(3.) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that any sums in the name of an infant under the age of seven years are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, or that from any other circumstances it is expedient to pay such sums or any part thereof, the trustees may pay such deposits, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for sums so paid.

Withdrawals from Accounts of Lunatics.

5.—(1.) An application for the withdrawal of money deposited in the name of a person of unsound mind shall be made by the Committee of the Estate of such person.

Where a depositor is insane, and no Committee of his Estate has been appointed, the trustees may, when it is proved to their satisfaction that it is just and expedient so to do, pay the deposits standing in the name of the depositor, or any part thereof, to any person whom they shall judge proper to receive the same, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid.

TRANSFER OF DEPOSITS.

Transfer from One Account to Another.

6.—(1.) Any depositor may apply to the trustees for the transfer of deposit standing in his name into the name of any other person entitled to deposit in the Savings Bank.

(2.) The trustees shall be furnished with such evidence as they may require of the title of the depositor to the sums to which the application relates.

(3.)—(a.) Every such application shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall state the amount to be transferred, the full name and address of the person into whose name it is desired to transfer the deposits (hereinafter referred to as the transferee), and particulars of the account (if any) to which the deposits are to be transferred.

(b.) A separate record shall be kept of all such applications, each of which shall be approved and signed by a trustee or manager.

(4.) Upon receiving such application as aforesaid, and upon being satisfied as to the title of the applicant to transfer the deposits to which the application relates, the trustees shall transfer from the account of the applicant to the account of the transferee the sum specified in the application.

(5.) Such application shall be a good discharge to the trustees from the transferor for the sum specified therein.

(6.) If the transferee is not already a depositor—

(a.) He shall be required to make a like declaration to that made in relation to a first deposit, and a depositor's book shall be handed to him.

(b.) Where the transfer is made in the name of a friendly society or charitable society, any such declaration as last aforesaid shall (so far as the same is necessary in the case of a first deposit) be made by the person who would make the same in the case of a first deposit.

Transfer from Account of Deceased Depositor.

7.—(1.) Any person of the age of 16 years or upwards to whom any sum due to a depositor at the time of his decease might be paid under and in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, may, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, in lieu of withdrawing such sum, apply to the trustees in writing for the transfer of such sum into his own name, or the name of any other person specified in such application.

(2.) The provisions of these Regulations relating to the transfer of deposits shall apply to the transfer of sums from the account of a deceased depositor so far as the same are applicable.

(3.) A transfer under these Regulations shall be deemed to be a payment within the meaning of the provisions of these Regulations as to duty.

Limit in case of Transfer.

8.—(1.) For the purpose of calculating the limits of deposits in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, no transfer (other than a transfer from the account of a deceased depositor) shall be made which shall make the sum credited to the account of a depositor exceed the following limits, that is to say:—

(a.) In the case of a building society, the sum of £300 in the whole;

(b.) In the case of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society, £100 in year, or £300 (exclusive of interest) in the whole;

(c.) In the case of any other depositor, not entitled to deposit without limit as to amount, the sum of £50 in any Savings Bank year, or £200 in the whole.

(2.) When by reason of the transfer of any sum from the account of a deceased depositor the sum standing to the credit of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society exceeds £300, exclusive of interest, or the sum standing to the credit of any other depositor exceeds £200 in the whole, notice shall be given to the depositor of the amount of such excess, and no interest shall be allowed on such amount.

(3.) This Regulation shall not apply to friendly societies or to charitable societies when the approval of the National Debt Commissioners has been obtained to making of deposits without restriction as to amount.

8.—(a) The foregoing Regulations as to transfer of deposits shall apply to Government Stock standing in the name of any depositor or deceased depositor provided that—

(1.) No transfer of Government Stock (other than from the account of a deceased depositor) shall be made which shall make the amount of stock credited to any depositor to exceed £200 in any Savings Bank year, or £500 in the whole.

