

In Statute 4, Clause 22. For "ten" substitute "eight," and for "five" substitute "four."

In Statute 4, Clause 23. For "three" substitute "two."

In Statute 4, Clause 31. After "specially elect" omit the words "to a non-official Fellowship tenable for seven years." After "(a)" substitute for "Any" the words "To a non-official Fellowship tenable for seven years, any." After "(b)" substitute for "Any" the words "To a supernumerary Fellowship without any place in the Governing Body and tenable for such period, not exceeding seven years, as the Principal and Fellows shall, at the time of his election, determine, any." At the end of the paragraph after the words "by which he is elected" insert the words "Provided that he shall not receive as the emoluments of his Fellowship a sum exceeding one hundred pounds per annum, clear of income tax." Omit the whole of paragraph "(c)" from "The Head Master" to the end "sole government."

In Statute 4, Clause 36, paragraph (a) substitute "two" for "three." Paragraph (b) substitute "two" for "three" in both places. Paragraph (c) substitute "two" for "three."

In Statute 9. For Clause 7 as it now stands substitute the following: "Provided that the scheme made in one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four by the Charity Commissioners for the administration of the funds applicable to the intermediate and technical education of the inhabitants of the county of Glamorgan under the "Welsh Intermediate Education Act 1889," so far as that scheme relates to Cowbridge School, and provided that the substitute of "eight" for "ten" in Statute 4, Clauses 1 and 22 of these Statutes, shall have received the approbation of Her Majesty in Council, the Principal and Fellows if and so long as they shall have the right of being represented by a fourth part of the whole Governing Body of Cowbridge School, shall

(a) either elect the Headmaster of Cowbridge School to a Fellowship at Jesus College of the annual value of two hundred pounds, tenable so long only as he shall hold the office of Headmaster of Cowbridge School, or pay to the Glamorgan County Council the annual sum of two hundred pounds towards the salary of the said Headmaster, and

(b) pay annually for the general purposes of Cowbridge School the sum of two hundred pounds in addition to the fifty pounds at present payable under the provisions of Sir Leoline Jenkins' will and in addition to an annual sum of fifty pounds payable in commutation of the liability of Jesus College for the repairs and insurance of the existing buildings of Cowbridge School.

L. S.

Privy Council Office, May 11, 1895.

THE following Statute made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College, Cambridge, on the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

A STATUTE made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College, Cambridge, at a General

A 2

Meeting specially summoned for the purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, in substitution for Statute XII of the existing Statutes of the College. Dated 18 March 1895.

STATUTE XII.

Fellowships.

There shall be seven Fellowships on the Foundation of the College; four of these Fellowships shall be denominated Founder's Fellowships, and the remaining three shall be denominated respectively the Spendluffe, Wray, Drury and Millington Fellowships, in commemoration of the benefactions made to the College by Mr. Spendluffe, Sir Christopher Wray, the Reverend Drue Drury, and Doctor Millington.

So long as the interests of the Master are regulated by previously existing Statutes, the election to one Fellowship shall be suspended, and the income applied to such purposes as are considered by the Governing Body most advantageous to the College.

So long as the interests of the Master are regulated by previously existing Statutes, the Governing Body shall have power to suspend the election to one Fellowship in addition to the Fellowship next above mentioned, if they think fit, and to apply the income to such purposes as they consider most advantageous to the College, provided that the dividend of a Fellow whose interests are regulated by these Statutes shall be less than two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) a year.

After the expiration of the interests of the Master which are regulated by previously existing Statutes, the Governing Body shall have power to suspend the election to one Fellowship, if they think fit, and to apply the income to such purposes as they consider most advantageous to the College, so long as the dividend of a Fellow shall be less than two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) a year.

If at any time the income of the College is fallen so low, that the dividend of a Fellow on the average of the three preceding years has been less than one hundred and fifty pounds (£150) a year, the Governing Body shall have power to suspend the election to any vacant Fellowship, if they think fit, and to apply the income to such purposes as they consider most advantageous to the College, till such time as the dividend on the average of three consecutive years shall reach one hundred and sixty pounds (£160) a year; provided however that the Governing Body shall not be at liberty to keep vacant by virtue of the foregoing provision any greater number of Fellowships than one third of the total number of Fellowships on the Foundation of the College.

March eighteenth one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

L. S.

Privy Council Office, May 11, 1895.

THE following Statute made by the University of Oxford, on the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

University of Oxford.

Statute concerning Boards of Faculties enacted by Convocation March 12, 1895.

WHEREAS by a Statute made by the Commis-