To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight of all classes, in public meeting assembled, humbly beg to be allowed to approach Your Majesty on the sad occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., Governor and Captain of the Isle of Wight. Honoured as we are by the residence of Your Majesty amongst us, closely connected as we have been with His Royal Highness our Honoured Governor, associated with him in many of our most useful Island undertakings, cheered by his presence, and encouraged by his countenance and support, we respectfully claim the privilege of offering to Your Majesty our deep sympathy on his loss. We sympathize with Your Majesty, not only in the grief of losing a devoted son-in-law, not only in the pain of witnessing and sharing the distress of a widowed daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Beatrice, and of her children, but also in the sorrow which must attend the disappointed hope of future happiness for others, and the revival of sad memories of the past. And while we venture to assure Your Majesty of our loyal devotion, we pray for the long continuance of health and strength for Your Majesty in Your Majesty's exalted and most arduous position.

Dated this 1st day of February, 1896.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 8th day of February, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, Her Majesty, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, was pleased to direct that on and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the Regulations contained in the Schedule thereto should, so far as regards British Ships and Boats, be substituted for the Regulations contained in the First Schedule to an Order in Council made as aforesaid, and dated the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

And whereas by two Orders in Council made in pursuance of the said Act, and on such joint recommendation as aforesaid, and dated respectively the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certain modifications and additions were made to the said Regulations contained in the Schedule to the said recited Order in Council, of the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, as regards British fishing vessels and boats.

And whereas by another Order in Council made in pursuance of the said Act, and on such joint recommendation as aforesaid, and dated the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, certain modifications and additions were made to the said Regulations contained in the Schedule to the said recited Order in Council of the eleventh August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, as regards Steam Pilot Vessels.

And whereas by the said Regulations contained in the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, it is, amongst other things, provided as follows:—

Art. 3.—A seagoing steamship when under way shall carry—

- (a.) On or in front of the foremast, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the ship exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the ship, viz., from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles.
- (b.) On the starboard side, a green light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.
- (c.) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.
- (d.) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

And whereas by another Order in Council, made in pursuance of the said Act and on such joint recommendation as aforesaid, and dated the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three the said regulations contained in the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, were further modified by the addition to the said recited Article 3 of the provisions contained in the Schedule to the said Order in Council now in recital and set out in the Schedule hereto.

And whereas the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have jointly recommended to Her Majesty that the said recited Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, should be rescinded to the intent that the modifications and additions made to the said recited Article 3, and set out in the Schedule hereto, should no longer continue in operation.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, by a Provisional Order within the meaning of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," to rescind the said Order in Council of the thirtieth January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to rescind the said recited Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and to direct that from the date of this Order the provisions contained in the Schedule to the last-mentioned Order and to this Order shall cease to be in operation, and the said recited Article 3 of the said Regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, shall have effect as if the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, had never been made.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

(e.) To ensure that the red and green side lights shall show an uniform light from right ahead of the ship to two points abaft the beam on the port and starboard sides respectively and shall not show across the bow of the ship itself, the said lights must be fixed and the screens fitted so that the rays from the red and green lights shall cross the line of the ship's keel projected ahead of the ship at a reasonable distance ahead of the ship.

With regard to all vessels whose lights are inspected by the officers of the Board of Trade the red or green side light will not be deemed to be fixed and fitted in accordance with the Regulations unless it is so fixed and screened that a line drawn from the outside edge of the wick to the foremost end of the inboard screen of such light shall make an angle of four degrees or as near thereto as may be practicable with a line drawn parallel with the keel of the ship from the outside edge of the wick.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 8th day of February, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, from time to time increase, vary, or reduce light dues payable in respect of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon for the time being under the management of a General Lighthouse Authority, that is to say, the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Commissioners of Irish Lights, provided that the light dues payable in respect of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon which was existing on the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, should not be made to exceed the amount which at any period previous to that date was received in respect thereof or to which they might have been raised during any part of that period.

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (which came into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two), Her Majesty was pleased to approve certain revised and amended New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, both the over-sea section with home trade, Elbe to Brest inclusive, as well as the coasting section, levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities, respectively, in the form thereunto appended, together with the several additions, reductions, variations, abatements, regulations and exemptions therein contained.

And whereas the North Sea and Baltic Canal has been recently opened for maritime traffic.

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the payment of light dues in respect of vessels proceeding from ports in the United Kingdom through the said canal or to ports therein or coming through the said canal or from ports therein to ports in the United Kingdom.

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the recited Act and of every other power enabling Her in that behalf, doth by this Order in Council direct, order and declare as follows:—

That on and after the date of this Order there shall be paid in respect of all vessels, whether British or Foreign, proceeding from ports in the United Kingdom through the North Sea and Baltic Canal or to ports therein or coming through the said canal or from ports therein to ports in the United Kingdom the light dues or duties payable under the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties as for vessels proceeding from or to ports in the United Kingdom to or from ports in the Eyder.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 8th day of February, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity Taliaris situate within the limits of the parish of Llandilo Fawr in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint Davids.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Llandilo Fawr, of the parish of Llandyfeisant in the said county and diocese, and of the parish of Llansadwrn in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Llandilo Fawr, of the said parish of Llandyfeisant and of the said parish of Llansadwrn should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity Taliaris situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said parish of Llandilo Fawr with the consent of the Right Honourable Arthur de Cardonnel, Baron Dynevor as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Llandyfeisant, and with the consent of Emily Florence Thursby-Pelham of Abermarlais Park, Llangadock, South Wales, wife of Major P. Thursby-Pelham as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Llansadwrn (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Llandilo Fawr, of the said parish of Llandyfeisant and of the said parish of Llansadwrn which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, Taliaris situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Taliaris.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Taliaris, comprising:—I. All that portion of the parish of Llandilo Fawr in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint Davids which is bounded upon the north-west for the most part by the hereinafter mentioned detached portion of the parish of Llandyfeisant upon the north by the parish of Talley, upon the north-east by the hereinafter described portion of the parish of Llansadwrn all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east upon the south-west and upon the remaining part of the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llansadwrn from the parish of Llandilo Fawr aforesaid at a point distant thirty-five yards or thereabouts eastward of the house called Cefnglasfryn in the middle of the Roman road anciently called Via Julia which leads from Abermarlais Park to New Inn, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said Roman road for a distance of three miles and thirty-seven chains or thereabouts to its junction near New Inn as aforesaid with the road leading from Llandilo to Talley and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads through Heol-galed to Abergorlech and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of two miles and sixty-four chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert distant thirty yards or thereabouts northward of the house called Llwyn-y-celyn which carries such road over the stream called Nant-Llwŷd and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such stream for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundaries of the said parish of Llandilo Fawr, of the detached portion of the parish of Llandyfeisant aforesaid and of the parish of Talley aforesaid all meet.

"II.
