In case the Board shall at any time be of opinion that an increased number of pilots are required in the said district, and there shall not be a sufficient number of duly qualified apprentices to supply the deficiency the Board shall be at liberty to dispense with all or any part of the said apprenticeships or other requirements, and after examination to appoint any fit and proper person (having previously served five years as master or mate of a vessel) to act as a pilot without having served such term of apprenticeship or complied with such other requirements. 11. Any Master or Mate of a vessel who holds a Certificate under the Board to enable him to pilot his vessel within any portion of the district under the jurisdiction of the Board, shall for every time he may navigate his vessel within the waters of the district over which he is licensed, pay into the Newport Pilotage Fund a sum not exceeding five per cent. of the amount of pilotage which the vessel of which he is in charge would have paid had the services of a licensed pilot been engaged, and every such master or mate, shall within a month of the thirtieth June and thirty-first December in each year, make a return to the Clerk of the Board of such services rendered by him during the previous six months (but such payment shall not entitle any such master or mate to a participation in any of the benefits of the said fund), under a penalty of not exceeding five pounds for every breach thereof.

15. 16. Any Pilot who shall absent himself from duty, or who may go overland to take charge of any vessel, or who shall seek employment otherwise than in his own licensed boat, without the written consent of the Clerk of the Board, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

20. Any Pilot having charge of a vessel inward bound, except to a port for which he is not licensed, shall not be released from his duties or responsibilities until such vessel is securely moored in the dock, basin, or harbour of the port; but if in charge of a vessel bound to a port for which he is not licensed, he shall be released from his duties and responsibilities when such vessel is anchored in the nearest roadstead to the port to which she is bound, and if outward bound, to such a distance or stage for which he has been engaged. Any Pilot violating this rule shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds or the loss of his licence.

21. Each Pilot shall strictly conform to the directions of the harbour or dock master, or their deputies or assistants, touching the docking or undocking, mooring or unmooring, placing or removing, any vessel which such Pilot may have under his charge, so long as such vessel shall be within the limits of the authority of any such harbour or dock master, or their deputies or assistants. Any Pilot violating this rule shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

22. If any vessel, whilst in charge of a Pilot, does or receives damage, he shall immediately report such damage done or received to the Clerk of the Board, as per form adopted by the Board, under a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and such report shall be read to the Board at their next meeting. 23. The licences of the Pilots shall be renewed annually, or otherwise at the absolute discretion of the Board, in the first week in January, and a fee of one guinea shall be paid by each Pilot to the Board upon receiving his licence, and ten shillings and sixpence upon each renewal of it, and each Pilot shall pay to the Board a sum of two shillings and sixpence for registering his boat.

24. Each Pilot shall within twenty-four hours after his return from a cruise, report himself to the Clerk of the Board, and make a full and proper return, giving the number of his boat, the day of his last sailing for sea, the distance he proceeded, the date of his return, the name, flag, and captain's name of the vessel he may have taken in charge or brought to port, together with the port from which the vessel may have come, if in ballast or with cargo, with the name of agent, the draught of water of the vessel, and registered tonnage. Any Pilot violating this rule shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for the first offence, and the loss of his licence for any subsequent offence.

25. The Pilots are permitted to collect their own pilotage rates, or they may be collected by a person who may be appointed for the purpose by the Board; and every Pilot is required to make a monthly return to the Board of the pilotage earned by him, whether in piloting vessels to or from the port of Newport or elsewhere, the name and tonnage of the vessels piloted, where belonging, where from, and where bound, the cargo and the distance piloted; paying over at the same time a poundage of one shilling in the pound, or such other sum of not more than a shilling in the pound as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board, on the amount earned to the person appointed by the Board to receive it. The Pilot shall also state in such return all cases where vessels bound to or from Newport have been piloted over any and what portion of the district by a Pilot not licensed by the port. Any Pilot failing to make a proper return or making a false return shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds, and to the loss of his licence.

26. Any Master, Owner, or Agent of any vessel bound to sea, who may make application at the office of the Board for a pilot, shall give the ship's draught of water and registered tonnage, with such other information as may be required; and upon payment of the pilotage fees (if required by the Clerk of the Board), shall have a Pilot named and appointed to take charge of his vessel, preference in all cases to be given to the pilot who piloted the vessel inwards. Such application to be made during office hours, and at least twelve hours before the pilot shall be wanted. Any pilot attending after being ordered, and the captain declining to go to sea (except the weather be such as to prevent his going), shall receive the sum of ten shillings and sixpence for each attendance.

27. Should any Master, Owner, or Agent, apply for a Pilot to be sent to any place outside of the Newport Pilotage District, for the purpose of bringing a vessel to Newport such application must be made to the Pilotage Office, and a Pilot be sent according to the rotation of the printed Pilotage List. Should the Pilot first on turn be absent, then the Pilot next on turn shall be sent. The absent Pilot to lose his turn.

28. In case a vessel is brought by a Pilot up the River Usk for either of the Newport docks or for any of the river wharves and is by any misadventure (other than his own default) unable to enter the docks or lay at such wharves, if the pilot is required to take the vessel to an anchorage in deep water, or to lay her on any of the mud banks in or at the mouth of the river, he shall be entitled to the full distance pilotage performed for taking the vessel cut and bringing her back again, in addition to the inward pilotage; but if a Pilot should bring a vessel up for admission to either of the docks when the usual dock signal is hoisted by day or night in the usual manner for non-entrance into the docks, or if he should bring a vessel up to a wharf when there is not sufficient water to lay her thereat, and the vessel is thereby compelled to return to an anchorage or mooring place, the Pilot shall not be entitled to any pilotage for bringing the vessel up or for taking her back to her anchorage.

