

and in a Latin Speech complimented His Majesty upon His coming into these Parts, and undertaking this Expedition for the common good of Christendom: And the Magistrates of that City made the same Compliment to His Majesty; which they accompanied with a handsome Present of Wine.

Hague, June 22. We have an account from Flandres, that the King encamped yesterday at Bruxelles, about 2 Leagues from Louvain, and has said His Majesty designs to march towards the Country of Namur, to join the Forces of Luxembourg and Hesse. Brigadier Fagel remains with 6 Regiments at Bouffels. The Letters from Germany give an Account, that the Elector of Saxony was arrived at Hallert; and that 10000 Imperialists, and 6000 Bavarians, designed for Savoy, have already begun their march towards the Country of the Grisons, through which they are to pass; that the Generals Puff and Cremona are gone before, and the Elector of Bavaria will quickly follow. The Letters from Hamburg say, that the Forces of Zell and Wolfenbuttel are on their march towards Brabant. We hear from Leige, that the Bishop has banished for ever, out of the Territories of Leige, the Sieur Rot de Liber, and three other of the Canons of that Church, for leading Correspondence with the French. An Envoy from the Emperor of Morocco had, on the 15th, publick Audience of the States-General.

Edinburg, June 11. The Letters from Inverness tell us, that they hear of no stirring among the Highlanders, who are without hopes of receiving any assistance from abroad; and that divers of them come in daily, and take the Oaths of Fidelity to their Majesties. All is likewise very quiet in the West and South parts of this Kingdom. Yesterday the Privy Council caused a Proclamation to be published discharging the Rendezvous of the Militia of this Kingdom, appointed by their former Proclamation of the 29th of May, for that the condition of Affairs do not require their meeting now; and withal Commanding the Officers and Leaders of them to take care that they be well provided with Horses and Arms, and in a readiness to march whenever they shall have a new Summons. Sir Thomas Livingston is going to form a Camp of our standing Forces near this City.

From the Camp near Ballymore, June 9. On the 6th instant Lieutenant-General Grickell, Commander in Chief of Their Majesties Forces in this Kingdom, decamped from Mullingar, and was joyned the same day by Lieutenant-General Douglas with the Troops from the North. On the 7th we came before Ballymore; the Marquis de Rucigny being first before with a strong Detachment of Horse and Dragons to posses himself of a Pass between that Place and Athlone; as soon as our advanced Party appeared upon the Hills that look into the Fort, the Enemy began to fire with two small Field-pieces they had there, but without doing us any harm. In the mean time a Detachment of Foot was sent to posses themselves of the Enemies Out-Posts, which they immediately quitted upon the approach of our men, and ran as fast as they could into Ballymore, only a Sergeant and 12 men continued firing out of a round Tower some time after, and kill'd two of our men; but being taken, the Sergeant was hanged upon a high Hill in sight of the Enemy, for firing upon our men after the Communication was cut off between him and the place. That Afternoon we brought 4 Field-pieces to the front of the Fort, and the night following raised 5 Batteries, which began to play on the 8th very early in the morning. About 8 a Clock the General sent a Message to the Governor, That if he and the Garrison would surrender within two hours, he would give their Lives, and make them Prisoners of War; if not, they were to expect no Quarter. To which the Governor made a shunning sort of Reply, in hopes of getting better Terms; but our Cannon and Bombs having made two Breaches, and four Boats, that were brought by Land from McLugger, being put into the Water, and all things being ready for an Assault, it was ordered to give a Communication amongst the Enemy, that of throwing out several White Flags; and about 7 in the Evening when they left off firing on both sides, the Governor, General Frederic Lewis, and several Officers, came out, and submitted at Discretion, and Colonel Earle, who commanded the Approach that day, marched in with 200 men, and took Possession of the Place; the Garrison, to the number of 500 men, besides four dead Officers, 16 Captains, 12 Lieutenants, 12 Ensigns and Cornets, &c. and 255 Rapperies, who were all very well Armed, laying down their Arms, and being made Prisoners in the nearest part of the Fort: Besides the Garrison, there were above 1000 Women and Children, with a great many Cows and Sheep, and some Horses: They had but a little of Powder. We left in this Occupation only 8 men, and killed of the Enemy about 150. The Situation of the place is extremely strong, being environ'd almost with a Lake and Bog, which was impassable, and the only place where it could be attack'd by Land, being secured by two g of Batteries and a Pinch, and without that by two other Batteries and a Palladoed Counter-carp; but on the other side 'tis altogether unfortified.

Dublin, June 10. On the 8th instant in the Evening Ballymore was surrendered at Discretion. And it's believed the Army marches this day or to-morrow to Athlone, which is but 10 Miles from Ballymore. The Prince of Wittsmere joins them on their march. All the Advices we have from the Enemies Quarters say, the late Success from France were nothing near so considerable as was at first reported; they brought only 6000 Arms, and about 10000 upper Garb, but neither Hats, Shoes, nor Stockings, of which kind the Irish Soldiers are in an extreme want.

Weymouth, June 15. Several Vessels are come in here, which left our Fleet last night to the Southward of the Isle of Wight, and we hourly expect them in sight of this place.

Portsmouth, June 16. On Sunday morning the Fleet, under the command of Admiral Rassell, sailed by to the Westward; and yesterday morning they were seen to sail to the South-Westward of the Isle of Wight, having but a bare Wind, and little of it.
