

Justices have been Kiddler, Dean of Bath and Wells;
of Bristol.
and Chapter of Ex-
e of Their Maje-
Bishop of Chichester.
Dean and Chapter
unanimous Consent
Bishop of that See.
sionously pleased to these Elections.

yle Bow on Whit-
of the Most Reverend Archbishop, and Prime to the Archbishop of College in Cambridge,
and Crown in St. Paul's

S, BRANDY, and
to the English Con-
the late Act of Parli-
s of Fermentation and growths and Products
raging a Brandy-Mania
that desire to improve
ish Growth. Printed
mple near Temple-Bar

ange (above Strains)
ant, will be expedit
oo Paintings, most of
ope, some fit for Hall,
noon, and to continue
e any good Pictures to time before Thursday
the same. By Post.

ainst the Statue at
ant, at 3 after Noon,
n of Original Paintings,
some fit for Closets,
fold: By Mr. Wright
ore the sale at Mr. New-mple Church, and at the valuable Books, con-

Divinity, Philosophy, Greek and Latin, in all tion on Monday the Newcastle upon Tyne.
above-mentioned, and
ham. And at the old
Parcel or Library of

Loveless's Grounds
coloured Stone Cottage down his Face, and vice secures him, and gives yhound in Smithfield.

behaviour against Gun-
ay the 15th, and the ed to Sale several Iron ambler, and other Tools, which may be seen ready
s of Drawers, Tables,
Japan, and other Work,
old Goods: The Sale is

ggs of the Bull Inn
y Gelding, black
than grey, a bay roan
with Hair off about the tane half Corn, a little all his Teeth. Who gs afore said, shall have

Fedger in Middlesex,
high, having a Star,
er gives notice of his
is in the Hay-market

Smith 25/7

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 15. to Thursday June 18. 1691.

Rome, June 2.

THE Conclave has now lasted almost four months, and yet we see no likelihood of its ending, the Cardinals being as much divided as ever, and the several Factions pursuing their different Aims with great Earnestness; tho' it's believed for the Zealots, finding they cannot overcome the Difficulties they meet with as to Barberigo's Promotion, have laid aside the Thoughts of him; but that before they assure themselves for any Body else, they will endeavour to gain some more Voices to their Party, which is already very considerable; they pretending to have no other design than to chuse a fit Person to govern the Church in this great Conjunction.

Genoa, June 2. There are come into this Port 20 French Gallies, who are bound for Leghorn to joyn the French Men of War that lie now in that Road, under the Command of the Count d'Estree.

Leghorn, June 4. The Reserve Frigate, Captain Ten-Crawly Commander, is arrived here, with two English Merchant-men under his Convoy, from Tunis and Tripoli, having confirmed the Peace between Their Majesties of Great Britain and those Governments; and burnt three French Ships in the Bay of Tunis, with the Consent of the Basha. The French had sent out 4 Men of War, under Monsieur Gakker, to look after this Frigate, but they did not meet with her, and she came in here with a stiff Gale, though the Count d'Estree lay at the same time in this Road with 5 French Men of War and 2 Frigates.

Tunis, June 8. By several Vessels come from the Levant we have advice, that the Captain-General, having visited Patrasso, Preveza, Lepanto, and Santa Maria, was gone to do the like at Navarin, and the other places in the Merca, after which he intended to repair to Napoli di Romania. We hear from Malta, that the Gallies of that Order set sail about the middle of the last month, with a considerable number of Land Forces to joyn our Fleet in the Levant.

