TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1894.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by the twentieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled ‘The Greenwich Hospital Act 1865’ it is, among other things, enacted that the Admiralty may (subject to the approval of Your Majesty in Council) fix the salaries of Officers and Clerks appointed for the service of Greenwich Hospital.

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, the salary of the Accountant of Greenwich Hospital was fixed at three hundred pounds rising by ten pounds a year to four hundred pounds per annum.

“And whereas we are of opinion that the salary attached to this appointment should be increased. We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to authorize a salary of three hundred and fifty pounds rising by fifteen pounds a year to four hundred and fifty pounds per annum, to be attached thereto, and to sanction the payment from the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four at the rate of four hundred and fifty pounds a year to the present holder.

“And whereas by Article two thousand one hundred and seventy-three, paragraph six (b), of the regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service, money allowances at the rate of one shilling a week may be paid from the funds of Greenwich Hospital to Naval Pensioners admitted to Naval Hospitals or Infirmaries who have wives or children, and at the rate of two shillings a week to such pensioners if their Naval Pensions exceed one shilling a day, and they are without wives or children.

“And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable to grant allowances at the rate of two shillings a week to pensioners, whose pensions exceed one shilling a day, in cases where no allowances are paid to their wives or to persons having charge of their children.

“We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize the payment of allowances at this rate—to take effect from the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.”

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act.

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that in relation to any Dockyard Port, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, to make regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary, with a view to the proper protection of Her Majesty's vessels, dockyards or property, or to the requirements of Her Majesty's Naval Service.

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that in relation to any Dockyard port, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, to make rules concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried or used, and the steps for avoiding collisions to be taken by Her Majesty's vessels, and other vessels navigating the waters of the Port, and of the approaches thereto.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, certain Regulations were made by Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, with reference to the Dockyard Port of Portsmouth.

And whereas the regulations before-mentioned were revoked by Order in Council, dated the twenty-second day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and other regulations substituted therefor :

And whereas it appears expedient that the last-mentioned regulations should be amended.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect on the expiration of thirty days from its publication in the London Gazette.

2. On this Order taking effect, the following clause shall be inserted in the first schedule of the Order in Council of the twenty-second day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, after Clause 23—Anchorage Regulations—and shall be numbered 23a.

SPIITHEAD.

23a. No merchant or other private vessel or boat shall be moored, anchored or grounded within two hundred yards of the Spit Fort, the Horse Fort, the Noman's Fort, or the Saint Helen's Fort.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act 1865 it is enacted that in relation to any Dockyard port it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time by Order in Council to make Regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary with a view to the proper protection of Her Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of Her Majesty's Naval Service:

And whereas in pursuance of the said Act certain Regulations were made by Order in Council dated the fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety with reference to the Dockyard Port of Plymouth:

And whereas the Regulations before-mentioned were amended by Order in Council dated the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three:

And whereas it appears expedient that the Regulations before-mentioned should be further amended:

Now therefore Her Majesty by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Her vested is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect on the expiration of thirty days from its publication in the London Gazette.

2. On this Order taking effect the following clauses shall be inserted in the Second Schedule of the Order in Council of the fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety after clause nine—Vessels to keep clear of Her Majesty's ships—and shall be numbered 9a and 9b.

9a. Merchant and other private steam-vessels and small craft propelled by steam, when navigating along the western shore in Hamoaze between Petre and Carew Points, shall keep outside, or to the eastward of, the battle ships and Admiralty moorings in that locality.

9b. Merchant and other private steam-vessels navigating along the eastern shore in Hamoaze shall keep outside, or to the southward and westward of the moorings for timber ships and lumps between Mutton Cove and the Dockyard Camber at the north end of the Rubble Bank.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section three hundred and ninety-three of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is (among other things) enacted that a boy under the age of sixteen years shall not be taken to sea for the purpose of serving in any capacity connected with the sea-fishing service, for a longer period than one day, unless he is bound by an Indenture of Apprenticeship or Agreement made in conformity with Part IV of the said Act.

And whereas by Section three hundred and ninety-five of the same Act it is (among other things) enacted that Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service and Agreements with boys under the age of sixteen years with respect to that service, shall be in such form and contain such covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates as are prescribed by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, and any directions given in the forms so prescribed shall be complied with.

And whereas the Board of Trade have recommended that the said Indentures of Apprenticeship and Agreements respectively shall be in forms set forth in the Schedule hereto, and it is expedient to prescribe the same accordingly.

