FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1894.

Foreign Office, November 8, 1894.

THE Earl of Kimberley, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Minister at Tôkiô the following translation of an Imperial Ordinance promulgated by the Japanese Government on the 20th August last, concerning the examination of prizes of war, and the establishment of Prize Courts in Japan.

Inclosure.

(Official Translation.)

WE hereby sanction the present Ordinance concerning the examination of prizes of war, and order the same to be promulgated.

(Privy Seal.)

(His Imperial Majesty's Sign Manual.)

The 20th day, the 8th month, the 27th year of Meiji.

Countersigned :

Count ITO HIROBUMI,
Minister President of State.

Count SAIGO TSUGUMICHI,
Minister for the Navy.

MUTSU MUNEMITSU,
Minister for Foreign Affairs.

IMPERIAL ORDINANCE No. 149.

CHAPTER I.—Organization and Competence of Prize Court and Higher Prize Court.

ART. 1. Matters concerning prizes of war shall be examined in first instance by the Prize Court, and in second instance by the Higher Prize Court.

ART. 2. In the Prize Court there shall be appointed one President and six Councillors.

The President shall be appointed from the Judges of Court of Appeal.

Of the Councillors, one shall be appointed from officers of the Imperial Navy, two from Judges, one from the Naval Judges, one from the Councillors of Board of Legislation, and one from the Councillors or Secretaries of the Department of Foreign Affairs.

ART. 3. In the Higher Prize Court there shall be appointed one President and eight Councillors.

The President shall be appointed from the Privy Councillors.

Of the Councillors, one shall be appointed from the Privy Councillors, two from the Admirals, and three from the Judges of Supreme Court, and the remaining two shall be the President of Board of Legislation and the Director of the Political Bureau in the Department of Foreign Affairs.

ART. 4. The Presidents of the Prize Court and Higher Prize Court shall respectively superintend the affairs of the Courts, and personally preside over the examinations. Should the President be prevented from discharging his duties, he may detail one of the Councillors of the respective Courts to represent him at the examinations.

ART. 5. In both the Prize Court and the Higher Prize Court there shall be appointed two Procurators.

The Procurators of the Prize Court shall be appointed from public Procurators, and those of the Higher Prize Court from high administrative officers.

ART. 6. The Presidents, Councillors, and Procurators of the Prize Court and Higher Prize Court shall be appointed by the Minister President of State, with Imperial sanction.

ART. 7. Clerks shall be appointed in the Prize Court and Higher Prize Court.

The clerks shall be of Hannin rank, and shall be appointed by the respective Presidents.

ART. 8. The examination and decision shall be made by a collegiate body in case of the Prize Court, of not less than five members, consisting of the President and Councillors, and in case of the Higher Prize Court, of not less than seven members, consisting of the President and Councillors.

ART. 9. The opening and closing of the Prize Court and Higher Prize Court shall be determined by special Imperial Ordinance.

The Higher Prize Court shall sit in Tôkiô, but the seat of the Prize Court shall be determined by Imperial Ordinance.

CHAPTER II.

Proceedings of the Examination of Prizes of War.

ART. 10. The officer in command of a war-vessel or a vessel having made a capture shall bring the captured vessel to the port where the Prize Court is situated, or he shall place a Prize Master on board the captured vessel, and let him bring the same to such port, and immediately on arrival there a written statement shall be forwarded to the Court.

This statement shall contain the reasons for the capture, and all the facts to prove legality of that action, and it shall be accompanied by all the books and papers received by the master or crew of, or found on board, the captured vessel.

ART. 11. The President of the Prize Court shall, on receipt of the statement mentioned in the preceding Article, name one of the Councillors to take charge of the case.

The Councillor in charge shall open, in the presence of the Commanding Officer or Prize Master and the master of the captured vessel, the seal of the documents produced, and make a list of them.

ART. 12. The Councillor in charge shall hear the verbal statements of the master and crew of the captured ship, and, if deemed necessary, the statements of the crew of the ship which has made the capture, as well as of the passengers on board the captured ship, and cause the clerk to take minutes thereof.

