Whitehall, February 4, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the County Council of Middlesex, desire to offer to Your Majesty and to Her Royal Highness the Princess Henry of Battenberg—Princess Beatrice of Great Britain—the expression of our sincere and respectful sympathy upon the death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg while on active service with the troops of the land of his adoption.

We trust that Your Majesty may find some consolation in the fact that Your Majesty's joys and sorrows are participated in by all Your Majesty's subjects in all parts of the world.

Dated this 23rd day of January, 1896.

R. M. Littler, Chairman of the County Council.

Richd. Nicholson, Clerk of the County Council.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, humbly tender to Your Majesty our most respectful sympathy and condolence in the great bereavement that Your Majesty has sustained by the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg.

We trust that Almighty God will comfort and support Your Majesty in this great trial.

Given under our Common Seal at a Special Meeting of the Council, this 23rd day of January, 1896.

Bernard Westlake, Mayor.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

*Most Gracious Sovereign,
May it please Your Majesty,*

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of this most loyal and ancient borough respectfully desire both on account of ourselves, as well as the other inhabitants of this town, desire to express to Your Gracious Majesty our sincere sorrow and deep regret at the great loss that You have recently sustained by the death of Your highly-esteemed and respected Son-in-law, His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, Governor of our Island.

We, who from his frequent presence here amongst us, knew him so well and esteemed him so highly, feel heavily his loss, and can sympathize with You most deeply, at the sad and sudden calamity which has befallen Your Majesty, the Nation, and our Borough.

And as loyal subjects, we humbly pray that You may be given the strength to bear the heavy burden of sorrow which has now fallen upon You.

We remain, with profound veneration,
Your Majesty's faithful subjects and dutiful servants,

Francis Templeman Mew, Mayor of the Borough of Newport.

H. R. Hooper, Town Clerk.
