The London Gazette.

Oublined by Anchoney.

From Thursday May 14. to Bonday May 18. 1691.

Madrid, April 18. He Marquis de Leganez began his Journey this week for Alicant, from whence he will puls by Sea to Genoua, in order to take polletion of the Government of Milan. There are very preffing Orders fent to Cadiz, to haften out the Men of War that are fitting there. The new Great Matter of Males has appointed Don Alongs de Cafman to refide as his Ambaffador at this Court.

Milan, April 25. Our Governor-General the Count de Fuenfallds is returned from Alexandria, where he took a review of the Troops that are ordered to march to Piedmone. Don Gafpir Minnques de Lara, our new Maistre de Camp-General, puted from hence this week for Turin, to confer with the Duke of Savoy about the march of the Spanish Forces designed for his Royal Highness's Service, which he is to command this Campagne. Our Governor has fent 1000 Foot and 200 Horse to reinforce the Garifon of Final. The Marquis d' O-bigg, the Emperor's Envoy to the Princes of Italy, is arrived at Genoua, where he is to have his first publick Audience on the 27th of this month.

Venice, May 4. Several new raited Troops are arrived this week at the Lido; from whence they will be transported with the next Convoy to the Levant. The last Letters from Rome gave an account, that the Ecclefiastical Galleys are fitting out with great diligence for the affiftance of this State. In the Conclave, the Cardinals in the French Interests finding they cannot prevail for one of their own Faction, do all they can to embroil Thing, and to retard the Election of a Pope.

Lightne, May 1. The English and Dutch Squadron, confilling or 15 Men of War, commanded by Captain Aylmer, with the Turker and other Merchant Ships under their Convoy, fetsfail from Caglian in Sardinia on the 26th past for Cadiz. The Reserve, is gone for Tunes and Tripoli, and the Sinallow will fail from hence to morrow with the Merchant Ships that are here, in order to rejoyn the faid Convoy. Captain Arliner was a days before Argiers, where the new English Consul, Mr. Baker, was very kindly received by the Dey 'Fis said, that Governtient inclines to a Peace with the Dutch, and to break with the French.

Warfam, April 20. The Count de Thun, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, has frequent Conferences with the Ministers of this Crown about dispoing Matters for the approaching Campagne, which are in fuch forwardness, that we are affured the whole damy will be in the Field by the beginning of June; The King is still resolved to command it in Person; and tis the general opinion, He will march directly into Modavia to fecure that Province; and that if there be occasion, he will at the same time fend a tirong Detachement to joyn the Imperial Forces in Translatinis. The last advices from Moscowy confirm our former accounts of the little Success which the Turkith and French Miniflers, who were not long fice feet privately thisher to follicite . Peace between he M. dovites and the Tartars, have had in their rations that are miking by the Czurs for the profecution of the War, which the Partars feem fo fend fible of, that they are drawing their Forces that way for the defence of their Country.

Vienna, Mar 6. Great quantities of Provisions and Ammunition are brought daily hither from the Hereditary Countries, in order to be transported to Hungary for the tile of the Imperial Army. Prince Louis of Baden is expected here the Beginning of the next week, part of his Biggage being afready arrived. Count Gaids of St. ormberg is gone to command a flying Camp on the Draw; and the Duke de Croy is appointed to command the Forces that are drawing together in Croatia. The main Army is to Rendezvous towards the end of this month near Badr.

Berlin, May 8: On the 29th past was Celebrated here the Marriage between the Duke of Courland and the Princels Eizaberh of Brandenburg; with great Solemnity. On the first instant the Elector fet out for Grossen, where on the 3d he took a review of his Troops that are going for Hungary; They are one third Detachements out of the old Regiments, and filled up with new Levies, and together make a very compleat Body of 1034 Horse, 409 Dragoons, and 4809 Foot, in all 6252 Man; They are commanded by Lieute-nant-General Brifus and Major-General Brance, and were to march forward on the 4th, and to be delivered to the Emperor's Commissioner the Count de Shafenteh at Geanberg on the Prontiers of Steffa. Their Elexoral Highnoffes of Brandeneury are gone to Carelsharls in B. Somes.

Hamburgh, M.o. 13. The Forces of Saxons are on their march towards the Rhine, and his field, that the Elector will command them in Perfor this Summer. The Boke of Zell intends to return very fuddenly to Ennders.

Dublin, May 7: The Lords Justices of this Kingdom have put out a Proclamation, dated the 27th of the last month, which sets forth; That whereas the Army is now to draw into the Field, where it will be necessary, that Provisions be brought in from time to time for its Supply, and that in order thereunto, all due Encouragement be given to Sutiers and other Persons that shall repair thither for that purpose, They do Strill, Charge and Command all Officers Civil and Military, and Soldiers of Their Majesties Army, nos to molest or disturb any Suctor, or other Person, that Shall have a Warrant from the Colonel of any Regiment; or Leave from the Lords fuffices, or the Coinmander in Chief of Their Majetties Forces, 10 follow the Camp for this Service; That they do not prefine to take any thing from the faul Sutlers, or to use any Violence to themsupon pain of being proceeded of unit with the utmost Severity; And ad Choneis, and other Officers in Chief of the respective Regiments, and to take care, that the Officers and Sodies do profine all fuch Things as the faid Saclers that fare, the chem with; according to the Rates that Shall from time to time of fettled. And that the Forces may be more plantful. Negotiation at that Court, and of the great Piepa- I supplied, and they's urnesselfage Veryo's prevented from e the Queen at White lt: By Fdward Fowke, D; les. Published by Herse for Ric, Ch.fwell at the fe

y (qualified by Law: And Requiring all Peig m, at their Entry, mp. we a Rational Account

d whence they came, is d whence they care, to the next Council for of the Ann, to Apprehended and Impers

ippers to Transport is without Passes, and no
Oath or the fail Par
for any to guidher

fer any to go affore. who are gene to much Ships have pyec;

, which we uncentral

ieir Topfails loofe, mit with his Squadron in ning, and yetterday Co-uadron of Their Main

Coast of France, Sir days in Their Majesticistic

the Right Honort worn one of Thinks wil, and accordingly at ographia five Stirgen nd as yet unheard of tire the Indies; curioully E: the things themselve. urch-yard, N.Croschert minfter hall, H.Ckman

Europe, containing a e Interests, Premien e or the Month of April, 161 om the Original publisher States of Holland. Is in riven of the Siege of MON in Fleet-street, and J. Res are to be had the Felt Vi d ending the Decembers

Wynd or Order, with a ld Money: Which Navya the Liid Joseph Fells, Go

Commiffica of Backers of Oxford, Habedian Cings Arms in in Holym next, to prove Debt, E

a very convenient Holes ing Walled in, and flast Gardens, and Subling in the Cathodral, Calle, s. r. Harwood an Anomy near Charing cross Louis hange-Alley in Consi-tiom Lendon, is a very the Water sunning in a key of the Water sunning in k b. tween the Projugation and de large Barn, a Sunt and with all neutling with a sun neutling with a neutling with s; alfo 16 Dekers ef 12 good Penywork, the Lan Year.

he Year.

27th past, a black By a having a dark Fossist full that a Silver Ring in his shoever gives not make the len-Pall in Newgoodet Il Charge's borre.
from Greenwich in Kent
12 years old, very fe,ri

12 years out, very terral l before, a linie which: ver gives notice of his a Black Lion in Greenwik his Knees brand at his Paces, and fall and orn Mare, a light of and the first of the Knows and Trots all. When a control of the Knows and the k t the Two Cr 3 is sm s. R-uratid