C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to a certain benefice namely, the church and cure (being a vicarage) of Saint Clement (Truro) in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro, by way of exchange for the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to a certain other benefice namely the church and cure (being a vicarage) of Manaccan in the said county of Cornwall and in the said diocese of Truro.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Clement (Truro) is vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown and such right of patronage and presentation is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Manaccan is vested in the Bishop of Truro and his successors in right of his See.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the Right Reverend John now Bishop of the said diocese of Truro have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices may be assigned and transferred by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said benefices and patronage and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he the said Baron Halsbury has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint
