And whereas the Right Reverend Richard, Lord Bishop of Llandaff, hath represented in a writing dated the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan.

"We Richard Bishop of Llandaff in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of 'The Pluralities Act 1838' (one and two Victoria chapter one hundred and six) do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Monmouth and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or rectory of Llanhilleth the parish whereof contains a population of about four thousand. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llanhilleth arising from all sources is two hundred and sixty pounds or thereabouts.

"2. There is in the same county of Monmouth and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or perpetual curacy of Penmaen the parish or district whereof contains a population of eleven thousand or thereabouts the net annual value of the said benefice of Penmaen arising from all sources is two hundred and eighty pounds or thereabouts.

"3. There is also in the same county of Monmouth and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Michael Abertillery the parish or district whereof contains a population of thirteen thousand or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice of Saint Michael Abertillery arising from all sources is two hundred pounds or thereabouts.

"4. A certain part coloured green on the plan hereto annexed of the district called Crumlin which is situate within the said parish of Llanhilleth and which contains a population of about two hundred and fifty persons which lies contiguous to the said parish of Penmaen (the other portion of such district of Crumlin being already in the same parish of Penmaen) may from its geographical position as well as the fact that these mountain villages are sometimes included in two and sometimes three parishes be with great advantage to the religious interests of the population resident there separated from the said parish of Llanhilleth and annexed to the said parish of Penmaen.

"5. That a certain district called Aberbeeg with a population containing about one thousand persons is situate in the said parishes of Llanhilleth Penmaen and Abertillery. Those portions thereof which lie within the said parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen being coloured respectively blue and red upon the said plan such district of Aberbeeg is situated between the two hamlets called Six Bells and Llanhilleth and is about two miles from Abertillery the latter being a compact town with a population of about thirteen thousand persons higher up the valley and is also about three miles distant from the parish church of Penmaen but only one mile distant from the parish church of Llanhilleth and therefore such portions of the district of Aberbeeg could with great advantage to the religious interests of the population resident within such portions of the said district of Aberbeeg be separated from the said parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen and annexed to the said parish of Llanhilleth.

"6. It appears to us the said Bishop of Llandaff and we do hereby represent to your Grace that under the provisions of the Pluralities Acts 1838 and 1887 the several places or districts hereinbefore referred to may be advantageously separated from the parishes to which the same now severally belong and be severally annexed to the parishes as follows:—

"(b.) The portions of the parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen hereinbefore described as forming part of the district of Aberbeeg (and coloured respectively blue and red on the plan) to be annexed to the parish of Llanhilleth.

"7. The Most Honourable the Marquess of Abergavenny K.G. is the patron of the benefice of Llanhilleth. The Crown and we the said Bishop of Llandaff alternately are the patrons of the benefice of Penmaen and the Reverend Howell Howell Clerk Rector of Abertillery in the county of Monmouth is the patron of the benefice of Saint Michael Abertillery.

"8. The Reverend Daniel Felix Clerk is the present incumbent of the benefice or rectory of Llanhilleth the Reverend David Gower Clerk is the present incumbent of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Penmaen and the Reverend Hiram Smyth Rees Clerk is the present incumbent of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Michael Abertillery.

