

Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint Luke Torquay, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke, Torquay is vested in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the parish of Tormohun in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter.

“And whereas the Reverend Henry William Majendie, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Tormohun is desirous that the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay now vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun should from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the same parish be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and their successors for ever.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Henry now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and as such Bishop the patron of the said vicarage of the parish of Tormohun is willing that such transfer should be made and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas a sum of one hundred pounds sterling has been paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in favour of the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay upon condition that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed shall be effected.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Luke Torquay.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry William Majendie vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Tormohun acting as such vicar or incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Tormohun the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay now vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun as aforesaid shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be transferred from the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun to the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and by their successors for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) situate within the borough of Croydon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury and partly out of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon in the same borough, county and diocese.
