“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement situate in the parish of Saint Peter Bradford in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Laister Dyke in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and of such new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Clement situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this representation and caused his episcopal seal to be affixed thereto) and with the consents of the Reverend George Edward Tate, Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Kippington in the county of Kent, and Prebendary of Wells, of the Very Reverend Robert Payne Smith, Dean of the Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury, of the Venerable John Richardson Archdeacon of Southwark, of Number 163 Tulse-hill in the county of Surrey, of the Reverend Handley Carr Glyn Moule, Clerk in Holy Orders, Principal of Ridley Hall in the county of Cambridge, and of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone Clerk in Holy Orders minister or perpetual curate of Saint John's Chapel Hampstead in the county of Middlesex and Honorary Canon of Christ Church Oxford, (commonly known as the Simeon Trustees) as the patrons both of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Clement situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement, Bradford.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement Bradford, comprising:—

“1. All that portion of the parish of Saint Peter Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the north by the new parish of Saint Augustine Undercliffe, Bradford in the said county and diocese, upon the north-east and upon the south-east by the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mary Laister Dyke, in the same county and diocese (including the hereinafter described portion thereof) and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the south-west and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke from the parish of Saint Peter Bradford aforesaid, at the point where the old footpath which leads (or used to lead) from the Leeds-road to the Leeds and Bradford Old-road, crosses Harewood-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby for the latter and greater part of the way following the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Bradford, in the county and diocese aforesaid) to the junction of such street with the Leeds and Bradford Old-road aforesaid and with Undercliffe-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Butler-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Cowper-place, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the passage that runs along the back of the houses situate on the southern side of the road called or known as Tennyson-place and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one hundred and twenty feet or thereabouts along the middle of that passage to a point at its junction with Tennyson-place aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford from the new parish of Saint Augustine Undercliffe Bradford aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke which is bounded upon part of the east upon the north and upon the west by the above-described portion of the parish of Saint Peter Bradford and upon all other sides that is to say upon the south and upon the remaining part of the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter Bradford from the new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke aforesaid, at the firstly above-mentioned point where the old footpath leading to the Leeds and Bradford Old-road crosses Harewood-street as aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Harewood-street for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lapage-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Rochester-street, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Dudley Hill and Killinghall High-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western corner of the Cavalry and Infantry Barracks on Bradford Moor, and extending thence eastward and in a straight line for a distance of fifty feet or thereabouts to a point at the said corner of the said Barracks upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Laister Dyke from the parish of Saint Peter Bradford aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

A STATUTE to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to The King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge and amended by a Statute dated the 27th day of February 1890, duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the 27th day of October 1894 and passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute F made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge as amended by Statute dated the 27th day of February 1890 and approved by Her Majesty the Queen in Council on the 12th day of January 1891 it is enacted as follows:

1. There shall be forty-eight Scholarships in the College, of which twenty-four shall be called Eton Scholarships, and twenty-four shall be called Open Scholarships: but the Honorary Scholarships mentioned in Section 18 (a) of this Chapter shall not be reckoned in this number.

2. Both the Eton and the Open Scholarships shall be divided into Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships.

3. An Eton Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable for four years, and an Open Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total prolongation shall in no case exceed two years, the tenure being in each case reckoned from the first day of the term in which the holder of the Scholarship commenced residence in the University. Any Entrance Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to an Undergraduate Scholarship or a Fellowship.

4. An Undergraduate Scholarship shall be tenable until the holder completes four years from the 25th day of March in the academical year in which he commenced residence in the University. But such a Scholarship may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total period of prolongation shall in no case exceed two years. Any Undergraduate Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to a Fellowship.

5. No Scholarship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford, or of Trinity College, Dublin.

6. Every candidate for a Scholarship, not being already a member of the College, shall bring a satisfactory certificate of moral character.

7. The time and manner of examinations for Scholarships, and the day or days of election and admission thereto, shall from time to time be fixed by the Governing Body.

8. At any election a Scholarship which is not actually vacant, but which will necessarily be vacated on or before the first day of the Michaelmas Term then next following, may be treated as a vacant Scholarship.

9. The electors to Scholarships shall be the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and two or more Fellows to be appointed annually by the Council, who may also appoint any examiners to assist the electors.

10. The manner of electing to Scholarships and all proceedings relating to the election shall be in the discretion of the electors; provided that no candidate shall be elected a Scholar without the concurrence of at least one-half of the electors present, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the senior elector present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes; provided also that no person shall vote at an election to Entrance Scholarships who has not taken part in the examination for the same.