ART. 13. The Councillor in charge shall, after the examination of facts deemed necessary for determining whether the whole or a part of the capture shall constitute a prize or be released, draw up a written report and forward the same to the Procurator of the Court, together with the Report and accompanying papers mentioned in Article 10.

ART. 14. The Procurator shall draw up a Memorial in respect to the examination and lay the same before the Prize Court, together with all the documents forwarded to him.

The Procurator may designate those points of fact which are deemed necessary for drawing up his Memorial, and ask the Councillor in charge to make a special investigation thereof.

ART. 15. When the Procurator recommends in his Memorial the immediate release of the capture, and the Prize Court also deems it proper, the Court shall draw up a written decision to that effect, and hand it to the Procurator.

ART. 16. In case the Procurator recommends in his Memorial that the capture be adjudged a prize, as well as in case the Prize Court regards as improper the Memorial of the Procurator recommending the immediate release of the capture, the Court shall take steps to issue a Notification.

Such notification shall be published in the official Gazette, and it shall state that any person who regards his interest as injured in consequence of the capture being pronounced a prize may send in a written petition within thirty days from the day following the notification.

When no such petition is sent in within the period prescribed in the preceding clause, the Prize Court shall immediately proceed with the examination; provided, however, that on application of the Procurator the decision be rendered immediately without the process of examination, and the written decision shall be delivered to the Procurator.

ART. 17. The written petition shall contain the principal points of the prayer, and be accompanied by the documents and objects serving as proofs thereof.

ART. 18. When a Petition is sent in within the period prescribed in Art. 16, a time shall be appointed for oral examination, and the Procurator and the petitioner shall be required to make their statements. The petitioner may employ Japanese advocates to plead his cause.

When the oral examination is completed, the decision shall be pronounced either immediately or at a future time specially appointed. The absence of the petitioner shall not cause the postponement of decision.

ART. 19. In case a further examination of evidence is required by the Prize Court during the proceedings, such examination may be ordered to the Councillor in charge.

The Procurator and petitioner may, during the proceedings, produce new facts and proofs.

ART. 20. Beside the foregoing, Rules relating to the proceedings of the Prize Court are determined by the Court.

ART. 21. Procurators and petitioners may appeal to the Higher Prize Court against the decisions of the Prize Court.

ART. 22. The time allowed for appeal is twenty days from the day following the announcement of decision, or the transmission of written decision.

ART. 23. The appeal shall be made in writing at the Prize Court.

The written appeal shall contain the principal points of appeal, and a detailed account of the ground on which the same is based.

The written appeal of a petitioner is required to be signed by a Japanese advocate.

ART. 24. The written appeal of a Procurator shall be shown to the petitioner concerned by means of a copy prepared by the Prize Court, and that of a petitioner shall be shown to the Procurator concerned, and a written reply shall be required within ten days. The written reply of a petitioner is required to be signed by a Japanese advocate.

ART. 25. At the expiration of [the period allowed for the reply the Prize Court shall forward the documents concerning the appeal to the Higher Prize Court.

In case the Higher Prize Court deem it necessary to make a further examination of facts or proofs, the documents mentioned in the preceding clause shall be returned to the Prize Court ordering such examination.

The Prize Court shall order the Councillor in charge to make such examination, and the documents related thereto shall be shown to the Procurator and petitioner before they are forwarded to the Higher Prize Court.

ART. 26. The examination made by the Higher Prize Court shall be based upon documents.

ART. 27. Rules concerning the proceedings of the Higher Prize Court shall be determined by that Court.

ART. 28. Captures adjudged as prizes form an acquisition of State.

ART. 29. Captured vessels or goods shall be kept, until the final decision, in custody of the naval authorities, determined by the Minister for the navy.

ART. 30. The enforcement of a decision shall be made by the Procurator of the Prize Court.

The Procurator of the Prize Court may, in enforcing a decision, ask the assistance of the naval authorities, or employ police officials.