Vienna, June 10. Prince Louis's Baggage and Equipage is arrived here from Bohemia, and will be forthwith sent for Hungary, whither he himself will follow in 8 or 10 days; most of the other Generals and Commanders are already departed: Count Souches is gone to Hungary, and General Palf towards Piedmont; General Durnwalde and the Duke de Croÿ are still here, waiting the Emperor's return from the Review of the Brandenburg Troops, which was on the 8th instant at Golling on the River Morava. The Turks do not yet begin to move on the Frontiers, only some small Parties were appeared near Peter-Waradin. We have an account from Buda, that the Sieur Kersersfeldt, the Emperor's chief Engineer, had made a Tryal before the Governor and chief Officers of that Garrison, on his new invented Engine, to raise Water and other Weights, which succeeded to great Admiration; one of them, drawn by one Ox, and managed by 4 men, being able to raise in a day, into the upper Town, Water sufficient for 30000 men. From Effack we have Letters of the 27th of May, which tell us, that the Regiments of Sam, Beck, Nigrelli, and several others, were already drawn together there; that those of Rabutin, Sarau, and Hefnerken, were expected in few days, and that the Raisians encamped apart in a considerable Body, and were so numerous, that not having Ensigns enough of their own, they were forced to make use of those they had lately taken from the Turks, only placing a Cross in the middle of them.

Frankfurt, June 17. The Elector of Saxony arrived the 15th at Haulbron, and on the 20th of this month all his Troops will have passed the Neckar, and have joined the Confederate Army, which lies encamped at Wisselock. The French continue to destroy the Country about Mentz.

Cologne, June 19. The Landgrave of Hesse passed through this place on the 15th instant, going to joyn the Confederate Army in Flanders. The Letters from Leige, of the 16th, tell us, that the Marquis de Boufflers was marched towards the Duke of Luxemburg's Camp; but those from the Aiselle say, that he was come to Florenville in the Country of Luxemburg, having sent only a Detachment to joyn the French Army in Flanders. They write from Mentz, that the Troops in Garison there have had several Skirmishes with the French, who continue to ravage the Country about that place. And from Heydelbergh we have an account, that the Saxons had passed the Aisne at Wertheim, and that by the 20th of this month they would be at Haulbron, where their Elector arrived on the 15th.

Paris, June 19. The Letters from Brest, of the 8th instant, say, that there were still about 25 Men of War in that Port, but that Monsieur Tourville would embark the next day, and set sail with the first fair Wind, to joyn those which lie, to the number of about 44, at Belle-Ile. They write from Piguerol, that Monsieur Catinaut, being come before Carmagnole, the Trenches were opened the 7th at night, and that the 9th in the Evening, the Garison surrendered, and was permitted to retire to Turin. We hear from Flanders, that the Duke of Luxemburg was still encamped at Brain le Comte, and that the Sieur de Rubantell had joyned him with 10000 men detached from the Body commanded by the Marquis de Boufflers. The Advices from Languedoc, and the Neighbouring Provinces, do all speak of the great Miseries the People suffer in those parts, occasioned by their extreme Poverty, and the great want of Corn, inasmuch that many Families have perished through hunger.

From His Majesties Camp at Dun in Beauvichin, June 21. Yesterday morning the Army decamped from Beikham-Abbey, and marched to Pouch, about half a mile on the other side of Louvain, and this day we marched about 2 Leagues farther to this place, where we shall rest to-morrow, and the next day march to Wavre. We have as fine an Army as can be seen, consisting of near 60000 men, besides which we expect the Troops of Luxemburg, Hesse, &c. and in all probability we shall not be long without entering upon Action. The Duke of Luxemburg continues still at Brain le Comte, but we hear he has caused a Camp to be marked out at Cambron. While we were encamped at Beikham, Father St. Iphigen, an Irishman, and Rector of the University of Louvain, with several Members of that University, waited on the King and in a Latin Speech complimented His Majesty upon His coming into these Parts, and undertaking this Expedition for the common good of Christendom; And the Magistrates of that City made the same Compliment to His Majesty; which they accompanied with a handsome Present of Wine.

Hague, June 22. We have an account from Flandres, that the King encamped yesterday at Bruxelles, about 2 Leagues from Louvain; and 'tis said His Majesty designs to march towards the Country of Namur, to join the Forces of Luxembourg and Hesse. Brigadier Fagel remains with 6 Regiments at Bouffels. The Letters from Germany give an Account, that the Elector of Saxony was arrived at Hallert; and that 10000 Imperialists, and 6000 Bavarians, designed for Savoy, have already begun their march towards the Country of the Grisons, through which they are to pass; that the Generals Puff and Frederick are gone before, and the Elector of Bavaria will quickly follow. The Letters from Hamburg say, that the Forces of Zell and Wolfenbuttel are on their march towards Brabant. We hear from Leige, that the Bishop has banished for ever, out of the Territories of Leige, the Sieur Rot de Liber, and three other of the Canons of that Church, for leading Correspondence with the French. An Envoy from the Emperor of Morocco had, on the 15th, publick Audience of the States-General.