And whereas the operation of this Order immediately upon the commencement of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," is urgent.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby order and prescribe that on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service and Agreements with boys under the age of sixteen years, with respect to that service, shall be in the respective forms set forth in the Schedule hereto, and shall contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein respectively mentioned.

APPRENTICESHIP INDENTURE.

SEA FISHING SERVICE.

THIS INDENTURE made the _____ day of _____ 18 _____ Between _____ aged _____ years, a native of _____ in the county of _____ hereinafter called the Apprentice of the one part, and _____ of _____ in the County of _____ Owner of not less than Eight Sixty-fourth Shares in (or Skipper of) the Fishing Boat _____ of _____ (hereinafter called the Master) of the other part. Witnesseth that the Master, (which term shall include the Executors Administrators and Assigns of the Master if consistent with the context) and the Apprentice hereby mutually covenant and agree to the terms conditions and stipulations set out in the body and upon the back of this Indenture:

(1) The Apprentice binds himself Apprentice to the Master for the term of years from the date hereof, subject to a Probationary period of _____ as herein-after more particularly mentioned.

(2) During such time the Apprentice will faithfully serve his Master and obey his lawful commands and keep his secrets and when requisite give to his Master true accounts of his goods and money which may in any way come into the hands of the Apprentice. The Apprentice will not during the said term do any damage to his Master nor will he consent to any such damage being done by others but will if possible prevent the same and give warning thereof, and will not embezzle waste or otherwise wrongfully deal with the goods of his Master nor frequent Taverns or Alehouses nor absent himself from his Master's service without leave.

(3) The Master will during the said term of Apprenticeship use all proper means to teach the Apprentice or cause him to be taught the business of a Seaman and Fisherman and will provide the Apprentice with sufficient meat drink lodging washing medicine and medical and surgical assistance, sea-bedding wearing apparel and necessaries.

(4) All wearing apparel provided by the Master for the use of the Apprentice shall during the said term remain the property of the Master, the Apprentice having full right to the use thereof at all times for his own sole use and wear but he shall not acquire any right or title thereto for the purpose of selling, pledging or otherwise disposing of such apparel, until the expiration of the apprenticeship when such apparel shall become the Apprentice's property.

(5) The Master shall not during the said term pay to the Apprentice any money for the purpose of enabling him to obtain board and lodging for himself, but the Master will provide the Apprentice with suitable and sufficient board and lodging to the satisfaction of the Superintendent. The Superintendent referred to throughout this Indenture shall mean the Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office who for the time being may have cognizance of the matter upon the application of either party, or upon his own initiative or otherwise howsoever.

(6) The Master will pay to or on account of the Apprentice the Remuneration specified on the back of this Indenture under the letter "A" at the times and in manner hereinafter or in such endorsement appearing.

All remuneration to which the Apprentice shall become entitled whether as spending money perquisites or share of salvage shall (except as next hereinafter provided) be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be forthwith paid by him into the Seamen's Savings Bank to the Account of the Apprentice. Provided that when the Apprentice is ashore the Master shall pay into his own hands the daily or weekly sums specified on the back hereof under the letter "B" and if such daily or weekly sum is more than the spending money hereby agreed to be paid, the Master shall be entitled to receive the difference from the Superintendent at such times as he may think proper out of the fund standing in the name of the Apprentice in the Seamen's Savings Bank. Provided that if the Superintendent shall be of opinion that on account of misconduct, or the state of the fund or for other sufficient reasons the Apprentice ought not to receive into his own hands any sums whatsoever or that the sum ought to be reduced and shall in writing so inform the Master, the payments to the Apprentice or such part thereof as the Superintendent shall specify shall thereupon be discontinued for such period as the Superintendent may determine and the spending money or the balance if any remaining after paying the reduced amount to the Apprentice shall be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be placed to the credit of the Account aforesaid. Subject to all necessary withdrawals by the Superintendent from the said Account in the Seamen's Savings Bank for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned and for the payment of any sum in the nature of a fine imposed upon the Apprentice by a Court of competent jurisdiction and for other special purposes which the Superintendent shall in his discretion think proper to allow, the amount standing to the credit of the said account shall there remain until the expiration or other sooner determination of the said term of apprenticeship, whereupon the balance standing to the credit of the said account after providing for all payments and deductions then proper to be made shall be paid or transferred to or to the credit of the Apprentice.

