From Madrid Gazette, October 10, 1894.

Ministry of the Interior.

Royal Orders.

In view of official intelligence of the termination of yellow fever in Païta (Peru), declared foul by Royal Order of the 19th of May last, and in conformity with Article 40 of the Sanitary

Law, and Rules 1, 9, 10, 11, and 14 of the Royal Order of the 23rd of September, 1892, arrivals from that port are declared clean whatever their date of departure. In virtue of this the said arrivals, as well as those from ports within 165 kilometres of Paita shall henceforth be admitted to free pratique if they arrive with clean bill of health visé by the Spanish Consul, or if there be none, by that of another nation, in good hygienic conditions and without suspicious occurrence in the health of the ship, so long as they do not infringe Rules 9, 10, or 11 of the Royal Order of the 31st of March, 1888, 29, 31, or 32 of that of the 23rd of September, 1892, or any other enactment subjecting ships to quarantine owing to circumstances of the voyage, or from the ports referred to in this declaration, proving to be within 165 kilometres of another declared foul.

Infectious goods, as laid down in the Royal Order of the 29th of October, 1885, which have remained in Paita during the epidemic, shall likewise be admitted without disinfection, irrespective of date, if in good hygienic conditions.

Madrid, 8th of October, 1894. AGUILERA.

In view of official intelligence of the termination of cholera in Marseilles, and in conformity with Article 30 of the Sanitary Law, and Rules 1, 9, and 11 of the Royal Order of the 23rd of September, 1892, arrivals which have left that port after the 20th ultimo are declared clean so long as they do not infringe any of the general enactments imposing quarantine.

Infectious goods shall likewise be admitted subject to the conditions of the preceding Royal Order.

Madrid, 10th of October, 1894.

NORFOLK SWINE-FEVER ORDER OF 1894.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Revocation.

1.—(1.) The Order described in the First Schedule to this Order is hereby revoked to the extent in that Schedule mentioned.

(2.) Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Swine-Fever (Infected Areas) Order of 1894, No. 2 and the Order described in the First Schedule to this Order before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, those Orders before the commencement of this Order.

Movement of Swine.

2.—(1.) Swine shall not be moved by land or by water into or out of any District named in the Second Schedule to this Order otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2.) Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to interfere with or apply to movement from any place in a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order to any place in any other District named in such Schedule.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter into Districts to which this Order applies.

3. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place not within a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order, such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, to premises within any such District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

(i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.

(ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.

(iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.

(v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.

(vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

Movement of Fat Swine for Slaughter out of Districts to which this Order applies.

4. Fat swine may for the purpose of being slaughtered be moved from a place in a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order, such place not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, to premises not within any such District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which the place to which the swine are to be moved is situate in manner and under the conditions following—

(i.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved for slaughter.

(ii.) The swine, before the movement is commenced, shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(iii.) The swine after the movement has commenced shall not be exposed at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland.

(iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.

(v.) The swine moved under this Article shall be slaughtered within four days after their arrival at the premises specified in the Licence; and the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are moved shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the specified premises and are slaughtered there within such four days.

(vi.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order.

As to Movement of Swine by Railway through Districts to which this Order applies.

5. For the purposes of this Order, swine shall not be deemed to be moved into or out of a District named in the Second Schedule to this Order where they are moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

6. Notwithstanding anything in this Order, swine may be moved in any circumstances with a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same, which Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the movement necessary or expedient.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Disinfection of Places and Things.

7.—(1.) The Local Authority of any District named in the Second Schedule to this Order may make such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes or any of them.

For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of any sty or other place which has been used for swine while affected with or suspected of swine-fever, and any utensil, pen, hurdle, or other thing used for or about such swine, and any wood-work with which such swine have come in contact, and for prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection are to be effected :

For requiring the owner, occupier or person in charge of such sty or other place to cleanse and disinfect such sty or other place and things at the expense of the Local Authority or at the expense of such owner, occupier or person in charge.

(2.) If the owner, occupier or person in charge of any such sty or place does any act in contravention of any such Regulation or fails in any respect to observe the same, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and where the occupier of such sty or place fails to cleanse and disinfect in accordance with any such Regulation, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of such Regulation, to cause such place and things to be cleansed and disinfected and to recover the expenses of such cleansing and disinfection from such owner, occupier or person in charge in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Slaughter in Swine-Fever.

8.—(1.) The Local Authority of any District named in the Second Schedule to this Order may, if they think fit, cause to be slaughtered—

- (i.) any swine affected with swine-fever ; or
- (ii.) any swine being or having been in the same sty or shed or in the same herd or otherwise in contact with swine affected with swine-fever.