Edinburg, June 11. The Letters from Inverness tell us, that they hear of no stirring among the Highlanders, who are without hopes of receiving any assistance from abroad; and that divers of them come in daily, and take the Oaths of Fidelity to their Majesties. All is likewise very quiet in the West and South parts of this Kingdom. Yesterday the Privy Council caused a Proclamation to be published discharging the Rendezvous of the Militia of this Kingdom, appointed by their former Proclamation of the 29th of May, for that the condition of Affairs do not require their meeting now; and withal Commanding the Officers and Leaders of them to take care that they be well provided with Horses and Arms, and in a readiness to march whenever they shall have a new Summons. Sir Thomas Livingston is going to form a Camp of our standing Forces near this City.

From the Camp near Ballymore, June 9. On the 6th instant Lieutenant-General Grickell, Commander in Chief of Their Majesties Forces in this Kingdom, decamped from Mullingar, and was joyned the same day by Lieutenant-General Douglas with the Troops from the North. On the 7th we came before Ballymore; the Marquis de Rucigny being first before with a strong Detachment of Horse and Dragons to posses himself of a Pass between that Place and Athlone; as soon as our advanced Party appeared upon the Hills that look into the Fort, the Enemy began to fire with two small Field-pieces they had there, but without doing us any harm. In the meantime a Detachment of Foot was sent to posses themselves of the Enemies Out-Posts, which they immediately quitted upon the approach of our men, and ran as fast as they could into Ballymore, only a Sergeant and 12 men continued firing out of a round Tower some time after, and kill'd two of our men; but being taken, the Sergeant was hanged upon a high Hill in sight of the Enemy, for firing upon our men after the Communication was cut off between him and the place. That Afternoon we brought 4 Field-pieces to the front of the Fort, and the night following raised 5 Batteries, which began to play on the 8th very early in the morning. About 8 a Clock the General sent a Message to the Governor, That if he and the Garrison would surrender within two hours, he would give their Lives, and make them Prisoners of War; if not, they were to expect no Quarter. To which the Governor made a shunning sort of Reply, in hopes of getting better Terms; but our Cannon and Bombs having made two Breaches, and four Boats, that were brought by Land from McLurg, being put into the Water, and all things being ready for an Assault, it was ordered to give a Continuation amongst the Enemy, that of throwing out several White Flags; and about 7 in the Evening when they left off firing on both sides, the Governor, General Frederick Lewis, and several Officers, came out, and submitted at Discretion, and Colonel Earle, who commanded the Approach that day, marched in with 200 men, and took Possession of the Place; the Garrison, to the number of 500 men, besides four dead Officers, 16 Captains, 12 Lieutenants, 12 Ensigns and Cornets, &c. and 250 Rapperies, who were all very well Armed, laying down their Arms, and being made Prisoners in the most part of the Fort: Besides the Garrison, there were above 1000 Women and Children, with a great many Cows and Sheep, and some Horses: They had but a little of Powder. We left in this Occupation only 8 men, and killed of the Enemy about 150. The Situation of the place is extremely strong, being environ'd almost with a Lake and Bog, which was impassable, and the only place where it could be attack'd by Land, being secured by two g of Batteries and a Pinch, and without that by two other Batteries and a Palladoed Counter-carp; but on the other side 'tis altogether unfortified.

Dublin, June 10. On the 8th instant in the Evening Ballymore was surrendered at Discretion. And it's believed the Army marches this day or to-morrow to Athlone, which is but 10 Miles from Ballymore. The Prince of Wittens joins them on their march. All the Advices we have from the Enemies Quarters say, the late Success from France were nothing near so considerable as was at first reported; they brought only 6000 Arms, and about 10000 upper Garb, but neither Hats, Shoes, nor Stockings, of which kind the Irish Soldiers are in an extreme want.