11. The electors shall not be bound to elect to a Scholarship any candidate whom they shall not consider of sufficient merit for election; and they shall have power to require from any candidate a declaration that he intends to devote himself exclusively to the studies of the University during the whole of the time preceding his admission to his first degree.

12. Every candidate elected to a Scholarship shall be admitted a Scholar, and (if not already a member of the College) commence residence at such time as shall be prescribed by the Governing Body, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emoluments of his Scholarship, which emoluments shall commence, in the case of an Entrance Scholarship, from the first day of the term in which the Scholar is admitted, and, in the case of an Undergraduate Scholarship, from the day of election; provided that no holder of an Entrance Scholarship shall, upon election to an Undergraduate Scholarship, be required to be again admitted a Scholar; provided also, that any person elected to a Scholarship under the eighth section of this chapter shall not be entitled to any emolument thereof until the same has become actually vacant.

13. The Governing Body shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they shall think proper with respect to the University and College examinations that the Scholars shall be required to undergo, and with respect to their residence and studies; and any Scholar who shall fail to conform to such regulations, or shall not make reasonable progress in his studies, may be deprived by the Council of his Scholarship, or of the whole or part of the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

14. Every Scholar shall proceed to his degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Laws, or to some equal degree, at his regular time, except with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The following provisions shall apply to Eton Scholarships only:

(a.) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, of which at least four shall be offered as Entrance Scholarships, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six Scholarships in any year, and, subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what number shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively:

(b.) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all Candidates receiving education at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not, who at the commencement of the examination are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the annual Congregation with the consent of the Governing Body of Eton School:

(c.) The Undergraduate Scholarships shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first, second, and third years of residence, who have been educated at Eton School whether on the foundation or not:

(d.) The emoluments of an Eton Scholarship shall be eighty pounds per annum, with tuition, and with commons during residence, and with rooms rent free until the Scholar takes his first degree; and the Council may, if they think fit, assign rooms rent free to any Eton Scholar after taking his first degree, if he shall, with their permission, reside in College. Provided that when any Eton Undergraduate Scholarship is prolonged the Council may reduce the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

16. The following provisions shall apply to Open Scholarships only:

(a.) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six in any year, and subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what numbers shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively:

(b.) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all Candidates who at the commencement of the examination are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the Annual Congregation:

(c.) The Undergraduate Scholarships shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first, second, and third years of residence, including the holders of Eton Entrance Scholarships; provided that the Governing Body may in any year declare that any or all of the Undergraduate Scholarships to be offered in that year shall be open to all Undergraduates of the University:

(d.) The emoluments of an open Entrance Scholarship for the first two years shall not exceed eighty pounds per annum, inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances. The emoluments and allowances of an Open Entrance Scholarship after the first two years, if the Scholarship be prolonged, and of an Open Undergraduate Scholarship, shall be such as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine. Provided that when any Open Undergraduate Scholarship is prolonged the Council may reduce the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

17. The Governing Body may, from time to time, make regulations as to the principles on which the Council shall prolong Undergraduate Scholarships and fix the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

18. (a.) Any candidate for an Entrance or Undergraduate Scholarship may signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the emoluments of the same if elected thereto, and he may thereupon be elected to an Honorary Scholarship.

(b.) Any Scholar may at any time signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the pecuniary emoluments of his Scholarship during his tenure of the same, and thereupon such emoluments shall cease to be paid to him and he shall thenceforth be entitled an Honorary Scholar.

(c.) Any Scholar may signify in writing to the Provost his wish not to receive the pecuniary emoluments of his Scholarship during any period of his tenure of the same, and thereupon such emoluments shall not be paid to him during such period.

19. If under the foregoing provisions of this Statute the number of Eton Scholarships or Open Scholarships be in any year increased beyond twenty-four, then not more than six such Scholarships shall be offered in any subsequent year until their number is again reduced to twenty-four.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statute F in manner hereinafter appearing. Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend the said Statute F hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say):

1. There shall be forty-eight Scholarships in the College, of which twenty-four shall be called Eton Scholarships, and twenty-four shall be called Open Scholarships; but the Honorary Scholarships mentioned in Section 21 (a) of this Statute shall not be reckoned in this number.

2. Both the Eton and the Open Scholarships shall be divided into Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships.

3. An Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total period of prolongation shall in no case exceed two years, the tenure being in each case reckoned from the first day of the term in which the holder of the Scholarship was admitted a Scholar. Any Entrance Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to an Undergraduate Scholarship or to a Fellowship.

