INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of All Saints, situate within the Parish of Rufforth, in the County of York and in the Diocese of York, for the Old Church of All Saints, hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish, but now pulled down.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a New Church has lately been built within the parish of Rufforth, in the county of York and in the diocese of York and has been consecrated and dedicated to All Saints.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, as Diocesan and Emma Middlewood of Rufforth aforesaid, Spinster, and Marian Middlewood of the same place, Spinster, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Rufforth, and the Reverend Henry Andrew Wilson, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Rufforth that the said new church of All Saints situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to All Saints) of the same parish.

Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument, under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, and of the said Emma Middlewood, Marian Middlewood, and Henry Andrew Wilson, hereby declare that the said new church of All Saints, situate within the said parish of Rufforth, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to All Saints as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Rufforth, in lieu of the said old parish church of All Saints, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of All Saints, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to All Saints as aforesaid) of the said parish of Rufforth, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of All Saints (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Rufforth) and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, has set his hand and affixed his archiepiscopal seal, and the said Emma Middlewood, Marian Middlewood, and Henry Andrew Wilson have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this seventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.