(7) The Apprentice shall not be required to serve in any Fishing Boat in which the Master is not during the continuance of such service himself serving as Skipper, Second Hand or Seaman or in which the Master if not so serving does not during the continuance of the Apprentice's service in such Fishing Boat possess an interest therein of at least Eight Sixty-fourth Shares. Provided that if in the opinion of the Superintendent it is desirable and the Apprentice consents it shall be lawful for such Apprentice to serve in some other Fishing Boat approved by the Superintendent for a period not exceeding two months.

(8) The Master will attend with the Apprentice before the Superintendent within twenty-eight days after the expiration of the Probationary period hereinbefore referred to or if they or either of them are or is at sea during that time then immediately on return to port. And if this Indenture is not then cancelled as hereinafter provided, the Master shall also attend with the Apprentice once at least in every half-year during the continuance of this Indenture before the Superintendent with a view to the investigation by him of questions affecting the remuneration or earnings and service of the Apprentice and will give a full true and faithful account and report of such remuneration or earnings and of the character conduct and efficiency of the Apprentice. And in the event of any change of abode or of any gross misconduct on the part of the Apprentice or of any serious accident happening to him the Master will forthwith as soon as practicable give notice thereof to the Superintendent.

(9) The Master will allow the Apprentice a reasonable holiday in each year during the continuance of the said term of apprenticeship to the satisfaction of the Superintendent for the purpose of visiting his relations or friends unless in the opinion of the Superintendent the Apprentice is not entitled to such holiday in any year by reason of misconduct.

(10) If during the Probationary period hereinbefore referred to or upon the first attendance of the Master and Apprentice before the Superintendent at the expiration thereof in pursuance of the covenant hereinbefore contained the Superintendent is of opinion in all the circumstances of the case that it will not be desirable in the interest of the Apprentice to allow this Indenture to remain in force, or

If at any time during the continuance of the said term of Apprenticeship the Superintendent is of opinion that the Master is or will be unable within a reasonable period to provide the Apprentice with such service as is intended and permitted under this Indenture,

The Superintendent shall in either event have power to cancel and determine this Indenture from such date and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such payments by way of compensation or adjustment of accounts between the Master and Apprentice as the Superintendent may deem to be just and proper in the circumstances of the case and he may thereupon certify the same on the back hereof under the letter "E." Upon such certificate being signed and notified to the Master and Apprentice it shall take effect according to the terms thereof and be binding upon the parties and any amount payable thereunder to the Apprentice shall be recoverable as wages due to him. And any amount payable thereunder to the Master may be paid to him out of the fund (if any) then standing in the name of the apprentice in the Seamen's Savings Bank.

(11) Breaches of agreement or discipline alleged to have been committed by the Apprentice during the Probationary period shall not be taken before any Court for adjudication unless and until the Superintendent shall have declined to inquire into or to adjudicate upon the same.

(12) For the performance of the covenants, conditions, terms and stipulations contained in the body and on the back of this Indenture the Master binds himself his heirs, executors, and administrators unto the Apprentice his executors and administrators in the penal sum of £ : Provided that notwithstanding the penal stipulations herein contained any Justice or Justices of the Peace may exercise such jurisdiction in respect of the Apprentice as he or they might have exercised if no such stipulations had been herein contained.

In Witness whereof the Master and Apprentice have executed this Indenture.

times diligent in his duties, and to be obedient to the lawful commands of his Master and of the Skipper and officers of the fishing boat on which he is serving in everything relating to his service and the fishing boat, and the stores and cargo thereof, whether on board, in boats, or on shore. And the Master agrees to pay to the Boy the wages and remuneration stated on the back of this Agreement, and to supply him when afloat with suitable and sufficient provisions to the satisfaction of a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office. And shall also whenever the Boy is on shore during the continuance of this Agreement, provide him with suitable and sufficient Board and Lodging to the satisfaction of a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office. And it is hereby agreed that any embezzlement, or wilful or negligent destruction of any part of said boat's cargo or stores shall be made good to the Owner out of the wages of the Boy. The regulations as to fines which are printed hereon are adopted as part of this Agreement. Every fine imposed shall be forthwith reported to a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office and shall be deducted from the wages of the Boy and paid by the Master to such Superintendent. And it is hereby further agreed that the Boy shall not be required to serve on any Boat in which the Master is not during the continuance of such service himself serving as Skipper, Second Hand, or Seaman, or in which the Master does not during the continuance of such service possess an interest of at least eight sixty-fourth shares. And it is agreed that the Boy shall receive from the Master the Wages and Remuneration aforesaid at the times stated on the back hereof, and that the Boy shall be entitled to participate in any sum or sums of money arising from any Salvage or Salvage Services performed or rendered by or by means of the Boat on which he is serving or the Crew thereof in such proportion as is stated on the back hereof.

