AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

DANBY, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Danby, in the county of York; and also in the old part of the churchyard.

FEWSTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Fewston, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

In such walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burial may be allowed of the following persons at their decease, viz., Grace Hutton and Gilbertson Darnbrook on condition that each coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the first day of October next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said first day of October.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the Parish Churchyard of Downe, in the county of Kent, until the thirtieth November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882," as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Reigate, and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his Scheme in the following terms:—

"BOROUGH OF REIGATE, 1896.

"WHEREAS by the Municipal Corporations Act 1882 it is provided (inter alia) as follows:—

"If two-thirds of the Council of a borough agree to petition and the Council thereupon petition the Queen for the division of the borough into wards or for the alteration of the number and boundaries of its wards it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided and the borough shall be divided into that number of wards. Where an Order has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and apportioning the Councillors among them. In case of alteration of wards the Commissioner shall so apportion among the altered wards the Councillors for those wards so as to provide for their continuing to represent as large a number as possible of their former constituents.

"And whereas the said Municipal Corporations Act 1882 was in certain particulars amended by the Municipal Corporations Act 1893.

"And whereas on the twelfth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley Baronet one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State did in pursuance of the said Municipal Corporations Act 1882 as amended by the Municipal Corporations Act 1893 duly warrant and appoint Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Esquire Barrister-at-Law to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of and for apportioning the Councillors among the wards of the borough of Reigate the number of such
