NEWMARKET ELECTRIC LIGHTING ORDER, 1893.

THE Board of Trade hereby give notice that they have revoked the Newmarket Electric Lighting Order, 1893, as confirmed by the Electric Lighting Order Confirmation (No. 7) Act, 1893, as from the 28th day of March, 1895, and that the said revocation is to take effect from such date.

Dated this 4th day of April, 1895.

Courtenay Boyle, Secretary.

ORDER of the Local Government Board:
Cholera Regulations: Mooring Station for Ships outside District of Sanitary Authority:—

Port of Bridgewater.

Bridgewater Port Sanitary Authority.

To the Bridgewater Port Sanitary Authority;—

To the Officers of Customs of the Port of Bridgewater;—

To the Medical Officer of Health of the said
Port Sanitary Authority;—

To all Masters of Ships;—

To all Pilots;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS We, the Local Government Board, by an Order bearing date the 28th day of August, 1890 (hereinafter referred to as "the Regulations"), in exercise of the powers conferred upon Us by Section 130 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and by Section 2 of the Public Health Act, 1889, made certain rules and regulations with a view to the treatment of persons affected with Cholera, and for preventing the spread of that disease;

And whereas by a further Order dated the 6th day of September, 1892, We made additional Regulations for the prevention of the spread of Cholera, and by Article V thereof directed that such Order should be read as one with the Regulations;

And whereas by an Order dated the 21st day of June, 1894, which came into operation on the 1st day of August, 1894, We constituted permanently a Joint Board the Port Sanitary Authority for the part of the Port of Bridgewater therein described, such Joint Board to be termed "the Bridgewater Port Sanitary Authority";

And whereas it is provided by Article 6 of the Regulations that every Port Sanitary Authority and every other Sanitary Authority within whose District persons are likely to be landed from any ship coming foreign shall, as speedily as practicable, with the approval of the Chief Officer of Customs of the port, fix some place where the Master of any ship certified under the Regulations to be infected with Cholera shall, as required by Article 10 of the Regulations, moor or anchor her until the requirements of the Regulations have been duly fulfilled; and that the place to be fixed as aforesaid shall be some place within the jurisdiction or district of the Sanitary Authority, unless We, the Local Government Board, otherwise consent;

And whereas it is also provided by the said Article 6 that any place fixed as aforesaid, with Our consent, outside the jurisdiction or district of a Sanitary Authority, shall, for the purposes of the Regulations, be deemed to be within such jurisdiction or district;

And whereas the Bridgewater Port Sanitary Authority propose to fix the place hereinafter referred to, and shown by a circle drawn in red on the Map or Chart in the Schedule to this Order, as the place where any ship may be moored or anchored for the purpose of Article 10 of the Regulations, and such place being situate without their jurisdiction or district, have made application to Us for Our consent in the matter;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Us by the above-mentioned Sections, and of every other power enabling Us in this behalf, do hereby Declare, Order, and Direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—We consent to the Bridgewater Port Sanitary Authority fixing, with the approval of the Chief Officer of Customs of the Customs Port of Bridgewater the waters included within the circle drawn in red on the Map or Chart in the Schedule to this Order as the place where any ship bound to any place within the District of such Port Sanitary Authority, and certified under the Regulations to be infected with Cholera, shall be moored or anchored for the purpose of Article 10 of the Regulations.

ARTICLE II.—The jurisdiction of the said Port Sanitary Authority shall, for the purposes of the Regulations, be deemed to extend, and subject to the provisions of this Order, the Regulations shall apply, to any ship certified as aforesaid which, in pursuance of the Regulations or of any directions given thereunder, shall be moored at the place so fixed as a Mooring Station as hereinbefore mentioned, and to any such ship which shall be on its way thither for the purpose of being so moored.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

G. Shaw Lefevre, President.

S. B. Provis, Assistant-Secretary.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, April 3, 1895.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the prize money awarded for the slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 11th February, 1894, by Her Majesty's ship "Thrush."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the Admiralty Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

In Parliament.—Session 1895.

National Life Assurance Society and Mutual Life Assurance Society.

(Amalgamation of National Life Assurance Society and Mutual Life Assurance Society; Provisions as to Membership and Incorporation; Memorandum of Association; New Laws and Regulations; Definition of Objects and Business; Saving rights of existing Policy holders; Power to acquire by Purchase or Amalgamation Property and Business of other Assurance Societies or Companies; Repeal, Amendment or Application of Mutual Life Assurance Society's Act, 1893, and of existing Deeds of Settlement, Articles of Association or Regulations; and other powers and purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, by the National Life Assurance Society and the Mutual Life Assurance Society (hereinafter called "the Societies") for an Act for the following purposes, or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To amalgamate the Societies, or to empower them to amalgamate, on such terms and conditions, and subject to such provisions as may be prescribed in or authorised by the intended

Act; and to provide for the fulfilment and satisfaction by the Societies when amalgamated (hereinafter referred to as "the Society"), of all the contracts, obligations, debts and liabilities of the Societies, or either of them, and in particular, for securing the rights and interests of all existing policy holders of the Societies, or either of them.