And it is hereby further agreed that breaches of agreement or discipline alleged to have been committed by the Boy during the continuance of this Agreement shall not be taken before any Court for adjudication unless and until a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office shall have first had an opportunity of inquiring into the same, and have declined so to inquire, or shall upon inquiry determine to send the same for adjudication.

* This sentence may be struck out when so agreed if in the opinion of the Superintendent the circumstances are such that it is not necessary.

And it is further agreed that either the Boy or the Master shall be entitled to appeal to the said Superintendent to decide any dispute between them arising out of this Agreement or in relation to the Boy's service, and the said Superintendent's decision shall be final.

And it is hereby further agreed that †

† Here insert any stipulations not contrary to law to which the parties agree, and which the Superintendent approves.

And it is hereby further agreed that the Boy or the Master may, at any time during the continuance of this Agreement, give to the other days' notice to determine this Agreement, and the Agreement shall be determined upon the expiration of the notice, and the Boy shall be entitled to wages, remuneration, and other sums, if any, up to and including the date of the expiration of such notice, to be paid on the day of such expiration: Provided always, that such notice of determination shall not be capable of expiring whilst the Boy is at sea, or at a place other than the port to which the boat on which the Boy is serving belongs, or at which he was engaged.

And it is hereby further agreed that if, during the continuance of this Agreement, either of the parties hereto shall apply to the Superintendent to cancel the same, the Superintendent may, if after investigation he shall see sufficient grounds for so doing, cancel and determine the same, and the Agreement shall thereupon be cancelled and determined from the date and subject to the terms or conditions (if any) which may be endorsed thereon by the Superintendent. And any sum adjudged to be due to the Boy shall be recoverable by him or on his behalf as wages; provided that the Master shall be at liberty to set off or deduct therefrom any sum adjudged to be due to him.

In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands on the day and in the year above written.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the Parish Churchyard of St. Helen's, Auckland, in the county of Durham, until the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

In the Parish Churchyard of Barrow-upon-Soar, in the county of Leicester, until the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

Marstrand Fiord—Lights on Great Dyrö and Elgö.

THE Swedish Government has given notice, that on 1st December, 1894, the undermentioned lights, each dioptric, sixth order, and shown from a small iron lighthouse, painted white, would be exhibited from Great Dyrö and Elgö:—

a. Great Dyrö Light, on the south-west side of the island, is a flashing light, showing white from N. 62° E. to N. 75° E.; and red from N. 75° E. to N. 81° E.; it is elevated 42 feet above the sea, and in clear weather the white light is visible 7 miles and the red light 4 miles.

Approximate position on Plan No. 129, lat. 57° 55' 30" N., long. 11° 36' 45" E.

b. Elgö front leading Light, at the west end of the island, is a white flashing light, visible when in line with the rear light, or when bearing S. 85° E.; it is elevated 44 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 7 miles.

Approximate position on Plan No. 129, lat. 57° 55' 40" N., long. 11° 40' 30" E.

Elgö rear leading Light is fixed light, showing the following sectors:—white when in line with the front light, or bearing S. 85° E.; green from S. 30° W. to S. 41° W.; white from S. 41° W. to S. 45° W.; and red from S. 45° W. to S. 56° W. It is elevated 90 feet above the sea, and in clear weather the white light is visible 7 miles, the red 4 miles, and the green 2 miles.

The lighthouse is situated S. 85° E., distant 213 yards, from the front lighthouse.

The Elgö Lights in line, bearing S. 85° E., lead in the channel between Meholmarne and Stenskar.

These lights are exhibited annually from 1st August to 1st May, and not being constantly watched they cannot be implicitly relied on.

[Variation 11° Westerly in 1894.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Plan:—Hönö to the Paternosters, &c., No. 129. Also, List of Lights, Part II, 1894, page 93; and Norway Pilot, Part I, 1888, page 347.

No. 665.—BALTIC STATION.

BALTIC ENTRANCE—SKAGERRAK.

Hällö—Leading Lights Southward of Grafverna.

THE Swedish Government has given notice that, on 1st December, 1894, the undermentioned sixth order dioptric, leading lights, each shown from a small iron lighthouse, painted white, would be exhibited southward of Grafverna:—

Grafverna Front Light is a white flashing light, elevated 49 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 7 miles.

Approximate position on Plan No. 156, lat. 58° 21' 30" N., long. 11° 15' 10" E.

Grafverna Rear Light is a fixed white light, elevated 92 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 7 miles.