Weymouth, June 15. Several Vessels are come in here, which left our Fleet last night to the Southward of the Isle of Wight, and we hourly expect them in sight of this place.

Portsmouth, June 16. On Sunday morning the Fleet, under the command of Admiral Ruffell, parted by to the Westward; and yesterday morning they were seen to sail to the South-Westward of the Isle of Wight, having but a bare Wind, and little of it.

Advertisements.

 A Map or Draught of Athlone and the Grounds thereabouts: By Captain Thomas Philips Second Engineer of England; is now published. Printed by Edw. Jones in the Savoy; and sold by him, Robert Marden at the Atlas in Cornhill, Philip Lea in Westminster-hall, and most Book-sellers of London and Westminster.

 An Exact Description of Ireland: Chorographically Surveying all its Provinces and Counties after a more accurate, Plain, Bate, and particular manner than any before done in this kind. Shewing the exact State of that Kingdom, and the Principal Things that are necessary to be known. And relating thereto. With a Geographical Dictionary for Ireland. Very Useful for the right Understanding the present Affairs of the Kingdom. By Laurence Enchard of Christ-Collage in Cambridge. Printed for Tho. Salusbury at the Sign of the Temple near Temple-bar. Price Bound 1 s. 6 d.

 De Junii Juvenalis & Persii Flacci Satyræ; Newly Reprinted from the Paris Edition; done for the Use of the Dauphin: The Text Printed on a fair Character, with a Periphrase in Prose of every Verse; never extant in any other Edition; with large Annotations upon all difficult Places; and an Index of every Word in the Book, as often as it occurs. Printed by T. Dring at the Harrow in Fleet-street, and Abel Swille at the Unicorn at the West-end of St. Pauls: Where also may be had the several Books Reprinted here according to the Paris Editions for the Use of the Dauphin.

 A Geographical Dictionary: Representing the Present and Ancient Names of all the Countries, Provinces, remarkable Cities, Universities, Ports, Towns, Mountains, Sea, Straights, Fountains, and Rivers, of the whole World: Their Distances, Longitudes and Latitudes. With a short Historical Account of the same; and their present State. To which is added An Index of the Ancient and Latin Names. By Edm. Bohun Esq. The Second Edition Corrected, and Enlarged by another Hand, together with several Useful Maps not in the former Edition. Printed for C. Brome at the Gun at the West-end of St. Pauls.

 A Collection of Choice Ayres for 2 and 3 Treble Voices, Composed by the best Masters of Stutick. Sold by Thomas Jones at the White Horse without Temple-bar, Jonn May at the Sugar-loaf near the Middle Temple-Gate, and Fr. Hicks Book-ster in Cambridge.

Lost from the Right Honourable Francis Lord Carleton a Wotton Wagon in Warwickshire, on the 6th instant, a Parcel Nag with a Blaze almost down his Face, a raw Nose, short Mane, a short bob Tail with grizzled Hairs in it, about 13 hands, trots all, comes 4. Whoever secures him, and gives Notice to Mr. Robert Rickards, Upholsterer in Brownlow Buildings in Drury Lane, London, or to Mr. John Sanders in Wotton Wagon at St. Pauls, shall have a Guinea Reward, and reasonable Charges.

There is now made, at the Bear Garden Glass-house on the Bank side, Crown Window Glass, much exceeding former Glass in all its Qualifications; which may be squared into all Sizes of Sashes for Windows, and other Uses; and may be used in most Glasses in London.

A Very fair and large Stable-Yard, call'd Port's Stable-Yard, near Golden Square by Piccadilly, with Stabling for about 60 Horses, and Hay-lofts over them, 20 Coach-houses, with a Gallery, Lodging Rooms, and Garrets over them; also Spring and New-River Water laid into the Yard, will be let at a reasonable Rate. Enquire at the said place.