(2.) The Local Authority shall, out of the local rate, pay compensation as follows for swine slaughtered under this Article :

(a.) Where the pig slaughtered was affected with swine-fever, the compensation shall be one half of its value immediately before it became so affected, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed four pounds :

(b.) In every other case the compensation shall be the value of the pig immediately before it was slaughtered, but so that the compensation do not in any such case exceed eight pounds.

Granting of Movement Licences.

9.—(1.) A Licence shall only be granted for the movement of swine under this Order where in the opinion of the Local Authority or the person granting the Licence, as the case may be, the granting of such Licence is necessary or expedient.

(2.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the swine to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the swine, or exposing the swine for sale, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting or licensed to hold the sale at which the swine are exposed, or by the occupier of the place or premises from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

Production of Licences : Names and Addresses.

10.—(1.) Every person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Offences.

11.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2.) If any person exposes a pig at any sale in England or Wales or Scotland in contravention of the provisions of Article 3 or Article 4 of this Order, the owner or consignee of such pig and the person exposing the same thereat, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Interpretation.

12. Terms in this Order have the same meaning as in the Swine-Fever (Infected Areas) Order of 1894, No. 2.

Commencement.

Board of Trade.—Session 1895.

Alderley Edge Local Board Electric Lighting.
(The Production, Storage, and Supply of Electricity by the Alderley Edge Local Board within the District of Alderley Edge, in the County of Chester; the Acquisition and Appropriation of Lands and Construction of Works; the Breaking up and Interference with Streets, Railways, and Tramways; the Laying Down and Erection of Electric Lines, Pipes, Wires, and Apparatus; the Taking and Recovery of Rates and Charges; the Entry into Houses and Lands; the Making of Contracts and the Transfer of Undertakings; the Borrowing of Money, and other Matters).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Local Board for the district of Alderley Edge, in the county of Chester (hereinafter called the Local Board), and whose address is the Local Board Offices, Alderley Edge, Cheshire, intend to apply to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called the Provisional Order) under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

No. 26562.

B

1. To authorize the Local Board to produce, store, supply, and distribute electricity for public and private purposes as defined by the said Acts within the district of Alderley Edge, in the county of Chester (hereinafter called the area of supply).

2. To enable the Local Board to purchase, take on lease, and hold lands or interests or easements in or over lands, or to appropriate for the purposes of the Provisional Order any lands belonging to or held by them, and to erect, maintain, work, and use upon such lands all necessary or proper engines, dynamos, batteries, machinery, apparatus, works, buildings, and appliances for generating, producing, storing, supplying, and distributing electricity, or for other the purposes of Undertaking, and to empower the Local Board to sell or dispose of any lands not required for the purposes of the Undertaking.

3. To authorize the Local Board to open, break up, and interfere with all streets, roads, and public places, ways, footpaths, railways, tramways, canals, navigable rivers, towing paths, culverts, sewers, drains, and gas and water mains and pipes, and telegraph and telephone and other wires within the area of supply; and to lay down, erect, maintain, renew, and remove, either above or under ground, or otherwise, electric lines, conductors, mains, pipes, tubes, wires, posts, streets or distributing boxes, meters, apparatus, and other works or things required for the purpose of enabling the Local Board to supply, produce, store, convey, transmit, or distribute electricity within the area of supply; and to confer all such other powers upon the Local Board as may be necessary for effecting the objects of the proposed Undertaking.

4. To authorize the Local Board to manufacture, purchase, hire, sell, and let lamps, accumulators, meters, dynamos, fittings, plant, machinery, and other matters or things required for the purposes of the Provisional Order; and to acquire, work, and use patent rights for the producing, storing, controlling, distributing, and measuring, or otherwise relating to the supply of electricity.

5. To authorize the Local Board to take, collect, and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of electricity and the use of any machine, lamps, meters, fittings, or apparatus connected therewith.

6. To authorize the Local Board to break up and pass or cross over or under the following streets not repairable by a Local Authority, namely, Beechfield-road, Lydiate-lane, Tempest-road, Ferns-road, Tower-hill, Swiss-hill, Clifton-street, portion of Moss-lane, Duke-street, Moss-row, Elm-grove, Oak-grove; roads over railway bridges and approaches thereto; Beauliffe-road, Woodbrook-road, and all streets and parts of streets carried over or under any railway, canal, or navigable river, and to break up or interfere with the following railways and tramways, so far as they are situate within the area of supply, namely, the London and North Western Railway.

