L. Peel.*

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Abergorlech within the limits of the parish of Llanybyther in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint David's.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Llanybyther of the parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel in the said county and diocese and of the parish of Llanfynydd in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and of such parish or parochial chapelry as aforesaid.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Llanybyther of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llansawel and of the said parish of Llanfynydd should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church situate at Abergorlech as aforesaid:

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese
