

in Council, by his report dated the sixteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

“To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We the undersigned Edward White, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:

“That the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Llandaff has represented unto us (amongst other things)

“That there is in the county of Monmouth and his diocese of Llandaff the benefice or rectory of Llanhilleth, the benefice or perpetual curacy of Penmaen, and the benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Michael Abertillery.

“That it appears to the said Lord Bishop:

“(a.) That a portion of a district of the said parish of Llanhilleth called Crumlin described in the scheme of the said Lord Bishop and which is coloured green in the plan referred to therein may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Llanhilleth and be annexed to the said parish of Penmaen.

“(b.) That the portions of the parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen forming part of the district of Aberbeeg (and coloured respectively blue and red on the said plan) may be advantageously separated from those latter parishes and annexed to the said parish of Llanhilleth for ecclesiastical purposes under the provisions of ‘The Pluralities Act 1838.’

“That pursuant to the direction contained in the said Act the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes tithes rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the Most Honourable the Marquess of Abergavenny K.G. patron of the benefice of Llanhilleth aforesaid, the Crown and the said Bishop of Llandaff alternately the patrons of the said benefice of Penmaen, and the Reverend Howell Howell, Clerk, Rector of Aberystwith in the county of Monmouth the patron of the said benefice of Saint Michael Abertillery, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

“The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

“And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said ‘Pluralities Act 1838’ certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

“As witness our hand this sixteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

“Edu. Cantuar.”

And whereas the incumbents of Llanhilleth and Penmaen have consented in writing and the incumbent of Abertillery has not consented to the said scheme.

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect upon the occasion of the next avoidance of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Michael Abertillery.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, Heaton, situate in the township of Heaton in the parish of Deane in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, Heaton situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Deane which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry, to the said church called Christ Church, Heaton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Christ Church Heaton.’

“And with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church Heaton, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Henry Sheridan Patterson, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Deane, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the said church called Christ Church Heaton, situate
