FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1895.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, June 6, 1895.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 1st of July next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

CARRINGTON,
Lord Chamberlain.

Privy Council Office, June 21, 1895.

MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given that, after the expiration of forty days from the date hereof, it is proposed to submit to Her Majesty in Council, in pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, the draft of an Order in Council making certain new Rules concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels, to wit, Dredgers in the River Mersey or the Sea Channels leading thereto, when at work or in position for working.

And notice is hereby further given that, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, copies of the proposed draft Order in Council can be obtained by any public body, within forty days of the date of this notice, at the Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

TRADE MARKS IN THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Buenos Ayres:—

MY LORD, Buenos Aires, May 15, 1895.

WITH reference to a question recently addressed to Her Majesty's Government in the House of Commons by Mr. Hobhouse, on the subject of Trade Marks in this Country, I have the honour to inclose a statement drawn up by Mr. Gastrell, based on information which he had been able to procure for the compilation of his Annual Report, supplemented with particulars obtained later on, and which I trust will be of service in the direction requested.

I have, &c.,

F. PAKENHAM.

The Earl of Kimberley, K.G., &c., &c., &c.

MEMORANDUM ON ARGENTINE TRADE MARKS.

THE subject of Trade Marks in the Argentine Republic has only attracted much attention in the last few years, though as early as the year 1876 the first law was passed dealing with their registration. It is in the last few years, since 1890, that the registration of Trade Marks has developed so immensely, and this is no doubt due to the recognized importance of having a well-known