ART. 31. The provisions of the present Chapter shall be applied to cases where captured vessels are not brought in owing to special circumstances, in so far as they are enforceable.

Additional Rule.

ART. 32. The present Ordinance shall be put in force from the date of promulgation.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board: Election of Guardians in 1894:—

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in Column 1 of the Schedule annexed to this Order;—

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the several Parishes and Places named in Column 2 of the said Schedule;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by certain Orders issued by Us, the Local Government Board, on the dates mentioned in Column 3 of the Schedule annexed to this Order, being dates subsequent to the annual Election of Guardians of the Poor held in the month of April, 1893, and prior to the passing of the Local Government Act, 1894; hereinafter referred to as "the Act," We made provision, to take effect at the then next annual Election of Guardians to be held in the Unions named in Column 1 of the said Schedule with regard to the Election of Guardians for the Parishes and Places named in Column 2 of the said Schedule;

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (8) of Section 79 of the Act that, until the day on which the first Guardians elected under the Act come into office, the persons who at the passing of the Act were Guardians shall continue in office as if the term of office for which they were elected expired on that day, and, in consequence of such provision, no annual Elections of Guardians have been held in the said Unions during the present year;

And whereas doubts are entertained whether the first Election of Guardians under the Act will be an annual Election of Guardians within the meaning of each of the said Orders:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby Order and Declare that where in any of the said Orders We made provision whereby the Order, or such part thereof as relates to the number of Guardians to be elected for any Parish or Parishes, should come into force at the next annual Election of Guardians, such Order, or such part as aforesaid, shall come into force at the first Election of Guardians under the Act, and shall take effect accordingly, subject to any alteration or provision which may have been, or which may be made by any County Council or Joint Committee of County Councils under the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of Section 60 of the Act in the number of Guardians to be elected for any Parish or Place referred to in the Order, or with respect to the Wards into which any such Parish or Place may be divided for the purpose of such Election, or for the division of any such Parish or Place into Wards for such purpose.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the rectory of Saint Michael, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Michael, Bristol, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Michael, Bristol aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said rectory and parish of Saint Michael, Bristol.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Saint Mary, Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, one capital sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of altering and improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising two thousand three hundred and seventy-seven square yards or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured as an addition to the site of the parsonage or house of residence of the vicarage of Saint Bartholomew, Earley, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Bartholomew, Earley, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of four hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one yearly sum of twelve pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such yearly payment of twelve pounds to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Hatfield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of three pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Hatfield, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of three pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four thousand and three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the district of Saint Bartholomew, Rose Hill, Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same district, and to his successors, a yearly sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said district of Saint Bartholomew, Rose Hill, Ipswich, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said district one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llantilio Crossenny, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Hilda, Millfield, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds hereby granted by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Hilda, Millfield, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, heretofore payable by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to certain conditions, to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Mark, Millfield (out of which the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Hilda, Millfield, was partly taken), situate in the said county of Durham, and in the said diocese of Durham, under the authority of an Instrument sealed by us on the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month and year: And provided also, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds hereby granted, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice of Saint Hilda, Millfield, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of New Sleaford, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Mr. Justice Stirling.

In the Matter of Johnson's Saccharum Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the High Court of Justice for confirming a resolution of the above Company for reducing its capital from £250,000 to £185,266. A list of the persons admitted to have been creditors of the Company on the 19th day of October, 1894, may be inspected at the office of the Company, at Carpenter's-road, Stratford, in the county of Essex, or at the offices of Messrs. Wilson, Bristows, and Carpmael, 1, Copthall-buildings, London, E.C., at any time during usual business hours, on payment of the charge of one shilling. Any person who claims to have been on the last mentioned day and still to be a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list, and claims to be so entered, must, on or before Tuesday, the 20th day of November, 1894, send his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the undersigned, at 1, Copthall-buildings, London, or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.—Dated this 7th day of November, 1894.

WILSON, BRISTOWS, and CARPMAEL,
1, Copthall-buildings, London, E.C.,
Solicitors for the said Company.