(2.) When, upon the transfer of any Government Stock from the account of a deceased depositor, the amount of stock standing to the credit of any depositor shall exceed £500, the amount transferred, or so much thereof as is in excess of £500 stock, shall be forthwith sold, and the proceeds paid to the depositor; unless such depositor requests that such amount be transferred to his own name in the books of the Bank of England.

Addition of Names to an Account.

9. Upon the application of any depositor the trustees may, if they deem it just or expedient so to do, add one or more names to an account already in a Savings Bank.

The addition of such names shall not be deemed to be the opening of a new account in the bank.

Every person whose name is so added to an account under this Regulation shall make the declaration required upon the making of a first deposit.

NOMINATIONS.

A Depositor may Nominate.

10. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations a depositor of the age of 16 years or upwards may nominate any person to receive any sum due to such depositor at his decease.

Requirements of a Nomination.

11.—(1.) Every such nomination shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall be signed by the depositor in the presence of a witness, and shall be sent by post or otherwise to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor.

(2.) The receipt of every such nomination shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Registration.

12. Every such nomination shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for the purpose.

Revocation.

13.—(1.) Any such nomination may be revoked by the depositor by writing under his hand signed in the presence of a witness.

(2.) Any such revocation shall be sent by post, or otherwise, to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor, and shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for that purpose in like manner as in the case of a nomination.

(3.) The receipt of every such revocation shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Scope of Nomination.

14.—(1.) A nomination may relate to the whole of the deposits standing in the name of a depositor, or to part only of such deposits.

(2.) Except where otherwise stated, a nomination shall be deemed to extend to all sums to which a depositor is entitled at the time of his decease in respect of Government Stock or a Savings Bank Annuity, but a depositor may in a nomination expressly exclude any of such sums from the operation of such nomination.

Division of Sums nominated.

15. A nomination may be in favour of one person or of several persons, and, in the latter case, may direct that specific sums shall be paid to one or more of the persons named in the nomination, or that the persons named in such nomination may take the deposits in specified shares, or may give directions to both effects.

Witness to Nomination disqualified from taking under it.

16. No person who witnesses the signature of a depositor to a nomination shall take any benefit under such nomination.

Operation of Nomination.

17.—(1.) Where the sums due by the trustees of a Savings Bank on the decease of a depositor do not exceed in the whole the sum of £100, the trustees shall, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, pay the persons named in any nomination made by such depositor, and in force at the time of his death, according to the directions of such nomination, and the receipt of any person so named shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid, notwithstanding such person has not attained the age of 21 years, if such person has attained the age of 16 years.

(2.) If upon the decease of a depositor the sums due to him or to his estate exceed £100, any nomination made by such depositor shall take effect, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, as regards any sum or sums to which the same relates, not exceeding £100, in like manner as if it were a will of the deceased depositor duly executed, but shall not take effect in any other manner, and a nomination shall not in such case be deemed void because the depositor was a minor at the time such nomination was made.

(3.) In any such case as last aforesaid, the trustees may, subject to the provisions of this Regulation, pay any sum or sums to which a nomination relates, not exceeding in the aggregate £100, according to the directions of such nomination, notwithstanding the production of probate of the will of a deceased depositor, or letters of administration to his estate.

Payment for the Benefit of a Nominee under 16.

18. Where any person nominated to receive any sum on the death of a depositor is an infant under the age of 16 years, and it is proved, to the satisfaction of the trustees that funds are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, the trustees may pay the sum mentioned in the nomination, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount so paid.

Nominations to be Entered on Transfer Certificates.

19. On any certificate granted to a depositor by the trustees for the purpose of transferring deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, or to the Post Office Savings Bank, a memorandum shall be made, specifying the date and other particulars of any nomination made in respect of such deposits.

Effect of Transfer on Nomination of Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank.

20.—(1.) When deposits are transferred from the Post Office Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, any nomination made with respect to such deposits while in the Post Office Savings Bank, shall (if such nomination is brought to the notice of the trustees) be deemed to hold good with respect to deposits in a Trustee Savings Bank.

