The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the London County Council.

TAKE notice, that we, the Company of Proprietors of Lambeth Water Works, in conformity with the provisions of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, propose to give, on and after the 1st day of April, 1897, a constant supply of water to so much and such parts of the parishes of St. Giles, Camberwell, and St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of London, as are bounded by or contained within imaginary lines drawn along or near to the following roads and places, that is to say:—

Commencing at the junction of Half Moon-lane and Herne Hill, thence northward at the rear of the houses on the west side of Herne Hill and Denmark Hill, as far as Denmark Hill Railway Station, thence eastward along the South London Railway to its point of intersection with the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, thence southward along the latter railway as far as Green-lane, thence south-eastward along the rear of the houses on the south side of Townley-road as far as East Dulwich-grove, thence westward along the rear of the houses on the south side of East Dulwich-grove and Half Moon-lane, as far as the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Bridge, thence south-westward along that railway to its point of intersection with the London, Chatham and Dover Railway, and thence northward along the latter railway to the junction of Half Moon-lane and Herne Hill, and which area or district is called "Country District, Division P."

And we also propose to give, on and after the 1st day of October, 1897, a constant supply of water to so much and such parts of the parish of St. Mary, Lewisham, in the county of London, as are bounded by or contained within imaginary lines drawn along or near to the following roads and places, that is to say:—Commencing at the west end of Stanstead-road, thence northward along the London Brighton and South Coast Railway to its point of intersection with the London Chatham and Dover Railway from Nunhead to Shortlands, thence south-eastward along that railway to the river Ravensbourne, thence southward along the west bank of the river Ravensbourne to Catford Bridge, and thence westward along the rear of the houses on the south side of Stanstead-road to the London Brighton and South Coast Railway, and which area or district is called "Country District, Division Q."

And we also propose to give, on and after the 1st day of April, 1898, a constant supply of water to so much and such parts of the parish of St. Mary, Lewisham, in the county of London, as are bounded by or contained within imaginary lines drawn along or near to the following roads and places, that is to say:—Commencing at Forest Hill Railway Station, thence northward along the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, as far as Stanstead-road, thence eastward along the rear of the houses on the south side of Stanstead-road to Catford Bridge, thence southward along the west bank of the River Pool as far as Elm-lane, and thence westward at the rear of the houses on the south side of Elm-lane, Woolstene-road, and Perry Vale, to Forest Hill Railway Station, and which area or district is called "Country District, Division R."

Given under the Common Seal of the Company of Proprietors of Lambeth Waterworks the 29th day of September, 1896.

Sealed by order of the Board of Directors, H. WILKINS, Secretary.
