

Affairs of the Campagne, the Preparations for which are in that forwardness, that we hope to open it about the middle of the next month. The Monmouth Yacht with Money for their Majesties Service, and several Ships with Recruits both of Horse and Foot, arrived here the last week; And from Coke, Waterford, and Kinsale, we have likewise accounts, of the arrival in those Ports of divers Ships with Recruits, of which there are 2000 already come; and the Train of Artillery, with the Wagons and Carriages, are all fitted. We hear from Cassel, that on the 9th instant some of Captain Green's Militia-Dragoons marched into the Enemies Quarters, killed several Rapperies, and burnt a Village that harboured them; That on the 13th Quarter-master Callaghan went out with a Party, and took 11 Prisoners, 12 Horses, and 70 Head of Black Cattel; And that some Protestants were come in there from the County of Clare, who gave an account, that the Rebels Horse are in a very ill condition, their men unclouted, that Provisions are very scarce with them, and that their Cattel dye apace. From Mullingar they write, that one Fitzgerald a Captain, and 12 private Soldiers, who had deserted from the Enemies Quarters, came in there on the 16th instant. On the 19th, 700 of the Enemies standing Troops attacked a Stone House called Cryghan, near Philips-town, and took a Corporal, and 6 of our men, who defended themselves till their Powder was spent, and killed 12 of the Enemy.

This last week was published here a Proclamation by the Lords Justices and Council, setting forth, That whereas by the Examinations of divers Persons it does appear, that a Romish Priest, calling himself Father Christopher Brown, who has lived many months in several places in their Majesties Power without being molested on account of his Orders or Religion, has been, if not the first Contriver, and principal Director and Conductor, yet a main Abetter and Encourager of the late barbarous Murder of many of their Majesties Soldiers in Mallahuddert Church near this City; and whereas several others are found to have been Guilty of the said Murder, who are fled from Justice, their Lordships do Promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Persons, not Guilty of the same, as shall Apprehend and secure the said Christopher Browne, and Ten Pounds for every of the other Persons; and Pardon to such, though Privy to the said Murder, as shall Apprehend any of the said Offenders.

Chester, April 25. Yesterday and this morning a great number of Recruits, with about 300 Carriage Horses, went from hence for Higblake in order to their Transportation for Ireland, and more are following, which will be likewise shipped in few days.

Falmouth, April 23. On Monday last came in here the Resolution of Malaga, the Society of London, and the Blough of Topham, all three laden from Malaga, but they came last from Cadix in a Fleet of about 36 Sail, which are gone up the Channel.

Plimouth, April 26. The Fleet from Cadix, under the Convoy of the Kings-fisher and the Scepter, sailed out of this Port on the 23d instant for the Downes, but was forced back again the next day by contrary Winds. Some Ships that came in here yesterday in the afternoon give an account, that in the morning they saw in the Offn 23 Sail of great Ships, which they supposed to be French Men of War, but it's rather conjectured, they may be some Dutch Men from St. Ubes.

Deale, April 28. The last week 4 Dutch Men of War, of 70 Guns apiece, came into the Downes from Holland, who presently after sailed again to join their Majesties Fleet at the Buoy of the Nore. There is now in the Downes a Squadron of 26 English Men of War, all Capital Ships, besides Fireships under the command of Sir Ralph Delaval, who came in last Sunday night.

Westminster, April 28. The Parliament met this day, and His Majesties Pleasure being signified to Both Houses, That they should Adjourn their Meeting to the 26th of May next, they accordingly Adjourned to the 26th of May now next ensuing.
