C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas Pleasley Hill situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John Mansfield in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Barnabas Pleasley Hill situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint John Mansfield, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Barnabas, Pleasley Hill situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas Pleasley Hill.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Barnabas Pleasley Hill situate as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Pleasley Hill, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John Mansfield in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell which is bounded upon the east by the parish or parochial chapelry of Mansfield Woodhouse in the said county and diocese upon the north and upon the north-west by the parish of Pleasley in the county of Derby and in the diocese aforesaid upon the west partly by the parish of Teversall and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Skegby both in the said county of Nottingham and in the diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Skegby from the new parish of Saint John Mansfield aforesaid at the junction of the road which leads from the house called or known as Dalestorth House to the houses called or known as Penniment Houses with Cock-lane and extending thence north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of one mile and thirty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Chesterfield-road and with Debdale-lane and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Mansfield from the parish or parochial chapelry of Mansfield Woodhouse aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.