4. An Undergraduate Scholarship shall be tenable until the holder completes five years from the 25th day of March next preceding the date of his commencing residence in the University. But such a Scholarship may be prolonged by the Council for a further period or further periods, provided that the total period of prolongation shall in no case exceed two years. Any Undergraduate Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to a Fellowship.

5. No Scholarship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford, or of Trinity College, Dublin.

6. Every candidate for a Scholarship, not being already a member of the College, shall bring a satisfactory certificate of moral character.

7. The time and manner of examinations for Scholarships, and the day or days of election and admission thereto, shall from time to time be fixed by the Governing Body.

9. The electors to Scholarships shall be the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and two or more Fellows to be appointed annually by the Council, who may also appoint any examiners to assist the electors. And notwithstanding anything contained in Statute D iii 3, the electors to Scholarships shall award all Exhibitions which are offered at any examination for Entrance Scholarships.

10. The manner of electing to Scholarships and all proceedings relating to the election shall be in the discretion of the electors; provided that no Candidate shall be elected a scholar without the concurrence of at least one-half of the electors present, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the senior elector present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes; provided also that no person shall vote at an election to Entrance Scholarships who has not taken part in the examination for the same.

11. The electors shall not be bound to elect to a Scholarship any candidate whom they shall not consider of sufficient merit for election; and they shall have power to require from any candidate a declaration that he intends to devote himself exclusively to the studies of the University during the whole of the time preceding his admission to his first degree.

12. Every Candidate elected to a Scholarship shall be admitted a Scholar at such time as shall be prescribed by the Governing Body, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emoluments of his Scholarship, which emoluments shall commence in the case of an Entrance Scholarship from the first day of the term in which the Scholar is admitted, and in the case of an Undergraduate Scholarship from the day of election: provided that no holder of an Entrance Scholarship shall, upon election to an Undergraduate Scholarship, be required to be again admitted a Scholar; provided also, that any person elected to a Scholarship under the eighth section of this Statute shall not be entitled to any emolument thereof, until the same has become actually vacant.

13. The Governing Body shall from time to time make such regulations as they shall think proper with respect to the University and College examinations that the Scholars shall be required to undergo, and with respect to their residence and studies; and any Scholar who shall fail to conform to such regulations, or shall not make reasonable progress in his studies, may be deprived by the Council of his Scholarship, or of the whole or part of the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

14. Every Scholar shall proceed to his degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Laws, or to some equal degree, at his regular time, except with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The following regulations shall apply to Eton Scholarships subject to the provisions of section 18 of this Statute.

(a) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, of which at least four shall be offered as Entrance Scholarships, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six Scholarships in any year, and, subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what number shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively.

(b) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all Candidates receiving education at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not, who at the commencement of the academical year in which the examination is held are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the Annual Congregation with the consent of the Governing Body of Eton School.

(c) The Undergraduate Scholarships shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College who have been educated at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not, until the expiration of four years from the twenty-fifth day of March next preceding the date of their commencing residence in the University.

16. The following regulations shall apply to Open Scholarships subject to the provisions of section 17 of this Statute:

(a) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six in any year, and subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what numbers shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively.

(b) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all candidates who at the commencement of the academical year in which the examination is held are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the Annual Congregation.

19. If at any election the whole number of Eton Entrance Scholarships then offered be not awarded one or more Exhibitions, to be called Eton Exhibitions, shall under regulations to be determined from time to time by the Governing Body be awarded to candidates receiving education at Eton School, if candidates of sufficient merit offer themselves. 23. If at any time it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that, owing to any cause, the revenues of the College are, or without the exercise of the power hereby conferred would be likely to become insufficient to meet the charges created by these Statutes, without injury to the general interests of the College, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, on a petition in writing presented to him by order of the Governing Body at a Congregation specially summoned for that purpose, to direct that any Eton or Open Scholarship shall be kept vacant and that the number of Scholarships to be offered under Sections 15 and 16 of this Statute shall be reduced, or that the charges created by these Statutes in respect of Scholarships shall be diminished for such limited period as shall seem desirable in the interests of the College.

Every person elected to a Scholarship before the day on which this Statute shall come into operation shall hold such Scholarship, and any other Scholarship to which he may be subsequently elected, for the same period and on the same conditions, and the emoluments of such Scholarship or Scholarships shall be the same as if the Statute under which he was first elected had continued in operation.

Given under our Common Seal this thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1894.

THE following Statutes, made by the Governing Body of King's College, Cambridge, on the twenty-seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and sealed with the Common Seal of the College, on the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

STATUTES to alter Statutes made by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 27th day of October 1894 and passed at such meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute E Chapters II and V made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge it is enacted as follows:

CHAPTER II.

