THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of an Italian Quarantine Notice, of which the following is a translation:—

Home Office (Italy) 1895.
Order of Marine Health, N. 1.
The Minister of the Interior.

It having been officially reported that the conditions of public health in Portugal, Belgium, the Low Countries, and Germany are satisfactory:

In view of the Law of December 22, 1888, No. 5849 (Series 3), for the protection of hygiene and of public health

Decrees:—

The Quarantine Notice, No. 5, of the 22nd of April, 1894, is revoked so far as concerns vessels arriving from Portugal, and the later Notice, No. 10, of the 11th of August, 1894, respecting vessels arriving from the ports of Belgium and Holland, and the Baltic ports of Germany, is entirely revoked.

In consequence, vessels arriving from the said States will in future be permitted to enter the ports of Italy without interference.

The Prefects of the maritime provinces, the Harbour Masters, and other officials of the Kingdom are charged with the execution of the present Order.

Rome, to-day, January 4, 1895.

For the Minister,
L. PAGLIANI.