29. Each Pilot shall be furnished with and keep in his possession his licence together with a printed copy of (1) the present Rates, Bye-laws, and Regulations; (2) the Pilotage Provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and (3) Sections 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36 and 37, of the Bristol Channel Pilotage Act, 1861: and he shall produce the same to the Master of any vessel or other person employing him when required to do so under a penalty, in case of default of not exceeding five pounds.

30. Every Pilot shall strictly obey and observe all quarantine instructions and regulations; and all other regulations of a like nature, applicable either to the district or the port, which may from time to time be issued by any competent authority, under a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds for each offence.

31. All complaints of offences by Pilots against the Acts of Parliament or the foregoing Bye-laws shall be made in writing, signed by the party aggrieved, and delivered to the Clerk of the Board, or left at his office, as soon as practicable after the commission of the offence; and the Clerk shall procure the attendance of all such persons as the Board may desire to examine.

32. Every Pilot shall when required by the Clerk of the Board (by writing delivered or offered to such Pilot or left a reasonable time at his registered place of residence) attend the Board or any of their Committees, or their Clerk, to answer any charges brought against him for any breach of these Bye-laws, or in relation to any matter in connection with the Pilotage Service; and in default of such attendance every such Pilot shall for the first offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and for the second and every subsequent offence not exceeding five pounds.

33. If any Pilot shall be guilty of a breach of any of the foregoing Bye-laws for which breach no pecuniary penalty is hereinbefore provided, or shall be guilty of any misconduct in any matter relating to the Pilotage Service, for which misconduct no punishment is hereinbefore provided, he shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

34. All pecuniary penalties incurred by the breach of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be applied to the Superannuation Fund.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, made by Her Majesty in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the Merchant Ships of the United States of America the measurement whereof should after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, have been ascertained and denoted on the registers and other national papers of such ships, testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships, after making therefrom the same deductions, in respect of crew space and engine room, as would, if such ships were British, be made from their gross tonnage under the laws relating to British ships.

And whereas by another Order in Council, dated the nineteenth March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, made in exercise of the aforesaid powers Her Majesty was pleased to direct as follows:—

1. As regards sailing ships, that Merchant Sailing Ships of the United States of America, the measurement whereof after the fifth August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, has been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purpose in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of Registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards Steam Ships:—that Merchant ships belonging to the United States of America, which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room, the measurement whereof shall, after the said fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steamships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purpose in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships. Provided nevertheless that if the owner or master of any such American steamship desires the deduction for engine room in his ship to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the American rule, the engine room shall be measured, and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

And whereas by Section, eighty-four of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted that, whenever it appears to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, that the tonnage regulations of that Act have been adopted by any Foreign Country, and are in force there, Her Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that Country shall, without being remeasured in Her Majesty's dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their Certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that the tonnage regulations of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," have been adopted by the United States of America and such regulations are now in force there, having come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

And whereas there still are or may be ships belonging to the United States of America to which the hereinbefore recited Orders of the thirtieth July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and the nineteenth March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, may respectively apply, and it is expedient not to revoke the same, but to let the said recited Orders remain in force so long as there are any ships to which the same may so respectively apply.

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance and exercise of the powers hereinbefore mentioned, is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to direct that the Merchant ships of the United States of America the measurement whereof shall, after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such ships, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of Registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas by a certain deed of indenture bearing date on or about the eighteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of ‘The New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844, and 1856’ or some or one of them which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of Your Majesty's High Court of Judicature the Reverend John Rogers, the vicar of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Accrington has, with the concurrence of the patrons of such vicarage and of the Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, granted and conveyed to and for the minister of the district hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted and when the same district shall have become a new parish, then to and for the incumbent of such new parish and his successors, all those several pieces or parcels of land messuages and buildings situate at Accrington in the parish of Whalley in the said county of Lancaster and within the limits of the said new parish of Saint James Accrington as the same are more particularly set forth and described in the schedule and delineated and coloured red upon the plan annexed to the said deed of indenture and numbered one to thirteen inclusive subject to and with the benefit of certain leases producing ground rents of the total value of one hundred and fifty pounds three shillings and eight pence per annum.

“And whereas the said ground rents of one hundred and fifty pounds three shillings and eight pence per annum have been so secured as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned and described.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right

Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint James Accrington which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Mary Magdalen Milnshaw, Accrington.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the Reverend John Rogers Clerk in Holy Orders, as the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Accrington, and in and by his successors vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The district of Saint Mary Magdalen Milnshaw, Accrington, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James Accrington in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which is bounded upon part of the south by the new parish of Saint Peter Accrington in the said county and diocese upon the north-west by the parochial chapelry of Church in the same county and diocese upon the north by the parochial chapelry of Altham, in the said county and diocese upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Accrington in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the remaining part of the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Accrington from the new parish of Saint James Accrington aforesaid at the junction of Whalley-road with Marquis-street and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said street for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its termination on the north-eastern bank of the River Hyndburn (formerly called Accrington Brook) and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct straight line to a point at the middle of the said river and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said river for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to a point where it is crossed by the road called or known as Bull Bridge, and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Moreton-street and with Hyndburn-road and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to a point at the junction of the same road with Steiner-street upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Accrington from the new parish of Saint Peter Accrington aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the first hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the new parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.