1. The Fellows shall be elected from among the Graduate members of the College, who shall not have completed six years from the twenty-fifth day of March in the academical year in which they commenced residence in the University.

2. Provided that a Congregation may at any time, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, direct that all or any the vacant Fellowships shall, either for the then ensuing year or thenceforth until otherwise determined, be open to all Graduate members of the University not exceeding the standing mentioned in the first section of this chapter, and also, if thought advisable, to all Graduate members of the University of Oxford of the like standing.

3. Provided further, that the electors may in any year elect to one vacant Fellowship any person not satisfying the conditions for the time being required, whom they shall consider to be specially qualified to promote the interests of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research; and may, if previously authorized thereto by the Governing Body, make it at the time of election a condition that the Fellow so elected shall accept any College office to which he shall be elected or appointed within one year after becoming a Fellow, and shall hold such office until he shall be released from the obligation so to do, either by an express vote of the Governing Body or by his not being re-elected or re-appointed to such office, or until he has become entitled to retain his Fellowship for life: provided also that on any breach of such conditions the Fellowship shall become vacant.

4. At every election of Fellows, every person qualified under the first section of this chapter shall be deemed to be a candidate, and the Governing Body may from time to time determine what shall be held to constitute a person a candidate under the second and third sections of this chapter.

CHAPTER V.

1. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of a fixed term of six years, to be reckoned from the day of his election, except in the case of a Fellow elected under the second section of the third chapter of this Statute, in whose case the term of years shall be reckoned from the time of his entering upon the emoluments of his Fellowship; but there shall not be reckoned as part of such term of years any time during which a Fellow has held any one or more of the College and University offices hereinafter mentioned.

2. Any Fellow who shall have held one or more of the said offices for not less than twenty-five years altogether, shall be excepted from the operation of the last preceding section.

3. The College offices referred to in the two sections last preceding shall be such annual and educational offices as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine; and the University offices referred to in the same sections shall be the offices of Public Orator, Registrar, and Librarian, together with such other offices as a Congregation shall, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, from time to time determine.

4. A Congregation may, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, allow any Fellow eminent for learning or science, or whose studies are likely to be of material service in the promotion of any art or science, and whose Fellowship would but for such vote expire within the then ensuing year, to retain his Fellowship for a further period of five years; and if they shall have exercised this power four times in the case of any Fellow, they may, by a like vote, finally except such Fellow from the operation of the first section of this chapter.

5. Any Fellow accepting a pension assigned to him under the provisions of Statute C III 6, shall thereby vacate his Fellowship.

6. Any Fellow who shall come into any ecclesiastical preferment on the presentation of the College of the clear annual value of Four hundred pounds (after deducting rates, taxes, and other legal charges, but not the pension, if any, paid to a former incumbent), shall thereby vacate his Fellowship; provided that any Fellow coming into any such ecclesiastical preferment may retain his Fellowship, if not otherwise sooner terminable, for one year after the avoidance of such preferment by the previous holder.

7. No Fellowship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford, or of Trinity College, Dublin.

And whereas by Statute K Chapter III made by the said Commissioners it is enacted as follows:

1. Whenever the aggregate sum paid in any year to the Scholars in respect of their Scholarships shall be less than the sum of Three thousand eight hundred and forty pounds, the difference between such sums shall be paid into a separate fund, to be called the Exhibition Fund, which shall be employed in providing Exhibitions and Prizes in such manner as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

2. The Annual Congregation may from time to time direct any further payments to be made to the Exhibition Fund out of the general income of the College.

3. If it shall at any time appear to the Annual Congregation that the general income of the College produces a surplus beyond the amount required to provide the largest Dividend allowed by these Statutes, they may determine, subject to the approval of the Visitor, that such surplus shall be applied to increasing (permanently or temporarily) the number of Fellowships or Scholarships, or to any other purposes for the advantage of the College.

4. All payments made by Students of the College and other persons for tuition and attendance at lectures shall be appropriated to a separate fund, to be called the Tuition Fund.

5. All Caution money shall be placed to the credit of a separate Fund to be called the Caution Fund.

6. The Tuition and Caution Funds shall be managed, and the income therefrom applied in such manner, as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. The accounts of these funds shall be kept by such Officer or Officers as the Governing Body may appoint for the purpose, and shall be annually audited with the other College accounts.