7. To make provision for the inspection and testing of mains, conductors, and works; for the appointment and remuneration of electric inspectors; and for the supply, use, inspection, testing, and certifying of meters, fittings, and instruments.

8. To authorize the Local Board to enter upon any houses, building, or lands supplied or proposed to be supplied with electricity for any purposes relating to such supply.

9. To authorize the Local Board to enter into contracts with Companies or persons for the execution and maintenance of works and the supply of electricity, and to relieve the Local Board from the consequences of any acts or defaults of any such contractors, and to empower the Local Board to transfer to Companies or persons all or some of their powers, duties, liabilities, and works for such period and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

10. To confer upon the Local Board all or some of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, and enactments incorporated therewith, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with any of the objects of the Provisional Order, and to confer all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

11. To empower the Local Board to borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the Provisional Order, and to charge the moneys so borrowed and interest upon the District Fund and General District Rate of the district, and to empower the Local Board to apply any of their funds to any of the purposes of the Provisional Order, and to provide for the disposal or application of the revenue arising from the undertaking.

12. To incorporate with the Provisional Order Section 265 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (relating to the protection of Local Authorities and their officers from personal liability), and to extend that section to matters arising under the Provisional Order. The names of the streets in which it is proposed that Electric Lines shall be laid down within a specified time are as follows:—London-road, Macclesfield-road, Wilmslow-road, and Old Alderley-road.

And notice is hereby given, that the draft of the Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Provisional Order when deposited and of the Provisional Order when made, may be obtained (at the price of 1s. for each copy) at the offices of the undermentioned Clerk to the Local Board, and Parliamentary Agents.

And notice is hereby further given, that a map showing the boundaries of the proposed area of supply and the streets in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down within a specified time and a copy of this advertisement as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November next, for the public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester at Chester, in the said county, and at the Local Board Offices and at the offices of the Clerk to the Board, Alderley Edge, in the same county. And notice is hereby further given, that every Local or other public Authority, Company, or persons desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting this application, must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade (on the outside of the cover "Electric Lighting Acts") on or before the 15th day of January, 1895, and a copy of such objection must also be sent to the undermentioned Clerk to the Local Board, or Parliamentary Agents.

Dated this 3rd day of October, 1894.

W. E. ROWCLIFFE, Clerk to the Local Board, Alderley Edge, Cheshire.

SHARPE, PARKER, PRITCHARDS, AND BARHAM, 9, Bridge-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

London County Council.

To the Vestry of the Parish of St. James, Westminster;

And all whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 15 of the London County Council (General Powers) Act, 1893; it is enacted that the London County Council may from time to time for the purpose of elections of vestrymen, upon the application in writing of the vestry, or of not less than 500 rated householders of a parish mentioned in Schedules A and B to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, by order under their seal, re-arrange the wards in such parish, and determine the number, extent, limits, and boundary lines of the new wards, but so nevertheless that no ward shall contain less than 500 rated householders, and that the whole number of wards shall not exceed eight, and the Council shall, in making any such re-arrangement apportion among the several wards the number of Vestrymen to be elected for such parish, and shall in assigning the number of Vestrymen to each ward have regard so far as practicable as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, and the number of Vestrymen assigned to each ward shall be a number divisible by three; and it is also by the said Act enacted that any such Order may contain such provisions with reference to the election, rotation, and retirement of Vestrymen (whether elected prior or subsequently to the date of the Order) as the Council may think necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Order.

And whereas the parish of St. James, Westminster, is a parish mentioned in Part II of Schedule A to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, the said parish was divided into four wards.

And whereas the vestry of the said parish of St. James, Westminster, hath applied to the London County Council to re-arrange the wards of the said parish pursuant to the provisions of the said 15th section of the London County Council (General Powers) Act, 1893.

And whereas it appears from the rate books of the said parish, prepared in the month of April, 1893, that the said parish contains four thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine rated householders, and that the ratable annual value of property in the said parish is seven hundred and twenty-four thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine pounds.

Now the London County Council having considered the said application, and having taken into consideration the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward of the said parish, and the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, and all the circumstances connected with such application, doth hereby order that the wards of the said parish of St. James, Westminster, be re-arranged in manner following, that is to say, that the said parish be divided into four wards, and that the wards be distinguished by the names mentioned in the first column of the undermentioned Schedule, that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards shall be those described in the second column of the said Schedule, and that the number of vestrymen to be elected for each of the said wards shall be the number mentioned in the third column of the said Schedule.

And the London County Council doth further order that this Order shall come into force for the purpose of the first election of vestrymen under the Local Government Act, 1894, and such election shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act.