(2.) The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the making of any such nomination, and that the same is at the date of transfer of full force and effect.

PAYMENT OF DEPOSITS OF DECEASED DEPOSITORS.

Proof of Death.

21.—The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the decease of a depositor.

Deposits under £100.

22.—(1.) Where the whole amount due by the trustees of a Savings Bank to a depositor at the time of his decease does not exceed £100, exclusive of interest, and probate of the will of such depositor, or letters of administration of his personal estate, is not or are not produced to the trustees within such time as they may think reasonable, if such depositor has made no nomination, and so far as any nomination does not extend, the trustees may, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, without requiring probate of the will or letters of administration, pay or distribute the amount so due as aforesaid to or among any of the persons hereinafter described or indicated, that is to say,—

- (1.) Any person who has paid the funeral expenses of the depositor;
- (2.) Creditors of the depositor;

(2.) The receipt of any of the persons mentioned in this Regulation shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sums paid, and any such receipt may be signed by any widow, widower, or next-of-kin, above the age of 16 years, notwithstanding that she or he has not attained the age of 21 years.

PROVISIONS AS TO DUTY.

Estate, Succession, and Legacy Duties.

23.—(1.) If the total property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, any sum which may under these Regulations be paid to a survivor in the account (not being a trustee), whose name has been added to the account at the request of such deceased depositor, or otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor shall, notwithstanding such payment, be for the purposes of Estate Duty treated as passing under the will or intestacy of the deceased depositor.

(2.) The trustees shall, before making any payment in respect of deposits standing to the credit of a deceased depositor (either alone or jointly with any other depositor (not being a trustee) whose name has been added to such account at the request of such deceased depositor), to any one but the legal personal representative of such deceased depositor, require a Declaration (in the form of Schedule hereunto annexed) by the claimant, or one of the claimants, or by the survivor, or survivors, in the account; that the total estate of the deceased depositor, including the amount of such deposits, does not after deduction of debts and funeral expenses exceed the value of £100.

(3.) In every such case as aforesaid, where the total estate of the deceased depositor, including such deposits, but after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceeds £100, the trustees shall, before making any payment to any survivor in the account, or to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require production of a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the payment of the Estate Duty, and of a duly stamped receipt for the Succession or Legacy Duty, payable in respect of such deposits, or of a certificate stating that no Succession or Legacy Duty, is payable.

The signals will be exhibited from notices sent by the Meteorological Office in London, and will be in all respects the same as those now exhibited in various ports and harbours, which are more particularly intended for vessels leaving those places.

The fact that a storm warning has been received at any place is made known by hoisting a canvas Cone, which has the appearance of a black triangle. At night three lanterns may be hoisted in place of the Cone, as shown in the diagrams.

Meaning of Signal.

The hoisting of such a signal is a sign that an atmospherical disturbance is in existence which will probably cause a gale, from the quarter indicated by the character of the signal displayed, either at, or within a distance of (say) 50 miles of the place where the signal is hoisted.

The signal is frequently kept shown after a gale is over; this is the case because one gale is often followed by another within a very brief interval, before there would be time to issue a fresh warning. But whenever there is reason to believe that the danger is over, notice is sent from the Meteorological Office to lower the signal.

Southerly Gale.

The Cone or lights point downwards indicates that gales, or strong winds, are probable from the Southward; that is, from S.E. round by South to N.W.

Northerly Gale.

The Cone or lights point upwards indicates that gales, or strong winds, are probable from the northward; that is, from N.W. round by North to S.E.

Westerly Gale.

Should it appear likely that a gale will begin from between West and N.W., and also that it is likely to veer towards North or N.E., the North Cone will be hoisted in preference to the South Cone.

Easterly Gale.

Should it appear likely that a gale will begin from between East and S.E., and also that it is likely to veer towards South or S.W., the South Cone will be hoisted in preference to the North Cone.
