherine Canton being:

“All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John Canton in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff which is bounded upon the north-east partly by the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Cardiff and partly by the parish of Saint John Cardiff both in the said county and diocese upon the north by the parish of Llandaff in the same county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-west and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llandaff from the new parish of Saint John Canton aforesaid at the junction of Pont-canna-road with Conway-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Romilly-crescent and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Severn-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seventeen and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cowbridge-road and with the road called or known as Picton-place and extending thence
