

said parish of Llangattwg otherwise Llangattock from the parish of Llangynidr aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme of representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and the patrons of the new parish of Beaufort and the Incumbents of the said new parish of Beaufort and of the parish of Llangattwg otherwise Llangattock have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas Henry Charles FitzRoy Duke of Beaufort K.G. as the patron of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llangattwg otherwise Llangattock has offered certain objections to the proposed arrangements.

And whereas notwithstanding such objections the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of Llandaff and of Saint David's respectively.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In the Parish Churchyard of Downe, in the county of Kent, until the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

In the Parish Churchyard of Morthoe, in the county of Devon, until the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

In the Parish Churchyard of Bellingham, in the county of Northumberland, until the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

C. L. Peel.