It is situated N. 35° E., distant 219 yards, from the front light.

The above lights in line, bearing N. 35° E., lead in the channel between Hällö and Stenskar; eastward of Hamnb, Alkraken and Nisseb; and westward of Doholmar.

The above lights are exhibited annually from 1st August to 1st May, and not being constantly watched cannot be implicitly relied on.

[Variation 11° Westerly in 1894.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Plan:—Måseskar to Hällö, No. 156. Also, List of Lights, Part II, 1894, page 98; and Norway Pilot, Part I, 1888, page 332.

Rangoon River—Spit Light-vessel Withdrawn.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 549 of 1894:—

The Government of India has given notice, dated 6th November, 1894, that Spit Light-vessel (fixed white light), entrance of Rangoon River, has been withdrawn, and will not be replaced until further notice.

Approximate position, lat. $16^{\circ} 26' 15''$ N., long. $96^{\circ} 21' 55''$ E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Irrawaddy River, Sheet I, No. 2135; Koronge Island to White Point, No. 823; Rangoon River and Approaches, No. 833. Also, List of Lights, Part V, 1894, No. 212a; and Bay of Bengal Pilot, 1892, page 325.

No. 671.—CHINA STATION.

KOREA—EAST COAST.

Fusan Harbour—Decreased Depth in Entrance.

INFORMATION has been received from the Commander-in-Chief on the China Station, dated 25th September, 1894, that the depths southward of Channel Rock, with the leading lights or beacons at Sinsorio in line, are only 4 fathoms or less, at low water; and the bottom is foul.

Also that there are depths of 26 to 30 feet at low water about three-quarters of a cable north-eastward of Channel Rock, and about one foot more water at a cable south-westward of that rock.

Approximate position, Channel Rock, latitude $35^{\circ} 6' 40''$ N., longitude $129^{\circ} 3' 55''$ E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Plan:—Fusan Harbour, No. 1259. Also, China Sea Directory, Vol. IV, 1894, page 130.

MEDITERRANEAN.—SPAIN—SOUTH COAST.

Almeria—Buoys Marking Extension of East Breakwater.

THE Spanish Government has given notice, dated 27th November, 1894, that buoys have been placed to mark the limits of the works for the extension of the eastern breakwater at Almeria.

The south-western buoy lies half a cable from the green light on the eastern breakwater, thus reducing the width of the channel between the two breakwaters to $1\frac{3}{10}$ cables.

The red light on the western breakwater is moved forward as the works there progress, and is never more than 22 yards from the extremity of that breakwater, to which vessels should give a berth of about 50 yards.

Approximate position, eastern breakwater light-house, lat. $36^{\circ} 49' 40''$ N., $2^{\circ} 28' 35''$ E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Gibraltar to Alicante, &c., No. 2717; Almeria Road, on Sheet No. 1588. Also, Mediterranean Pilot, Vol. I, 1894, pages 93, 94.

Shoal South-Eastward of Melataor Point.

THE Government of Batavia has given notice, dated 22nd October, 1894, of the existence of a shoal with a depth of 17 feet on it at low water, situated south-eastward of Melataor Point, or in approximately lat. $3^{\circ} 45' S.$, long. $113^{\circ} 51' E.$

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Eastern Archipelago, Sheet II, No. 9416. Also, Sailing Directions for Eastern Archipelago, Part II, 1893, page 295.

No. 675.—PACIFIC STATION.

BRITISH COLUMBIA—VANCOUVER ISLAND.

Nanaimo Harbour—Light on Buoy Southward of Gallows Point to be transferred to Beacon.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 15th November, 1894, that the fixed red light shown from the buoy moored about a cable S.S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. ($S. 25^{\circ} E.$) from Gallows Point, north side of entrance to Nanaimo Harbour, will be removed to a pile beacon, which it is proposed to erect in the vicinity of the black buoy, situated about S.S.E., distant 2 cables, from Gallows Point, and marking the south side of the channel.

Approximate position, Gallows Point, latitude $49^{\circ} 10' 25'' N.$, longitude $123^{\circ} 55' 30'' W.$

Further notice will be given when the alteration has been carried out, but until such notice is given it will be necessary to ascertain on which side of the channel the light is situated before entering Nanaimo Harbour at night.

[Variation 23° Easterly in 1894.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Nanaimo Harbour, &c., No. 2512; Nanaimo Harbour, No. 573. Also, List of Lights, Part VI, 1894, page 58; and British Columbia Pilot, 1888, page 145.