2. To regulate the constitution of the Society and the conditions of membership, and, if thought expedient, to provide for the incorporation of the members of the Society by the intended Act or by registration under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890.

3. To define the objects of the Society, so as to embrace all descriptions of business ordinarily transacted by Life Assurance Companies, or known as Life Assurance business.

4. To vest in the Society all the property and assets of the Societies.

5. To empower the Society to acquire and take over by purchase or amalgamation the assets, liabilities and business, and to fulfil the contracts and engagements of any other Society or Company carrying on a business similar to that of the Society, and to provide that the members of any Society or Company so amalgamated shall become members of the Society.

6. To enable the Society to repeal or adopt, with or without amendments, all or any of the existing regulations of the National Life Assurance Society, or of the Mutual Life Assurance Society, and to make new regulations for the government of the Society and the management of its affairs, and from time to time to alter, amend or repeal all or some of such regulations, and to make further regulations.

7. To define and declare the liability of the members of the Society.

8. To repeal, amend or apply all or some of the provisions of the Mutual Life Assurance Society's Act, 1893, and to embody in the intended Act, with or without modifications, all or some of such provisions.

9. To enable the Society to carry on business outside the United Kingdom, and to acquire and hold lands and securities for the purposes of or in connection with such business.

10. To authorise the directors of the Society to form special reserve and other funds, and to set apart specific moneys and securities for specific or special contingencies or purposes.

11. To make provisions for the Society suing and being sued, and for the service of notices, writs and other legal process on the Society, and for making and verifying affidavits, answers and declarations on behalf of the Society, and for the appointment of attorneys for the recovery of foreign debts.

12. To make provision for saving the rights of the existing members and policy holders of the Societies.

13. To empower the directors of the Society to appoint and revoke the appointment in any place, whether within or without the United Kingdom, of local boards or committees, with such duties, powers and remuneration, and with such powers of appointment or removal of members of such local boards or committees as may be described by the intended Act, or as may be defined by the proposed regulations of the Society.

14. To provide (if thought desirable) for the appointment of trustees of the Society and for the enrolment in the Supreme Courts of England and Ireland, and in the books of Council and Session in Scotland, of memorials of the names and addresses of such trustees, and for the vesting in such trustees, of any part or parts of the securities and property of the Society, and for payment of stamp duty in respect thereof.

15. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of April, 1895.

Dated this 2nd day of April, 1895.

Swansea Harbour.

(Additional Provision).

NOTICE is hereby given that the Swansea Harbour Trustees (hereinafter called "the Trustees") intend to apply for leave to make additional provision in the Bill now pending in the House of Lords under the above name or short title, and to provide that the Trustees may in respect of all vessels entering or using, and in respect of all goods which are shipped or unshipped, received or delivered into, or from all vessels entering or using the Town Float (as defined in the said pending Bill), demand and take in addition to the rates authorised by the Swansea Harbour Act, 1854, the several dock rates which by the Swansea Harbour Act, 1874, the Trustees may demand and take in respect of the docks and works by that Act authorised. Provided always that the Trustees shall not demand or take in respect of any vessel entering or using, or goods shipped or unshipped into or from any vessel entering or using the Town Float Harbour and Dock, rates exceeding in the aggregate amount the aggregate amount of the harbour and dock rates that would be payable in respect of such vessel if entering or using the South Dock or Prince of Wales Dock, or in respect of such goods if shipped or unshipped into or from a vessel entering or using the South Dock or Prince of Wales Dock, and not entitled to exemption from dock rates.

ORDER ON APPLICATION TO APPROVE COMPOSITION OR SCHEME.

Debtor's Name.	Address.	Description.	Court.	No. of Matter.	Date of Order.	Nature of Scheme or Composition sanctioned or Order made.
Ahlfeldt, Frederick Carl	Balquhider, Sandown, Isle of Wight lately residing at Kingsgates, Dacres - road, Forest Hill, Kent	Gentleman	Newport and Ryde	7 of 1893	Mar. 11, 1895	That the Official Receiver shall be Trustee under the scheme of arrangement. That the Trustees of the post-nuptial Settlement, made by the bankrupt and dated the 23rd day of August, 1884, do pay to the Official Receiver immediately on the confirmation of this scheme by the Court an amount sufficient to satisfy the Order of Mr. Justice Kekewich, made on the 18th day of January last, in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in the action brought by the Trustees of the estate of the bankrupt against John Richard Furneaux and others. That the Official Receiver do pay thereout the costs and charges of all parties of and incidental to the bankruptcy, and of the said action, and also of this scheme, and that he do distribute the balance, together with any funds he may have in hand derived from realizations of the bankrupt's property among the creditors in like manner as they would have been entitled in bankruptcy. That on payment to the Official Receiver of the amount above referred to, the Official Receiver shall assign and hand over to the Trustees of the Settlement all the property and estate of the bankrupt which has not been realized at the date hereof, and should the funds in the Official Receiver's hands, after payment to him of the amount above referred to, be more than sufficient to pay the costs and charges above referred to, and the claims of the creditors in full, the Official Receiver shall pay the balance to the Trustees of the settlement. That the Order of Adjudication made against the bankrupt be annulled and the Receiving Order rescinded
