Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, June 6, 1895.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 1st of July next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

CARRINGTON,

Lord Chamberlain.

QUARANTINE IN BRAZIL.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Rio de Janeiro:—

MY LORD,

Rio, June 1, 1895.

WITH reference to the proceedings of the recent Conference in this capital on the subject of the execution of the Quarantine Regulations in Brazil, I have the honour to state that a series of instructions addressed by the Minister of the Interior to the Inspector of Health of the Ports are published in the Jornal do Commercio of this morning.

In a notification dated the 15th of May the inspector's attention is especially called to questions arising out of Articles 44, 45, 50, and 52 of the Sanitary Regulations, it being declared that a statement of his opinions is awaited in view of those Articles being submitted to modification.

These refer to the definitions of suspected and infected ports, vessels, and goods; to the privileges to be accorded to certain vessels in consequence of compliance with certain regulations; to the possibility of quarantine being performed on board without disembarkation of passengers and to the means of facilitating trade at intermediate ports.

Positive instructions or notifications are issued as to the following points:—

1. For the facilitation of telegraphic communication with ships in quarantine at the various lazarettos and for reporting the movement of navigation at such stations to persons interested.

To the Minister of Public Works for the construction of a telegraphic cable devoted to the exclusive use of the lazaretto at Ilha Grande.

2. To ensure freedom of coaling and the taking in of provisions and water in quarantine, subject only to the necessary sanitary restrictions.

3. To prevent any delay in the landing of mails and official correspondence from all ships, whatever their sanitary condition.

4. To ensure the immediate landing of cattle from ships coming from the River Plate.

5. To order the establishment of a provisional quarantine station at Tamandaré near Pernambuco by the 1st of October next.

6. To ascertain from the Governor of Pará the expenditure necessary to establish a quarantine station in that State.

7. To ensure the immediate presentation of