up the scheme in writing annexed to this representation describing the respective districts so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the respective parishes of Llanhilleth and Penmaen and the mode in which it appears to us that the alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands tithes, rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect of rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested and we do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the necessary consents in pursuance of the 'Pluralities Act 1838' of the Most Honourable the Marquess of Abergavenny K.G. the patron of the benefice or rectory of Llanhilleth of the Crown and as the said Bishop of Llandaff the patrons alternately of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Penmaen, and of the Reverend Howell Howell Clerk rector of Aberystwith in the said county of Monmouth the patron of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Michael Abertillery and in case you shall upon full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith we request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"And whereas the said Augusta Sarah Stafford Sparrow, Eleanor Kathleen Stafford Sidney, Gertrude Amy Stafford Sidney and Gwendoline Mary Stafford Greenwell are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael at Bowes Southgate now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick now Bishop of the said diocese of London is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael at Bowes Southgate which is hereinafter mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Michael at Bowes, Southgate.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Augusta Sarah Stafford Sparrow, Eleanor Kathleen Stafford Sidney, Gertrude Amy Stafford Sidney, and Gwendoline Mary Stafford Greenwell (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael at Bowes Southgate now vested in them the said Augusta Sarah Stafford Sparrow Eleanor Kathleen Stafford Sidney Gertrude Amy Stafford Sidney and Gwendoline Mary Stafford Greenwell and their heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from them to the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London and by his successors Bishops of the said diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Durst as such rector or incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Mary Southampton as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Right Reverend Randall Thomas now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester as such patron in right of his See of the same rectory (in testimony of which consent he has to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the annual income or dividends of the said sum of four thousand four hundred and sixty-two pounds thirteen shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum stock and the income or dividends of the investments for the time being representing such last-mentioned sum of stock shall be payable and paid over to our common fund to be applied to and for the purposes of the said common fund and particularly in or towards the future endowment or the future augmentation of the income of all or of any of the said separate and distinct benefices or ecclesiastical districts or new parishes already existing or which may hereafter be formed within or partly within the ancient limits of the said parish of Saint Mary Southampton.

"And we further recommend and propose that the income or dividends from time to time arising or accruing due on the said sum of four thousand four hundred and sixty-two pounds thirteen shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum stock or on the investments for the time being representing the said sum of stock shall be applied firstly in discharging the sums due to the said Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the two mortgages aforesaid and that subject to such last-mentioned application the said sum of four thousand four hundred and sixty-two pounds thirteen shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum stock and the investment for the time being representing the same and the income or dividends from time to time arising or accruing due thereon shall be accumulated to the intent that the accumulated fund so formed (including the incomes or dividends from time to time received and invested) may be applied to the objects hereinbefore mentioned but that no such application of the accumulated fund so formed shall be made before the avoidance of the said rectory of Saint Mary Southampton by the said William Durst save and except with the consent in writing of the Lord Bishop of Winchester for the time being.

And whereas notice of the foregoing scheme which is required by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or some or one of them has been given by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the patron of the said rectory and parish of Saint Mary Southampton, and such patron has (as aforesaid) signified his consent to the said scheme.

Foreign Office, January 16, 1897.

HER Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Serajevo a despatch, inclosing the text of an Order of the Government of Bosnia and Herzegovina, dated December 1, 1896, which modifies the passport system hitherto in force in these Provinces, and of which the following are the provisions applicable to foreigners :—

(Translation.)

3. Native and foreign travellers are henceforth relieved from the obligation to present themselves personally to the authorities and are only obliged to prove their identity by their passports or other documents to those who give them lodging.

When travelling within the district of their ordinary domicile (in which case urban and rural districts are to be considered as one) even this obligation ceases, as in this case also hitherto it was not necessary to present themselves.

4. Householders (keepers of lodgings) in District and Sub-District towns are bound to report, within twenty-four hours, either verbally or in writing, to the local political authorities of First Instance the arrival of all travellers taken in for the night who do not belong to the district.

5. The Keepers of Hotels, Inns, and Khans, in the Departmental District and Sub-District towns, who lodge travellers as a business, must keep a Visitors' Book in the prescribed form, and the local authorities must take all necessary dispositions for the daily presentation of these Visitors' Books by the hotel and inn keepers to the said authorities, or for the daily inspection of these Visitors' Books by a Government Official, or, finally, in the hotels in the larger towns, for the daily presentation of the notices of arrival (Meldezettel).

From the foregoing regulations it follows that henceforth travellers are exempt as a rule from any official control at the railway stations, landing piers of steamers, ferries, &c.

As, however, these facilities to travellers exempt no one from the obligation, which still remains in force, to prove his identity on the demand of the authorities, so also in the future there will be no objection, under exceptional circumstances or as regards suspicious looking persons, to the authorities exercising a control over any traveller or travellers either on his arrival or during the journey, but in such cases they must be careful to avoid every vexation and to treat the traveller with politeness.

It must also be remarked that the existing control of the passenger traffic at certain places on the frontier, so as to keep a watch on evil-disposed persons, will be maintained so long as it may appear necessary, and even in the future introduced where needful, as it is nowise intended by the above-mentioned facilities to travellers to hinder the measures taken by the police for the maintenance of order.
