AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of July, 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and seven of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude situate at Milton-under-Wychwood in the parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood in the county of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood, together with the contiguous territory known as the extra-parochial liberty or ville of Bruern in the county and diocese aforesaid which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is with the said extra-parochial territory delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude situate at Milton-under-Wychwood as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Milton-under-Wychwood.’

“And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude situate at Milton-under-Wychwood as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

“The district chapelry of Saint Simon and Saint Jude Milton-under-Wychwood comprising:—

“I. All that part of the ancient ecclesiastical parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood, in the county of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with the limits of the township or civil parish of Milton-under-Wychwood and the limits of the hamlet or civil parish of Lyneham.

“II. And also the whole of the extra-parochial liberty or ville (now a civil parish) of Bruern in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in
