

England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Good Shepherd situate in East-street, Chard, in the parish of Chard in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Good Shepherd situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Wyndham Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Chard which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Good Shepherd situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Good Shepherd, Furnham, Chard.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Wyndham Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Good Shepherd situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Good Shepherd, Furnham, Chard, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Chard in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells which is bounded upon the north partly by the parish of Combe Saint Nicholas and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Knowle Saint Giles both in the said county and diocese upon the north-east partly by the last-named cure and partly by the parish of Chaffcombe in the same county and diocese upon the east partly by the last-named parish and partly by the parish of Winsham also in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south upon the south-west, and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Winsham from the parish of Chard aforesaid at a point near Horn Lodge in the middle of the road leading from Winsham to Forton and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert near Forton which carries that road over the stream which flows from Chard past Old Town Rope and Twine Mills and Forton Corn Mill and extending thence first northward then north-westward and then westward up the middle of the said stream for a distance of one mile and fifty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of Leathern Bridge at Chard which carries Silver-street over the said stream and extending thence northward along the middle of the said street for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with East-street and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading to Ilminster and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Mount Hindrance-lane and extending thence first westward and then northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of forty-seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads from Hornsbury to Culliford's Door and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction at Culliford's Door aforesaid with the road leading past the house called Lower Langham and through Nimmer towards Moor Farm and Clayhanger Cross and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of forty-eight chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the River Isle upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chard from the parish of Combe Saint Nicholas aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells. C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-