7. All moneys due to the College from any of its members shall be received and collected by some Officer or Officers appointed by the Governing Body to receive the same.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statutes E Chapters II and V and K Chapter III in manner hereinafter appearing. Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend Chapters II and V of the said Statute E hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say):—

CHAPTER II.

1. The Fellows shall be elected from among the Graduate Members of the College, who shall not have completed seven years from the twenty-fifth day of March next preceding the date of their commencing residence in the University.

2. Provided that a Congregation may at any time by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, direct that all or any of the vacant Fellowships shall, either for the then ensuing year or thenceforth until otherwise determined, be open to all Graduate Members of the University not exceeding the standing mentioned in the first section of this chapter, and also, if thought advisable, to all Graduate Members of the University of Oxford of the like standing.

3. Provided further, that the electors may in any year elect to one vacant Fellowship any person not satisfying the conditions for the time being required, whom they shall consider to be specially qualified to promote the interests of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research; and may, if previously authorized thereto by the Governing Body, make it at the time of election a condition that the Fellow so elected shall accept any College office to which he shall be elected or appointed within one year after becoming a Fellow, and shall hold such office until he shall be released from the obligation so to do, either by an express vote of the Governing Body or by his not being re-elected or re-appointed to such office, or until he has become entitled to retain his Fellowship for life: provided also that on any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

4. At every election of Fellows, every person qualified under the first section of this chapter shall be deemed to be a candidate, and the Governing Body may from time to time determine what shall be held to constitute a person a candidate under the second and third sections of this chapter.

CHAPTER V.

1. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of a fixed term of six years, to be reckoned from the day of his election, except in the case of a Fellow elected under the second section of the third chapter of this Statute, in whose case the term of years shall be reckoned from the time of his entering upon the emoluments of his Fellowship; but there shall not be reckoned as part of such term of years any time during which a Fellow has held any one or more of the College and University Offices hereinafter mentioned.

2. Any Fellow who shall have held one or more of the said offices for not less than twenty-five years altogether, shall be excepted from the operation of the last preceding section.

3. The College offices referred to in the two sections last preceding shall be such annual and educational offices as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine; and the University offices referred to in the same sections shall be the offices of Public Orator, Registry, and Librarian, together with such other offices as a Congregation shall, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, from time to time determine.

4. A Congregation may, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, allow any Fellow eminent for learning or science, or whose studies are likely to be of material service in the promotion of any art or science, and whose Fellowship would but for such vote expire within the then ensuing year, to retain his Fellowship for a further period of five years; and if they shall have exercised this power four times in the case of any Fellow, they may, by a like vote, finally except such Fellow from the operation of the first section of this chapter.

5. A Fellow accepting a pension assigned to him under the provisions of Statute C III 6, shall thereby vacate his Fellowship, unless the Congregation at the time of assigning the pension shall, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, otherwise determine.

6. Any Fellow who shall come into any ecclesiastical preferment on the presentation of the College of the clear annual value of four hundred pounds (after deducting rates, taxes, and other legal charges, but not the pension, if any, paid to a former incumbent), shall thereby vacate his Fellowship; provided that any Fellow coming into any such ecclesiastical preferment may retain his Fellowship, if not otherwise sooner terminable, for one year after the avoidance of such preferment by the previous holder.

7. No Fellowship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford, or of Trinity College, Dublin.

And we do hereby also alter and amend Chapter III of the said Statute K hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say):

1. A sum to be determined from time to time by the Annual Congregation shall be paid annually to a separate fund, to be called the Exhibition Fund, which shall be employed in providing Exhibitions, Prizes, and other allowances to Students, and in making grants to Scholars, in such manner as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine. The term Exhibitions wherever used in these Statutes shall be deemed to include Minor Scholarships.

2. If it shall at any time appear to the Annual Congregation that the general income of the College produces a surplus beyond the amount required to provide the largest Dividend allowed by these Statutes, they may determine, subject to the approval of the Visitor, that such surplus shall be applied to increasing (permanently or temporarily) the number of Fellowships or Scholarships, or to any other purposes for the advantage of the College.

3. All payments made by Students of the College and other persons for tuition and attendance at lectures shall be appropriated to a separate fund, to be called the Tuition Fund.

4. All Caution money shall be placed to the credit of a separate fund, to be called the Caution Fund.

5. The Tuition and Caution Funds shall be managed, and the income therefrom applied in such manner, as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. The accounts of these funds shall be kept by such Officer or Officers as the Governing Body may appoint for the purpose, and shall be annually audited with the other College accounts.

6. All moneys due to the College from any of its members shall be received and collected by some Officer or Officers appointed by the Governing Body to receive the same.

Given under our Common Seal this thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.
