*Board of Trade (Fisheries Department),
London, May 4, 1896.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Proclamation concerning quarantine, issued by the Quarantine Board of Mobile, viz.:—

QUARANTINE PROCLAMATION.

Office of Quarantine Board of Mobile Bay, Mobile, Ala., April 4, 1896.

IN accordance with law, and by virtue of authority vested in me by the Quarantine Board of Mobile Bay, I, A. C. Danner, President of said Board, do hereby declare, that from and after sunrise, on the 1st day of May, 1896, and until the 1st day of December, 1896, unless sooner revoked, quarantine shall be enforced against all vessels entering Lower Mobile Bay, as follows:—

First—Against all vessels, with their ballast, crews, passengers, baggage and freight coming from ports regarded by the Board as infected.

Second—Against all vessels with their cargoes, ballast, crews, passengers, baggage and freight coming from ports regarded by the Board as suspected.

Third—Against all vessels and their contents, which are infected, or with a history of infection during the present year, and have not subsequently been subjected to improved maritime sanitation.

Fourth—Against all vessels and their contents that, during the quarantine season, have visited ports declared by this Board to be infected, and subsequently arrive in our bay from foreign or domestic ports where no disinfection by the improved process is practised.

Ports now regarded as infected are all the ports of Cuba, Rio de Janeiro, Para, Bahia, Pernambuco, Santos, Ceara, San Juan (Porto Rico), Puntas, Arenas, Guayaquil and Vera Cruz, and vessels coming from ports hereafter becoming infected will be treated in same manner as those from ports named. Ports regarded as suspected are all other South American and West Indian ports, as well as those of Central America and Mexico, with the exception of the following, to wit: Ruatan, Bonacco, Utila, Truxillo, Swan Island, Grand Cayman and Cayman Brac; but vessels from these especially named, with passengers aboard, will be subjected to such detention and disinfection of vessels and contents, as the Quarantine Board, or Executive Officer may prescribe on arrival at Quarantine Station.

All vessels and contents, under the first class, will be subjected to thorough maritime sanitation, and then detained five full days from completion of process. Pilots will not board such vessels unless it is absolutely necessary, but will waive them to the proper quarantine anchorage. Pilots violating this provision will, at the option of the Board, or its Executive Officer, be subjected to same treatment as other persons on board said vessels.

All vessels under the second class will be subjected to thorough maritime sanitation, and then be detained three full days from completion of process.

No vessel under the third class will be allowed in the lower bay until Master produces a certificate that his vessel and contents have been subjected to thorough disinfection by the improved method, after which the vessel will be carefully inspected and detained only for cause. Vessels under this class, without certificates here referred to, will be spoken off the bar and directed to the Ship Island Refuge Station, and pilots and other persons are not allowed to board such vessels.

Vessels under the fourth class, that is those visiting ports declared by this Board infected, and subsequently visiting New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore or other ports, will not be allowed to come to the city without thorough maritime sanitation is undergone subsequent to departure from infected port, and certificate to that effect from the official having so treated the vessel.

Any vessel not from an infected place, but bringing ballast, crew, passengers, baggage or freight from an infected place, will be included in the first class, and treated accordingly, unless the Master can produce a certificate that said ballast, crew, passengers, baggage and freight have been subjected to disinfection and detention prescribed for vessels under the first class.

Vessels from ports known not to be infected, and not heretofore provided for, will only be detained at Quarantine Station a sufficient length of time to be placed in proper sanitary condition. All vessels, however, entering the bay, except those holding release certificates, must be inspected by the Quarantine Physician and procure pratique before coming to the city, or communicating with other vessels or persons.

Regular lines engaged in fruit traffic from ports included as suspected, but not declared infected, may be continued during the quarantine season under special provisions and agreements similar to those formulated and adopted last season.

The restrictions herein proclaimed are subject to change, at the option of the Quarantine Board, to meet particular cases.

The rules and regulations in force in 1892, except when in conflict with the provisions of this Proclamation, as well as regulations for the government of the station employees and all those having business with the same, issued by the executive officer, April 15, 1895, will remain in full force and effect during 1896, and all parties interested can procure copies of the same by calling at the office of the Quarantine Board.

Notice is hereby also given, that notwithstanding the Summer Quarantine will not take effect until May 1, inspections of vessels now made by the Quarantine Physician, in the stream in front of the city, will, on and after April 15, be rigidly conducted at the Quarantine Station, and pilots and masters of vessels will be governed accordingly, or incur the penalty.

The following named persons are the duly authorized active officers of the Board for the coming season, and must be respected accordingly: Dr. T. S. Scales, Health and Chief Executive Officer; Dr. Geo. H. Fowler, Quarantine Physician; Mr. R. B. Owen, Secretary and Treasurer.

For the information of all interested, an Ordinance in relation to quarantine, adopted by the Hon. General Council of the city is published, as follows:—

"An Ordinance to Prevent Violations of Quarantine.

"Section 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and General Council, That any person who shall violate or escape from quarantine, lawfully established by any authority, and enter the city of Mobile, shall be arrested by the police and conducted out of the city, to the nearest quarantine station, and may, in the discretion of the Mayor, be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence.

"Section 2. Be it further ordained, That any person who shall bring, or cause to be brought into the city of Mobile, any article or merchandise in violation of any quarantine regulation of this city, county, state, or the Quarantine Board of Mobile Bay, shall, on conviction, be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence, and such article or merchandise shall, in the discretion of the Mayor, be removed, disinfected or destroyed, at the expense of the offender.

"Section 3. Be it further ordained, That any person who shall aid or instigate any other in committing any offence above described or shall in any way be instrumental or concerned in such offence shall, on conviction before the Mayor, be fined not exceeding fifty dollars."
