GEORGE NORTH ROBINSON Deceased.

ANN WILLIS Deceased.

WHEREAS by an Order dated the 24th day of April 1893 of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice made in the matter of the trusts of the will of George North Robinson deceased, Hunter v. Robinson 1892 E. 2407 it was ordered (inter alia) that the following enquiries should be made namely:—An enquiry whether there were any and what descendants of William Robinson in the said will named living at the date of the death of the testator (who died on the 21st July 1858) and whether any and which of them have since died and when they died and who are now their legal personal representatives and an enquiry whether there were any and what descendants of the said William Robinson born after the death of the testator George North Robinson and before the death of George Robinson Barnes in the said will named (who died on the 25th August 1892) and whether any and which of such last mentioned descendants have since died and when they died and who are now their respective legal personal representatives. The said testator George North Robinson resided at Leadwell House in the parish of Sandford in the county of Oxford and was a Doctor of Medicine. And whereas the proceedings under the said enquiries are still pending and it appears that Ann Willis late the wife of George Willis (formerly Ann King) was a descendant of the said William Robinson who was formerly of the parish of St. Thomas in the city of Oxford in England and was married to Martha Saunders on the 24th day of October 1729. Notice is hereby given that any persons claiming to be the descendants of the said Ann King (who married George Willis on the 2nd day of December 1837 at the parish church of St. Dunstan's in the West London in the county of Middlesex England) and to have been born before the said 25th August 1892 are by their Solicitors on or before Friday 2nd day of April 1897 to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice North at the Royal Courts of Justice Strand London England or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Tuesday the 6th day of April 1897 at the hour of 12.30 of the clock in the afternoon at the said chambers is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—The said Ann Willis resided in Ontario Canada and afterwards removed to Buffalo in the United States of America.—Dated this 2nd day of February 1897.
