THE following Draft Rule is published pursuant to the above Act. Copies may be obtained at the Board of Trade:—

General Rule made pursuant to section 127 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883.

Lunatics 271 A.

1. Where it appears to the Court that any debtor or creditor or other person who may be affected by any proceeding under the Act or Rules, is a lunatic not so found by inquisition (hereinafter called the lunatic), the Court may appoint such person as it may think fit to appear for, represent, or act for, and in the name of the lunatic, either generally, or in and for the purpose of any particular application or proceeding, or the exercise of any particular rights or powers which under the Acts and Rules the lunatic might have exercised if he had been of sound mind. The appointment may be made by the Court either on an application made as hereinafter mentioned, or, if the Court thinks fit so to do, without any previous application.

2. An application to the Court to make an appointment under this Rule may be made by any person who has been appointed by any Court having jurisdiction so to do, to manage the affairs or property of, or to represent the lunatic, or by any relative or friend of the lunatic who may appear to the Court to be a proper person to make the application, or by the Official Receiver.

3. The application may be made ex parte and without notice, but in any case in which the Court shall think it desirable, the Court may require such notice of the application as it shall think necessary to be given to the Official Receiver or Trustee (if any), or to the Petitioning Creditor, or to the person alleged to be a lunatic, or to any other person, and for that purpose may adjourn the hearing of the application.

4. Where the application is made by some person other than the Official Receiver, it shall be supported by an affidavit of a duly registered medical practitioner as to the physical and mental condition of the lunatic. Where the application is made by the Official Receiver, it may be supported by a report of the Official Receiver, the contents of which shall be received as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

5. When a person has been appointed under this Rule, any notice under the Act and Rules served on, or given to, such person, shall have the same effect as if the notice had been served on or given to the lunatic.

6. This Rule shall apply to every proceeding in bankruptcy pending on the date when the Rule comes into operation.

7. Rule 271 of the Bankruptcy Rules, 1886, is hereby annulled, and this Rule, which may be cited with the Bankruptcy Rules, 1886 and 1890, as Rule 271A, shall have effect in lieu of the said Rule as one of the said Rules.
