*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 10, 1896.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 5th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 14, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Council of the Royal Colonial Institute desire to record the profound sorrow with which they received the mournful intelligence of the sad and much-to-be-lamented death of Colonel His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg, K.G., &c., from illness contracted whilst on active service with the troops of Your Majesty in West Africa.

The Council, for themselves and on behalf of the Fellows of the Institute, most humbly and respectfully tender to Your Most Gracious Majesty and to Her Royal Highness Princess Beatrice the assurance of their most heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolence on the occasion of the deep affliction which has befallen the Royal Family.

The expressions of sorrow and sympathy which this melancholy event has evoked from the subjects of Your Majesty in all parts of the world afford renewed testimony of devotion and loyalty to their beloved Sovereign and to the Members of Her Family.

Given under the Common Seal of the Royal Colonial Institute, this 28th day of January, 1896, in the presence of

G. Vaughan Morgan,
Chairman of the day.
Henry J. Jourdain.
Frederick Young, V.P.
