Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 21, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Manchester, desire to record our deep and sincere sympathy in the loss which Your Majesty has sustained by the grievous and unexpected death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg.

The circumstances attending the departure of His Royal Highness with Your Majesty's Forces for Africa, and the sense of public duty then evinced, are fresh in the recollection of the Nation, and, we feel assured, will afford consolation to Your Majesty and the Widowed Princess.

We call to mind Your Majesty's recent visit to Manchester accompanied by His Royal Highness, and we are thus enabled to realize to some extent the loss occasioned by his lamented death whilst in the prime of life.

We take this opportunity of again assuring Your Majesty of our continued attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

Given under our Common Seal, this 30th day January, 1896.

Abraham E. Lloyd,
Lord Mayor.
Wm. Henry Talbot,
Town Clerk.

L. S.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Law Officers of the Crown, and the Deputies of the several Parishes and Cantons of Your Majesty's Island of Guernsey—in the States assembled—beg leave, on our own behalf and that of the Community at large, to approach Your Majesty with the respectful expression of our heartfelt sympathy under the heavy affliction with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit Your Majesty and Your Illustrious Family, in removing from this life His late Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., the devoted Consort of Her Royal Highness Princess Beatrice.

We beg to assure Your Majesty that in no part of Your Majesty's dominions has the unexpected and almost sudden death of His Royal Highness been more deeply and universally felt than in this Island.

In venturing thus to tender our sincere condolence and sympathy, we beg to assure Your Majesty that it is our earnest hope and prayer that it may please Almighty God to strengthen and support Your Majesty under this heavy affliction, and to preserve Your Majesty to reign for many years to come over a loyal and devoted people.
